Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

FIFTY-FOURTH DAY, Wednesday, April 10, 1996

Speaker Pro Tem Daniels in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

We give you thanks, O God of history, that this state and this land are still governed by the people's representatives. Let the democratic process be seen in its best light during this period of campaigning, nominating and electing. Help us keep pride and arrogance from misleading the ways of justice and honesty.

Today, Lord, we recognize in this great Capitol, those men and women who serve and have served in the military forces of our nation. We give you thanks for their willingness, for their courage, for their steadfastness. But in the midst of that recognition, we also pray that one day soon our guns and tanks and weapons of destruction will be beaten into plowshares; our military men and women will find themselves in occupations of peace; and the nations of the world will work together for the common good of all humanity. Let it be so, O God, let it be so.

And now bless those who labor here with your guidance. Give them wisdom, insight, and courage to do what needs to be done. And reassure them of your presence in their daily living. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

House Resolution No. 598

Whereas, upon occasion the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to acknowledge the achievements of today's young citizens who will be tomorrow's leaders; and

Whereas, "Take Our Daughters to Work Day" was established in 1933 to bring young women into the work place in an endeavor to help them build confidence by showing them the vast array of career choices available to women today; and

Whereas, the Honorable Mel Carnahan, governor of the great state of Missouri, has proclaimed April 10, 1996, as "Take Our Daughters to Work Day" in Missouri; and

Whereas, the Missouri Senate and the Missouri House of Representatives will enjoy the honor of playing hosts to the numerous young women who will participate in the third annual "Take Our Daughters to Work Day"; and

Whereas, these young women from all across the state will experience the opportunity to witness first-hand the rapid pace at which the women of the Missouri General Assembly perform their duties and responsibilities; and

Whereas, while in Jefferson City, these young women will receive a formal introduction in the Senate and in the House, will participate in a tour of the capitol, and will be the guests at a special luncheon; and

Whereas, it is the sincere desire of this legislative body that all Missourians support "Take Our Daughters to Work Day" by inviting young women into the work place to explore the career opportunities awaiting women today:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Eighty-eighth General Assembly, unanimously join in extending a most cordial welcome to all those young women who will participate in this year's "Take Our Daughters to Work Day"; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation during the 1996 "Take Our Daughters to Work Day".

On motion of Representative Ostmann, Rule 63 was suspended and HR 598 was adopted.

PRESENTATION OF THE COLORS

The Missouri National Guard approached the dais for the presentation of the Colors.

House Resolution No. 743

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are fully cognizant of the vital role which this nation's armed forces play in protecting and defending America's freedom and her interests around the world; and

Whereas, April 10, 1996, has been designated Military Appreciation/Recognition Day in Missouri as an appropriate way to honor all those brave men and women who have given of themselves in service to America as members of the armed forces stationed in Missouri; and

Whereas, those individuals to be honored on Military Appreciation/Recognition Day include not only active duty members, but also reserve members, National Guard members, veterans, retirees, POWs, and MIAs; and

Whereas, during the festivities on this special occasion, the state of Missouri will enjoy the rare opportunity to acknowledge the sacrifices and the contributions made by two Congressional Medal of Honor winners, Mr. William E. Hall and Mr. Donald E. Ballard; and

Whereas, William E. Hall served America with courage, pride, and loyalty during World War II as a Navy pilot with the rank of Lieutenant, Junior Grade; and

Whereas, Donald E. Ballard rendered proud, courageous, and faithful service to his native land during the Vietnam Conflict as a Navy Hospital Corpsman, Second Class; and

Whereas, it is with deepest gratitude that this legislative body pauses to applaud the countless ways in which the members of the United States Armed Forces have accepted their responsibility in times of both peace and war so that this nation could continue to prosper as the leader of the free world:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Eighty-eighth General Assembly, unanimously join with all Missourians in paying tribute to those men and women who have distinguished themselves by carrying on the proud military tradition of America's armed forces through their patriotism, valor, and commitment to the highest standards of excellence; and

Any such reduction in the applicable percentage by the director shall not have any effect on credits against state premium tax liability which have been claimed or will be claimed by any investor with respect to credits which have been earned and vested pursuant to an investment of certified capital prior to the effective date of any such change.

2. The credit against state premium tax liability which is described in subsection 1 of this section may not exceed the state premium tax liability of the investor for any taxable year. All such credits against state

If any Missouri certified capital company does not receive any notice from the department within such fifteen-day period, then the limitation described in subsection 3 of this section shall not be applicable with respect to the investment and tax credits which are described in such filing with 135.505. A Missouri certified capital company shall have a funding period of one year from the date of receiving certification from the director. All investments in the Missouri certified capital company shall be made within such three hundred sixty-five day funding period.

135.508. The department may certify profit or not for profit entities which submit an application to be designated as a Missouri certified capital company. The department shall review the organizational documents for each applicant for certification and the business history of the applicant, determine that the Missouri certified capital company's cash, marketable securities and other liquid assets are at least five hundred thousand dollars, determine that the liquid asset base for certified companies is at least five hundred thousand dollars at all times during the company's participation in the program authorized by sections 135.500 to 135.529, and determine that the officers and the board of directors, partners, trustees or managers are thoroughly acquainted with the requirements of sections 135.500 to 135.529 and have significant experience in managing entities which provide venture capital and financing assistance in a manner which is similar to that required of a Missouri certified capital company. No insurance company licensed by or transacting business in Missouri shall, individually or with or through one or more affiliates, be a managing general partner of or control the direction of investments of a Missouri certified capital company. Within seventy- five days of application, the department shall either issue the certification and notify the department of revenue and the director of the department of insurance of such certification or shall refuse the certification and communicate in detail to the applicant the grounds for the refusal, including the suggestions for the removal of those grounds. The department shall be responsible for the administration of the tax credits authorized by sections 135.500 to 135.529.

135.516. 1. To continue to be certified, a Missouri certified capital company shall make qualified investments according to the following schedule:

(1) Within two years after the date on which a Missouri certified capital company is designated as a Missouri certified capital company at least twenty-five percent of its certified capital shall be, or have been, placed in qualified investments;

(2) Within three years after the date on which a Missouri certified capital company is designated as a Missouri certified capital company at least forty percent of its certified capital shall be, or have been, placed in qualified investments;

(3) Within four years after the date on which a Missouri certified capital company is designated as a Missouri certified capital company, at least fifty percent of its total certified capital shall be, or have been, placed in qualified investments. A Missouri certified capital company may not make an investment in an affiliate of the certified capital company. For the purposes of this subsection, if a legal entity is not an affiliate before a certified capital company initially invests in the entity, it will not be an affiliate if a certified capital company provides additional investment in such entity subsequent to its initial investment;

(4) A certified capital company, at least fifteen days prior to making what it determines to be an initial qualified investment in a specific qualified Missouri business, shall certify to the department that the company in which it proposes to invest meets the definition of a qualified Missouri business pursuant to subdivision (14) of subsection 2 of section 135.500. The certified capital company shall state the amount of capital it intends to invest and the name of the business in which it intends to invest. The certified capital company shall also provide to the department an explanation of its determination that the business meets the definition of a qualified Missouri business. If the department determines that the business does not meet the definition of a qualified Missouri business, it shall, within the fifteen- day period prior to the making of the proposed investment, notify the certified capital company of its determination and an explanation thereof. If the department fails to notify the certified capital company with respect to the proposed investment within the fifteen-day period prior to the making of the proposed investment, the company in which the certified capital company proposes to invest shall be deemed to be a qualified Missouri business. If a certified capital company fails to notify the department prior to making an initial investment in a business, the department may subsequently determine that the business in which the certified capital company invested was not a qualified Missouri business even though the business, at the time of the investment, met the requirements of subdivision (14) of subsection 2 of section 135.500;

(5) All certified capital which is not required to be placed in qualified investments or which has been placed in qualified investments and can be received by the company, may be held or invested in such manner as the Missouri certified capital company, in its discretion, deems appropriate. The proceeds of all certified capital which is received by a certified capital company after it was originally placed in qualified investments may be placed again in qualified investments and shall count toward any requirement in sections 135.500 to 135.529 with respect to placing certified capital in qualified investments.

2. A certified capital company may make qualified distributions to its equity owners at any time. In order to make distributions other than qualified distributions to the equity owners of a certified capital company, however, a certified capital company must have placed one hundred percent of its certified capital in investments. Distributions or payments to debt holders of a certified capital company, however, may be made without restriction with respect to debt owed to them by a certified capital company. A debt holder that is also an equity holder of a certified capital company may receive distributions or payments with respect to such debt without restriction. Once a certified capital company has placed one hundred percent of its certified capital in qualified investments and has met all other requirements under sections 135.500 to 135.529, it shall no longer be subject to regulation by the department.

3. No qualified investment may be made at a cost to a Missouri certified capital company greater than fifteen percent of the total certified capital under management of the Missouri certified capital company at the time of investment.

4. Documents and other materials submitted by Missouri certified capital companies or by businesses for purposes of the continuance of certification may be deemed "closed records" pursuant to the provisions of section 620.014, RSMo.

5. Each Missouri certified capital company shall report the following to the department:

(1) As soon as practicable after the receipt of certified capital, the name of each investor from which the certified capital was received, the amount of each investor's investment of certified capital and tax credits computed without regard to any limitations under subsection 3 of section 135.503, and the date on which the certified capital was received;

(2) On a quarterly basis, the amount of the Missouri certified capital company's certified capital at the end of the quarter, whether or not the Missouri certified capital company has invested more than fifteen percent of the total certified capital under management in any one company, and all qualified investments that the Missouri certified capital company has made;

(3) Each Missouri certified capital company shall provide annual audited financial statements to the department which include an opinion of an independent certified public accountant to the department within ninety days of the close of the fiscal year. The audit shall address the methods of operation and conduct of the business of the Missouri certified capital company to determine if the Missouri certified capital company is complying with the statutes and program rules and that the funds received by the Missouri certified capital company have been invested as required within the time limits provided by sections 135.500 to 135.529.

135.520. 1. The division of finance of the department of economic development shall conduct an annual review of each Missouri certified capital company to determine if the Missouri certified capital company is abiding by the requirements of certifications, to advise the Missouri certified capital company as to the certification status of its qualified investments and to ensure that no investment has been made in violation of sections 135.500 to 135.529. The cost of the annual review shall be paid by each Missouri certified capital company according to a reasonable fee schedule adopted by the department. The division of finance shall report its findings to the department as soon as practicable following completion of the audit.

2. Any material violation of sections 135.500 to 135.529 shall be grounds for decertification under this section. If the department determines that a company is not in compliance with any requirements for continuing in certification, it shall, by written notice, inform the officers of the company and the board of directors, managers, trustees or general partners that they may be decertified in one hundred twenty days from the date of mailing of the notice, unless they correct the deficiencies and are again in compliance with the requirements for certification.

3. At the end of the one hundred twenty-day grace period, if the Missouri certified capital company is still not in compliance, the department may send a notice of decertification to the company and to the directors of the department of revenue and department of insurance. Decertification of a Missouri certified capital company prior to the certified capital company meeting all requirements of subdivisions (1) to (3) of subsection 1 of section 135.516 shall cause the recapture of all premium tax credits previously claimed by an investor and the forfeiture of all future credits to be claimed by an investor with respect to its investment in the certified capital company. Decertification of a Missouri certified capital company after it has met all requirements of subdivisions (1) to (3) of subsection 1 of section 135.516 shall cause the forfeiture of premium tax credits for the taxable year of the investor in which the decertification arose and for future taxable years with no recapture of tax credits obtained by an investor with respect to the investor's tax years which ended before the decertification occurred.

135.523. The department may revoke the certification of a Missouri certified capital company if any material representation to the department in connection with the application process proves to have been falsely made or if the application materially violates any requirement established by the department pursuant to sections 135.500 to 135.529.

135.526. All investments for which tax credits are claimed under the provisions of sections 135.500 to 135.529 shall satisfy the conditions of being registered or specifically exempt from registration by provisions or regulations under chapter 409, RSMo.

135.529. 1. The tax credit established pursuant to sections 135.500 to 135.529 may be sold or transferred in accordance with regulations adopted by the department. Any such sale or transfer shall not affect the time schedule for taking the tax credit, as provided in sections 135.500 to 135.529. Any premium tax credits recaptured pursuant to section 135.520 shall be the liability of the taxpayer which actually claimed the credit. In approving the sale or transfer of the credit pursuant to this section, the department may require the transferor or the transferee or both the transferor and the transferee to execute guarantees or post bonds with respect to any potential credit recapture. The department shall make and promulgate emergency rules and regulations consistent with the provisions of sections 135.500 to 135.529 as are necessary or useful to carry out the provisions of sections 135.500 to 135.529, pursuant to section 536.025, RSMo.

2. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated under the authority of sections 135.500 to 135.529 shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo.

3. Every final order, decision, license or other official act of the director pursuant to sections 135.500 to 135.529 is subject to administrative review in accordance with chapter 621, RSMo.

Two or more applications relating to the same merger, purchase or sale may be filed, for the same fee as for filing a single application;

(4) For annual license renewal, not less than two thousand five hundred dollars or more than eight thousand dollars, payable at a time prescribed by the director. A license renewal fee not paid when due is subject to a late fee of twenty-five dollars for each day the renewal fee is delinquent or one thousand dollars, whichever is less;

(5) For examination of the licensee, not less than forty dollars or more than seventy dollars per hour for each examiner involved in the examination. If the director examines a licensee or a subsidiary of a licensee, within ten days after receiving a statement from the director, the licensee shall pay the fee, plus travel expenses;

(6) A fee for filing an application with the director is nonrefundable and is to be paid at the time the application is filed with the director;

(7) If any fees or penalties provided for in sections 135.600 to 135.730 are not paid when required, the attorney general may maintain an action against the delinquent licensee to recover all fees, together with interest and costs;

(8) A licensee or an affiliate or subsidiary of a licensee that fails to submit a report as required in sections 135.600 to 135.730 shall pay a late fee of twenty-five dollars for each day the report is delinquent or one thousand dollars, whichever is less;

(9) Money collected pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the director of revenue for deposit in the state treasury to the credit of the department of economic development administrative fund which is created in section 620.015, RSMo, to be used only for the operation of the department.

135.625. 1. A licensee shall make and keep books, accounts and other records in such form and manner as the director may require. Such records shall be kept at such place and shall be preserved for such length of time as the director may require.

2. The director may require by order that a licensee record of any asset in its books and records and the asset's valuation at such time.

3. Not more than ninety days after the close of each calendar year or a longer period if specified by the director, a licensee shall file with the director an audit report containing all of the following:

(1) Financial statements, including a balance sheet, a statement of income or loss, a statement of change in capital accounts and a statement of changes in financial position or, for a licensee that is a Missouri nonprofit corporation, comparable financial statements for the calendar year prepared at the end of the calendar year, prepared in conjunction with an audit by an independent certified public accountant or an independent public accountant in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;

(2) A report certificate, or opinion of the independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant who performs the audit, stating that the financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principals;

(3) Other information that the director may reasonably require.

135.630. 1. If a person other than a licensee makes or keeps the books, accounts or other records of such licensee, sections 135.600 to 135.730 applies to such person with respect to the performance of the services for the licensee and with respect to such books, accounts and other records to the same extent as if such person were the licensee.

2. If a person other than an affiliate or subsidiary of a licensee makes or keeps any of the books, accounts or other records of such affiliate or subsidiary, sections 135.600 to 135.730 applies to such person with respect to such books, accounts and other records to the same extent as if that person were the affiliate or subsidiary.

3. If the director considers it expedient, the director may require any particular licensee to obtain the approval of the director before permitting another person to make or keep any of the books, accounts or other records of the licensee.

135.635. Each licensee, each affiliate of a licensee and each subsidiary of a licensee shall file with the director such reports as required by the director and at such time or times as the director requires. A report pursuant to this section shall be in such form and shall contain such information as the director may require.

135.640. A Missouri entity may apply to the director for licensure as a BIDCO. A person other than a Missouri entity shall not apply for a license.

135.645. 1. After a review of information regarding the directors, officers, partners, managers and controlling persons of the applicant, a review of the applicant's business plan, including at least three years of detailed financial projections and other relevant information, and a review of additional information considered relevant by the director, the director shall approve an application for a license if, and only if, the director determines all of the following:

(1) The applicant has a net worth, or firm financing commitments which demonstrate that the applicant will have a net worth when the applicant begins transacting business as a BIDCO, in liquid form available to provide financing assistance, that is adequate for the applicant to transact business as a BIDCO as determined pursuant to subsection 2 of this section;

(2) Each director, officer, partner, manager and controlling person of the applicant is of good character and sound financial standing; each director, officer, partner and manager of the applicant is competent to perform his or her functions with respect to the applicant; and the directors, officers, partners and managers of the applicant are collectively adequate to manage the business of the applicant as a BIDCO;

(3) It is reasonable to believe that the applicant, if licensed, will comply with the provisions of sections 135.600 to 135.730;

(4) The applicant has reasonable promise of being a viable ongoing BIDCO and of satisfying the basic objectives of its business plan.

2. In determining if the applicant has a net worth or firm financing commitments adequate to transact business as a BIDCO, the director shall consider the types and variety of financing assistance that the applicant plans to provide; the experience that the directors, officers, partners, managers and controlling persons of the applicant have in providing financing and managerial assistance to business firms; the financial projections and other relevant information from the applicant's business plan; and whether the applicant intends to operate as a profit or nonprofit corporation. Except as otherwise provided in sections 135.600 to 135.730, the director shall require a minimum net worth of one million dollars.

135.650. 1. A person may apply to the director for preliminary approval of an application for a license. Notwithstanding that commitments to invest in the equity of the applicant have not been obtained and that all directors, officers, partners and managers of the applicant have not been identified, the director may grant preliminary approval. In issuing an order granting preliminary approval, the director shall indicate that, for the director to determine that the requirements of section 135.645 are satisfied, final approval is conditioned on review by the director of the applicant's completion of fund raising, including the controlling persons, and review by the director of the completion of the roster of directors, officers, partners and managers. If an application for preliminary approval has been granted, before granting final approval of the application for a license, the director may request an updated balance sheet and such other information considered relevant by the director.

2. If a person files an application under this section, the fee required by section 135.620 is payable at the time the application is filed with the director.

135.655. If the director denies an application pursuant to sections 135.600 to 135.730, the director shall provide the applicant with a written statement explaining the basis for the denial.

135.660. If an application for a license is approved and all conditions precedent to the issuance of that license are fulfilled, the director shall issue a license to the applicant. A licensee shall post the license in a conspicuous place in the licensee's principal office. A license is not transferable or assignable.

135.665. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 of this section, a person transacting business in this state, other than a licensee, shall not use a name or title which indicates that the person is a business and industrial development company including, but not limited to, use of the term BIDCO, and shall not otherwise represent that the person is a business and industrial development company or a licensee.

2. Before being issued a license pursuant to sections 135.600 to 135.730, a Missouri entity that proposes to apply for a license or that applies for a license may perform, under a name that indicates that the entity is a business and industrial development entity, the acts necessary to apply for and obtain a license and to otherwise prepare to commence transacting business as a licensee. Such entity shall not represent that it is a licensee until after the license has been issued.

135.670. A licensee shall not misrepresent the meaning or effect of its license.

135.675. A Missouri entity that is licensed under another law of this state or under any law of the United States may apply for and be issued a license under sections 135.600 to 135.730 unless the transaction of business by that entity as a licensee under another law of this state or a law of the United States would violate sections 135.600 to 135.730 or would be contrary to the purposes of sections 135.600 to 135.730.

135.680. 1. After complying with subsection 2 of this section a licensee may apply to the director to have the director accept the surrender of the licensee's license. If the director determines that the requirements of this section have been satisfied, the director shall approve the application unless in the opinion of the director the purpose of the application is to evade a current or prospective action by the director.

2. Not less than sixty days before filing an application with the director under subsection 1 of this section, a licensee shall notify all of its creditors of its intention to file the application.

135.685. The name of each licensee shall include the term BIDCO. A licensee shall not transact business under any other name.

135.690. 1. Each corporate licensee shall have at least five members of its board of directors, each general partnership licensee shall have at least five general partners, each limited partnership shall have at least five general partners or a corporate general partner that has at least five directors and each limited liability company licensee shall have at least five managers.

2. The manager of each licensee described in subsection 1 of this section shall hold a meeting not less than once each calendar quarter.

135.695. Within thirty days after the death, resignation or removal of a director, officer, partner or manager, the election of a director or manager or the appointment of an officer, or the admission of a partner, the licensee shall notify the director in writing of the event and shall provide any additional information which the director may require.

135.700. 1. A licensee shall maintain not less than one office in this state.

2. A licensee shall post in a conspicuous place at each of its offices a sign which bears the corporate name of the licensee.

3. A licensee shall maintain at each of its offices personnel who are competent to conduct the business of such office.

4. Upon written notice to the director, a licensee may establish, relocate or close an office.

135.705. 1. The business of a licensee shall be the business of providing financial assistance and management assistance to business firms. A licensee shall not engage in a business other than the business of providing financial assistance and management assistance to business firms.

2. In addition to the powers and privileges provided to a licensee by sections 135.600 to 135.730, a licensee has all powers and privileges conferred by its applicable law which are not inconsistent with or limited by sections 135.600 to 135.730. The powers of a licensee include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(1) To borrow money and otherwise incur indebtedness for its purposes, including issuance of corporate bonds, debentures, notes or other evidence of indebtedness. A licensee's indebtedness may be secured or unsecured, and may involve equity features including, but not limited to, provisions for conversion to stock and warrants to purchase stock;

(2) To make contracts;

(3) To incur and pay necessary and incidental operating expenses;

(4) To purchase, receive, hold, lease or otherwise acquire, or to sell, convey, mortgage, lease, pledge or otherwise dispose of real or personal property, together with rights and privileges that are incidental and appurtenant to these transactions of real or personal property, if the real or personal property is for the licensee's use in operating its business or if the real or personal property is acquired by the licensee from time to time in satisfaction of debts or enforcement of obligations;

(5) To make donations for charitable, educational, research or similar purposes;

(6) To implement a reasonable and prudent policy for conserving and investing its money before the money is used to provide financing assistance to business firms or to pay the expenses of the licensee;

(7) To lend money upon such terms and conditions as it deems reasonable.

135.710. 1. A licensee may determine the form and the terms and conditions for financing assistance provided by that licensee to a business firm including, but not limited to, forms such as loans; purchase of debt instruments; straight equity investments such as purchase of common stock or preferred stock; debt with equity features such as warrants to purchase stock, convertible debentures, or receipt of a percent at net income or sales royalty based financing; guaranteeing of debt; or leasing of property. A licensee may purchase securities of a business firm either directly or indirectly through an underwriter. A licensee may participate in the program of the small business administration pursuant to section 7(a) of the Small Business Act, Public Law 85-536, 15 U.S.C. 636(a), or any other government program for which the licensee is eligible and which has as its function the provision or facilitation of financing assistance or management assistance to business firms. If a licensee participates in a program referred to in this subsection, the licensee shall comply with the requirements of such program.

2. Management assistance provided by a licensee to a business firm may encompass both management or technical advice and management or technical services.

3. Financing assistance or management assistance provided by a licensee to a business firm shall be for the business purposes of such business firm.

4. A licensee may exercise the incidental powers that are necessary or convenient to carry on the business of, or are reasonably related to the business of, providing financing assistance and management assistance to business firms.

135.715. 1. A licensee shall transact its business in a safe and sound manner and shall maintain itself in a safe and sound condition.

2. In determining whether a licensee is transacting business in a safe and sound manner or has committed an unsafe or unsound act, the director shall not consider the risk of a provision of financing assistance to a business firm. Unless the director determines that the risk is so great compared with the realistically expected return as to demonstrate gross mismanagement.

3. Subsection 2 of this section does not limit the authority of the director to do any of the following:

(1) Determine that the licensee's financing assistance to a single business firm or a group of affiliated business firms is in violation of subsection 1 of this section or constitutes an unsafe or unsound act, if the amount of that financing assistance is unduly large in relation to the total assets or the total shareholders equity of the licensee;

(2) Require that a licensee maintain a reserve in the amount of anticipated losses;

(3) Require that a licensee have in effect a written financing assistance policy, approved by its board of directors, including credit evaluation and other matters. The director shall not require that a licensee adopt a financing assistance policy that contains standards which prevent the licensee from exercising needed flexibility in evaluating and structuring financing assistance to business firms on a transaction by transaction basis.

135.720. 1. A licensee shall not merge with another entity unless:

(1) If the licensee is the surviving entity, the merger is approved by the director;

(2) If the licensee is a disappearing entity, the surviving entity is a licensee and the merger is approved by the director.

2. A licensee shall not purchase all or substantially all of the business of another person unless the purchase is approved by the director.

3. A licensee shall not sell all or substantially all of its business or the business of any of its offices to another person unless that other person is a licensee and the sale is approved by the director.

4. The director shall approve an application for approval of a merger, purchase or sale, if, and only if, the director determines all of the following:

(1) That the merger, purchase or sale will be safe and sound with respect to the acquiring licensee;

(2) That, upon consummation of the merger, purchase or sale, it is reasonable to believe that the acquiring licensee will comply with sections 135.600 to 135.730;

(3) That the merger, purchase or sale will not have a major detrimental impact on competition in the providing of financial assistance or management assistance to business firms, or if there will be such detrimental impact, merger, purchase or sale is necessary in the interests of the safety and soundness of any of the parties to the merger, purchase or sale, or is otherwise, on balance, in the public interest.

135.725. If in the opinion of the director, a person violates, or there is reasonable cause to believe that a person is about to violate any provision of sections 135.600 to 135.730, the director may bring an action in the name of the people of this state in a circuit court to enjoin the violation or to enforce compliance with sections 135.600 to 135.730. Upon a proper showing, a restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction, or writ of mandamus shall be granted, and a receiver or a conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The court shall not require the director to post a bond in an action brought pursuant to section 135.600 to 135.730.

135.730. A person having custody of any of the books, accounts or other records of a licensee shall not willfully refuse to allow the director, upon request, to inspect or make copies of such books, accounts or other records."; and

"148.330. 1. Every such company shall, on or before the first day of March in each year, make a return, verified by the affidavit of its president and secretary, or other authorized officers, to the director of the department of insurance stating the amount of all premiums received on account of policies issued in this state by the company, whether in cash or in notes, during the year ending on the thirty-first day of December, next preceding. Upon receipt of such returns the director of the department of insurance shall verify the same and certify the amount of tax due from the various companies on the basis and at the rates provided in section 148.320, and shall certify the same to the director of revenue together with the amount of the quarterly installments to be made as provided in subsection 2 of this section, on or before the thirtieth day of April of each year.

2. Beginning January 1, 1983, the amount of the tax due for that calendar year and each succeeding calendar year thereafter shall be paid in four approximately equal estimated quarterly installments, and a fifth reconciling installment. The first four installments shall be based upon the tax for the immediately preceding taxable year ending on the thirty-first day of December, next preceding. The quarterly installments shall be made on the first day of March, the first day of June, the first day of September and the first day of December. Immediately after receiving certification from the director of the department of insurance of the amount of tax due from the various companies the director of revenue shall notify and assess each company the amount of taxes on its premiums for the calendar year ending on the thirty-first day of December, next preceding. The director of revenue shall also notify and assess each company the amount of the estimated quarterly installments to be made for the calendar year. If the amount of the actual tax due for any year exceeds the total of the installments made for such year, the balance of the tax due shall be paid on the first day of June of the year following, together with the regular quarterly payment due at that time. If the total amount of the tax actually due is less than the total amount of the installments actually paid, the amount by which the amount paid exceeds the amount due shall be credited against the tax for the following year and deducted from the quarterly installment otherwise due on the first day of June. If the March first quarterly installment made by a company is less than the amount assessed by the director of revenue, the difference will be due on June first, but no interest will accrue to the state on the difference unless the amount paid by the company is less than eighty percent of one-fourth of the total amount of tax assessed by the director of revenue for the immediately preceding taxable year. The state treasurer, upon receiving the moneys paid as a tax upon such premiums to the director of revenue, shall place the moneys to the credit of a fund to be known as "The County Stock Insurance Fund", which is hereby created and established.

3. If the estimated quarterly tax installments are not so paid, the director of revenue shall certify such fact to the director of the division of insurance who shall thereafter suspend such delinquent company or companies from the further transaction of business in this state until such taxes shall be paid and such companies shall be subject to the provisions of sections 148.410 to 148.461.

4. On or before the first day of September of each year the commissioner of administration shall apportion all moneys in the county stock insurance fund to the general revenue fund of the state, to the county treasurer and to the treasurer of the school district in which the principal office of the company paying the same is located. All premium tax credits described in sections 135.500 to 135.529, RSMo, shall only reduce the amounts apportioned to the general revenue fund of the state and shall not reduce any moneys apportioned to the treasurer of the school district in which the principal office of the company paying the same is located. Apportionments shall be made in the same ratio which the rates of levy for the same year for state purposes, for county purposes, and for all school district purposes, bear to each other; provided that any proceeds from such tax for prior years remaining on hand in the hands of the county collector or county treasurer undistributed on the effective date of sections 148.310 to 148.460 and any proceeds of such tax for prior years collected thereafter shall be distributed and paid in accordance with the provisions of such sections. Whenever the word "county" occurs herein it shall be construed to include the city of St. Louis.

148.350. 1. Every such company or association shall, on or before the first day of March in each year, make a return, verified by the affidavit of its president and secretary or other authorized officers, to the director of the department of insurance stating the amount of all premiums received on account of policies issued in this state by such company, whether in cash or in notes, during the year ending on the thirty-first day of December, next preceding. Upon receipt of such returns, the director of the department of insurance shall verify the same and certify the amount of tax due from the various companies on the basis and at the rate provided in section 148.340, and shall certify the same to the director of revenue together with the amount of the quarterly installments to be made as provided in subsection 2 of this section, on or before the thirtieth day of April of each year.

2. Beginning January 1, 1983, the amount of the tax due for that calendar year and each succeeding calendar year thereafter shall be paid in four approximately equal estimated quarterly installments and a fifth reconciling installment. The first four installments shall be based upon the tax assessed for the immediately preceding taxable year ending on the thirty-first day of December, next preceding. The quarterly installment shall be made on the first day of March, the first day of June, the first day of September, and the first day of December. Immediately after receiving from the director of the department of insurance, certification of the amount of tax due from the various companies, the director of revenue shall notify and assess each company the amount of taxes on its premiums for the calendar year ending on the thirty-first day of December, next preceding. The director of revenue shall also notify and assess each company the amount of the estimated quarterly installments to be made for the calendar year. If the amount of the actual tax due for any year exceeds the total of the installments made for such year, the balance of the tax due shall be paid on the first day of June of the following year, together with the regular quarterly installment due at that time. If the total amount of the tax actually due is less than the total amount of the installments actually paid, the amount by which the amount paid exceeds the amount due shall be credited against the tax for the following year and deducted from the quarterly installment otherwise due on the first day of June. If the March first quarterly installment made by a company is less than the amount assessed by the director of revenue, the difference will be due on June first, but no interest will accrue to the state on the difference unless the amount paid by the company is less than eighty percent of one-fourth of the total amount of tax assessed by the director of revenue for the immediately preceding taxable year. If the estimated quarterly tax installments are not so paid, the director of revenue shall certify such fact to the director of the department of insurance who shall thereafter suspend such delinquent company or companies from the further transaction of business in this state until such taxes shall be paid, and such companies shall be subject to the provisions of sections 148.410 to 148.461.

3. Upon receiving such money from the director of revenue, the state treasurer shall receipt one-half thereof into the general revenue fund of the state, and he shall place the remainder of such tax to the credit of a fund to be known as "The County Foreign Insurance Tax Fund", which is hereby created and established. All premium tax credits described in sections 135.500 to 135.529, RSMo, shall only reduce the amount of moneys received by the general revenue fund of this state and shall not reduce any moneys received by the county foreign insurance tax fund.".

71.012. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 71.015 and 71.860 to 71.920, the governing body of any city, town, or village may annex unincorporated areas which are contiguous and compact to the existing corporate limits of the city, town, or village as provided in this section. 2. (1) When a verified petition, requesting annexation and signed by the owners of all fee interests of record in all tracts of real property located within the area proposed to be annexed, is presented to the governing body of the city, town, or village, the governing body shall hold a public hearing concerning the matter not less than fourteen nor more than sixty days after the petition is received, and the hearing shall be held not less than seven days after notice of the hearing is published in newspapers of general circulation qualified to publish legal matters.

(2) At the public hearing any interested person, corporation or political subdivision may present evidence regarding the proposed annexation. If, after holding the hearing, the governing body of the city, town, or village determines that the annexation is reasonable and necessary to the proper development of the city, town, or village, and the city, town, or village has the ability to furnish normal municipal services to the area to be annexed within a reasonable time, it may, subject to the provisions of subdivision (3) of this subsection, annex the territory by ordinance without further action.

3. If no objection is filed, the city, town, or village shall extend its limits by ordinance to include such territory, specifying with accuracy the new boundary lines to which the city's, town's, or village's limits are extended. Upon duly enacting such annexation ordinance, the city, town, or village shall cause three certified copies of the same to be filed with the clerk of the county wherein the city, town, or village is located, and one certified copy to be filed with the election authority, if different from the clerk of the county which has jurisdiction over the area being annexed, whereupon the annexation shall be complete and final and thereafter all courts of this state shall take judicial notice of the limits of that city, town, or village as so extended.

FIFTY-FIFTH DAY, Thursday, April 11, 1996

Speaker Pro Tem Daniels in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

"But they who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint." (Isaiah 40:31, RSV)

Out of all our doubts and out from our cares, we come to you today, O God of light and life. In the midst of the chaos in the world, we pause for these few brief moments to calm our spirits and to refresh our souls in your presence.

Help us today to be conscientious and honest in our work, that nothing we do may be less than our best.

Help us to make of this life what you intended it to be for each of us as unique and wonderful creations.

Give us, O Lord, humble, quiet, peaceable, patient and charitable spirits as we deal with those around us -- those with whom we disagree; those whose ideas are different and not like ours; those whose agendas carry a different purpose than ours -- in all our differences, help us to respect each other as your creations.

Gracious God, those who work within these walls do so out of a concern for this state and its people. Give them a passion to see justice done in all areas. Give them courage to accomplish the difficult tasks at hand, and make them leaders whose only master is their conscience and who take a little time to talk to you before they talk to each other. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 716

Whereas, Japan is one of Missouri's largest international trading partners; and

Whereas, the Missouri State Government operates a trade office in Tokyo; and

Whereas, passenger air service between the United States and Japan is regulated and restricted by a bilateral agreement concluded between the two governments in 1952, before the advent of jet transportation; and

Whereas, the existing U.S.-Japan aviation agreement allows only twelve U.S. cities to have direct passenger air service to Japan; and

Whereas, a new coalition of businesses and labor and political leaders has been formed to liberalize the 1952 aviation agreement and permit more flights from more cities connecting the United States with Japan; and

Whereas, this coalition is known as "ACCESS U.S.-Japan", (the Aviation Coalition for Competition and Expanded Services Between the United States and Japan), and is chaired by Gerald L. Baliles, the former Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia; and

Whereas, the Governor of Missouri, Mel Carnahan, is a founding member of ACCESS U.S.- Japan; and

Whereas, the restrictive aviation agreement now in force with Japan does not permit Missouri airports to offer flights to Japan; and

Whereas, because of the restrictive agreement now in force, passengers must pay between twenty-five and sixty percent higher fare rates per mile for flights to Japan as compared with flights to other major international destinations; and

Whereas, Trans World Airlines, headquartered in St. Louis, has applied to the United States Department of Transportation to be granted authority to operate nonstop service between St. Louis and Tokyo, and between St. Louis and Osaka; and this application has received formal support from ACCESS U.S.-Japan; and

Whereas, an economic study by Coopers & Lybrand L.L.P. has determined that one flight per day from Tokyo to St. Louis would generate an additional $500 million per year in economic activity for the St. Louis area; and

Whereas, Coopers & Lybrand's economic study has determined that a liberalized aviation agreement between the United States and Japan would generate an additional $9 billion per year throughout the United States; and

Whereas, the President of the United States, William J. Clinton, will travel to Tokyo in April, 1996, for a State Visit, one which will include policy discussions with the Japanese Prime Minister:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Eighty-eighth General Assembly, hereby urge President Clinton to seek immediate commencement of negotiations with Japan to liberalize the United States-Japan passenger aviation agreement during his upcoming State Visit to

Japan; and

Be it further resolved that the Missouri House of Representatives memorialize the United States Department of Transportation to grant Trans World Airlines' application for authority to offer air service connecting St. Louis with Tokyo and Osaka, Japan; and

Be it further resolved that the Missouri House of Representatives support the efforts of ACCESS U.S.-Japan to promote tourism, trade, and economic growth in Missouri and throughout the United States through expanded aviation service between the United States and Japan; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for President William J. Clinton, for each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation, for the United States Department of Transportation, for Trans World Airlines of St. Louis, and for ACCESS U.S.- Japan, the Honorable Gerald L. Baliles, Chairman.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Commerce, to which was referred SCS SB 662, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass by Consent with House Committee Amendment No. 1.

House Committee Amendment No. 1

AMEND Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662, Page 2, Section 260.831, Line 38, by inserting after all of said line the following:

The reauthorization by vote shall be effective for four years and may be reauthorized indefinitely.".

FIFTY-SIXTH DAY, Monday, April 15, 1996

Speaker Pro Tem Daniels in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"Because of the Lord, be obedient to every human institution." (I Pet. 1:13)

Today we celebrate the annual ritual of tax day. We rejoice in the privileges of democracy, even if we fuss about how much government costs us in taxes. We pray to God, the author of our liberties, for the continuing efforts to make the tax code just, and fair and the need for ourselves to be sensitive about how taxes are raised and spent in the exercise of our own stewardship as citizens and in the exercise of the authority you have in this Chamber. We lift up in prayer the anger of so many of our citizens against the government which manifests itself in incidents such as the bombing of the Oklahoma City federal building whose first anniversary we commemorate this week. We pray for the law enforcement officers and all involved in the ongoing incident in Montana. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fifty-fifth day was approved as corrected.

Section 10. 1. The department, in conjunction with the board, shall establish the procedures and standards for the determination and approval of eligible industries and their economic development projects by the promulgation of rules or regulations in accordance with sections 7 to 22 of this act, chapter 536, RSMo, and section 620.1066, RSMo. These rules or regulations shall mandate the evaluation of the credit worthiness of eligible industries, the number of new jobs to be provided by an economic development project to residents of the state, and the likelihood of the economic success of the economic development project. No economic development project which will result in the replacement of facilities existing in the state shall be approved by the board.

2. With respect to each eligible industry making an application to the board for incentives, and with respect to the economic development project described in the application, the board shall request relevant information, documentation and other materials and make inquiries of the applicant as necessary or appropriate. (c) Pursue any remedy provided under the financing agreement or other such documents;

(d) Be entitled to the appointment of a receiver by the circuit court wherein any part of the economic development project is located; and

(e) Pursue any other applicable legal remedy.

Section 13. After receipt of an application, the board may with the approval of the department, enter into an agreement with an eligible industry for a credit pursuant to sections 7 to 22 of this act if the board determines that all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The applicant's project will create new jobs that were not jobs previously performed by employees of the applicant in Missouri;

(2) The applicant's project is economically sound and will benefit the people of Missouri by increasing opportunities for employment and strengthening the economy of Missouri;

(3) The political subdivisions affected by the project have committed significant local incentives with respect to the project;

(4) Receiving the credit is a major factor in the applicant's decision to go forward with the project and not receiving the credit will result in the applicant not creating new jobs in Missouri; and

(5) Awarding the credit will result in an overall positive fiscal impact to the state.

Section 14. In determining the credit that should be awarded, the board shall take into consideration the following factors:

(1) The economy of the county where the projected investment is to occur;

(2) The potential impact on the economy of Missouri;

(3) The incremental payroll attributable to the project;

(4) The capital investment attributable to the project;

(5) The amount the average wage paid by the applicant exceeds the average wage paid within the county in which the project will be located;

(6) The costs to Missouri and the affected political subdivisions with respect to the project;

(7) The financial assistance that is otherwise provided by Missouri and the affected political subdivisions.

Section 15. The board shall determine the amount and duration of a credit awarded pursuant to sections 7 to 22 of this act. The credit amount may not exceed the incremental income tax withholding.

Section 16. An agreement between the board and an eligible industry shall include all of the following:

(1) A detailed description of the project that is the subject of the agreement;

(2) A specific method for determining the number of new employees employed during a taxable year who are performing jobs not previously performed by an employee of the eligible industry;

(3) A requirement that the taxpayer shall annually report to the board the number of new employees who are performing jobs not previously performed by an employee, the new income tax revenue withheld in connection with the new employees, and any other information the board needs to perform its duties pursuant to sections 7 to 22 of this act;

(4) A requirement that the taxpayer shall provide written notification to the director and the board not more than thirty days after the taxpayer makes or receives a proposal that would transfer the taxpayer's state tax liability obligations to a successor taxpayer; and

(5) Any other performance conditions that the board and the director determine are appropriate.

Section 17. If the board determines that an eligible industry which has received a credit pursuant to sections 7 to 22 of this act is not complying with the requirements of the credit agreement or all of the provisions of sections 7 to 22 of this act, the board shall, after giving the industry an opportunity to explain the noncompliance, notify the department of revenue of the noncompliance and request an assessment. The board shall state the amount of the assessment, which may not exceed the sum of any previously allowed incremental income tax withholding pursuant to sections 7 to 22 of this act. After receiving such a notice, the department of revenue shall make an assessment against the taxpayer for the amount stated in the board's notice.

Section 18. On an annual basis, the director shall provide for an evaluation of the program. The evaluation shall include an assessment of the effectiveness of the program in creating new jobs in Missouri and of the revenue impact of the program. The director shall submit a report on the evaluation to the governor, the president pro tem of the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives.

Section 19. An agreement between the board and an eligible industry shall provide that all or part of program costs are to be met by receipt of incremental income tax withholding. Incremental income tax withholding shall be based upon wages paid to eligible employees. A portion or all of the total payments made by the employer pursuant to section 143.221, RSMo, shall be designated as the incremental income tax withholding. If business or employment conditions cause the amount of the incremental income tax withholding to be less than the amount projected in the agreement for any time period, then other withholding tax paid by the employer pursuant to section 143.221, RSMo, shall be credited to the Missouri large-scale development fund by the amount of such difference. The employer shall remit the amount of the incremental income tax withholding to the department of revenue in the manner prescribed in section 22 of this act. When all program costs, including the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the certificates have been paid, the employer credits shall cease.

Section 20. 1. The board shall establish a special fund for and in the name of each project. All funds appropriated by the general assembly to the department of economic development from the large-scale development fund and disbursed by the board for the project and other amounts received by the board in respect of the project and required by the agreement to be used to pay program costs for the project shall be deposited in the special fund. Amounts held in the special fund may be used and disbursed by the board only to pay program costs for the project.

2. Any disbursement in respect of a project received from the department of economic development pursuant to the provisions of sections 7 to 22 of this act, and the special fund into which it is paid, may be irrevocably pledged by the board for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the certificate issued by the board to finance or refinance, in whole or in part, the project.

3. The employer shall certify to the department of revenue that the credit from withholding is in accordance with an agreement and shall provide other information the department may require.

4. An employee participating in a project shall receive full credit for the amount designated as incremental income tax withholding and withheld as provided in section 143.221, RSMo.

5. If an agreement provides that all or part of program costs are to be met by receipt of incremental income tax withholding, the provisions of this section shall also apply to any successor to the original employer until such time as the principal and interest on the certificates have been paid.

Section 21. 1. To provide funds for the present payment of the costs of economic development projects, the board may borrow money and issue and sell certificates payable from a sufficient portion of the future receipts of payments authorized by the agreement including disbursements from the Missouri large-scale development fund to the special fund established by the board for each project. The certificates shall be marketed through financial institutions authorized to do business in Missouri. The receipts shall be pledged to the payment of principal of and interest on the certificates. Certificates may be sold at public sale or at private sale at par, premium, or discount of not less than ninety-five percent of the par value thereof, at the discretion of the board, and may bear interest at such rate or rates as the board shall determine, notwithstanding the provisions of section 108.170, RSMo, to the contrary. Certificates may be issued with respect to a single project or multiple projects and may contain terms or conditions as the board may provide by resolution authorizing the issuance of the certificates.

2. Certificates issued to refund other certificates may be sold at public sale or at private sale as provided in this section with the proceeds from the sale to be used for the payment of the certificates being refunded. The refunding certificates may be exchanged in payment and discharge of the certificates being refunded, in installments at different times or an entire issue or series at one time. Refunding certificates may be sold or exchanged at any time on, before, or after the maturity of the outstanding certificates to be refunded. They may be issued for the purpose of refunding a like, greater or lesser principal amount of certificates and may bear a higher, lower or equivalent rate of interest than the certificates being renewed or refunded.

3. The board shall determine if revenues provided in the agreement are sufficient to secure the faithful performance of obligations in the agreement.

4. Certificates issued pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to be an indebtedness of the state or the board or of any political subdivision of the state and the principal and interest on such certificates shall be payable only from the incremental income tax withholding which is pledged in the agreement.

Section 22. 1. There is hereby established within the state treasury a special fund, to be known as the "Missouri Large-Scale Development Fund", to be administered by the department of economic development. The department of revenue shall credit to the large-scale development fund, as received, all incremental income tax withholding remitted by employers. The fund shall also consist of any gifts, contributions, grants or bequests received from federal, private or other sources. The general assembly, however, shall not provide for any transfer of general revenue funds into the large-scale development fund. Moneys in the Missouri large- scale development fund shall be disbursed to the department of economic development pursuant to regular appropriations by the general assembly. The department shall disburse such appropriated funds in a timely manner into the special funds established by the board for projects, which funds shall be used to pay program costs, including the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on certificates issued by the board to finance or refinance, in whole or in part, a project. Such disbursements by the department of economic development shall be made to the special fund for each project in the same proportion as the incremental income tax withholding remitted by the employer participating in such project bears to the total remitted by all employers participating in projects during the period for which the disbursement is made. Moneys for economic development projects established pursuant to the provisions of sections 7 to 22 of this act shall be obtained from appropriations made by the general assembly from the Missouri large-scale development fund. All moneys remaining in the Missouri large-scale development fund at the end of any fiscal year shall not lapse into the general revenue fund, as provided in section 33.080, RSMo, but shall remain in the Missouri large- scale development fund.

2. The department of revenue shall develop such forms as are necessary to demonstrate accurately each employer's incremental income tax withholding paid into the Missouri large- scale development fund. The incremental income tax withholding shall be accounted as separate from the normal withholding tax paid to the department of revenue by the employer. Reimbursements made by all employers to the Missouri large-scale development fund shall be no less than all allocations made by the department of economic development to the board for all projects. The employer shall remit the amount of the incremental income tax withholding to the department of revenue in the same manner as provided in sections 143.191 to 143.265, RSMo."; and

Any person desiring to obtain a special personalized license plate for any motor vehicle other than a commercial motor vehicle licensed for more than twelve thousand pounds shall apply to the director of revenue on a form provided by the director and shall pay a fee of fifteen dollars in addition to the regular registration fees. The director of revenue shall issue rules and regulations setting the standards and establishing the procedure for application for and issuance of the special personalized license plates and shall provide a deadline each year for the applications. Nothing contained in this subsection shall be interpreted to prohibit the use of license plates, which are no longer valid for registration purposes, as collector's items or for decorative purposes.

3. The director may also establish categories of specialized personalized license plates from which license plates may be issued. Any such person that desires a special personalized license plate from any such category shall pay the same additional fee and make the same kind of application as that required by subsection 1 of this section, and the director shall issue such plates in the same manner as other special personalized license plates are issued.

4. Each such applicant issued license plates under these provisions shall [annually] biennially furnish proof of vehicle inspection and proof of disability to the director, except that an applicant whose service connected disability qualifying him for special license plates consists in whole or in part of loss of an eye or a limb or an applicant with a one hundred percent permanent disability, as established by a physician's signed statement to that effect, need only furnish proof of disability to the director when initially applying for the special license plates and not thereafter, but in such case proof that the veteran is alive shall be required [annually] biennially. Each person qualifying under sections 301.071 to 301.075 may license only one motor vehicle under these provisions. No commercial motor vehicle in excess of twenty-four thousand pounds gross weight may be licensed under the provisions of sections 301.071 to 301.075.

301.080. 1. Upon application for registration of a motor vehicle, other than a commercial motor vehicle, by an owner who holds license plates in a registration period which has expired, the director shall register said vehicle for the fraction of the [twelve-month] twenty-four-month period as will enable the owner to use the license plates so held by [him] the owner, and [he] such owner shall be required to pay a fee computed on the basis of [one-twelfth] one-twenty-fourth of the full [year's] biennial period's registration fee prescribed for such vehicles, multiplied by the number of months remaining in the registration period for which he shall be required to register. When the registration renewal is subject to the delinquent renewal penalty imposed by section 301.050, the owner shall file an affidavit of nonoperation for the months during which the license plates were expired or pay the full [twelve-month] twenty-four-month registration fee.

2. For new vehicles, other than commercial motor vehicles, not previously registered in this state, the fee shall be computed on the basis of [one-twelfth] one-twenty-fourth of the full year's registration fee prescribed for such vehicles, multiplied by the number of months of the current registration year which have not fully expired on the date of application. When ownership of a nonregistered vehicle, other than a commercial motor vehicle, which has not been previously operated on the public highways during the current registration [year] biennial period, is transferred, the registration fee to be paid by transferee shall be computed as provided above for new vehicles, providing a satisfactory affidavit of such nonoperation is filed with the department of revenue. In the case of a new vehicle, a vehicle not previously registered in Missouri, or a vehicle which is transferred, the legal date of application for registration shall be the date on which such vehicle was first operated on the public highways after it was acquired by the applicant; provided, however, if the bill of sale is dated prior to the date the vehicle was placed in operation, the applicant must file an affidavit of nonoperation, provided the later date is fractional in the computation of the registration fee.

301.100. 1. Motor vehicles not previously registered in Missouri and operated for the first time on the public highways of this state may be initially registered for less than a [twelve-month] twenty-four-month period at the director's option, when in [his] the director's judgment such fractional registration period shall tend to fulfill the purpose of the monthly series registration system.

2. Upon expiration of the initial fractional registration periods, motor vehicles so registered shall thereafter be registered for [twelve-month] twenty-four-month periods as provided in section 301.030.

3. Application for registration of a motor vehicle not previously registered in Missouri, operated for the first time on the public highways of this state, and previously registered in another state shall be made within thirty days after the owner of such motor vehicle has become a resident of this state."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section 301.131, Line 30, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"301.135. Any motor vehicle which is eligible for permanent registration pursuant to the provisions of section 301.131 may also be licensed by the owner thereof with personalized license plates in the same manner as that otherwise provided by law. Such registration and license plates shall be made and issued only upon the payment of [an annual] a biennial fee equivalent to that regularly charged for personalized license plates in addition to the one-time permanent registration fee authorized by section 301.131. Such license plates may have a tab or other identifying characteristics to readily show the year for which issued.

301.144. 1. The director of revenue shall establish and issue special personalized license plates containing letters or numbers or combinations of letters and numbers. Such license plates shall be made with fully reflective material with a common color scheme and design, shall be clearly visible at night, and shall be aesthetically attractive, as prescribed by section 301.130. Any person desiring to obtain a special personalized license plate for any motor vehicle other than a commercial motor vehicle licensed for more than twelve thousand pounds shall apply to the director of revenue on a form provided by the director and shall pay a fee of [fifteen] thirty dollars in addition to the regular registration fees. The director of revenue shall issue rules and regulations setting the standards and establishing the procedure for application for and issuance of the special personalized license plates and shall provide a deadline each [year] biennial period for the applications. No rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to this section shall become effective until approved by the joint committee on administrative rules. No two owners shall be issued identical plates. An owner shall make a new application and pay a new fee each [year] biennial periods he desires to obtain or retain special personalized license plates; however, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 8 of section 301.130 to the contrary, the director shall allow the special personalized license plates to be replaced with new plates every three years without any additional charge, above the fee established in this section, to the renewal applicant. Any person currently in possession of an approved personalized license plate shall have first priority on that particular plate for each of the following [years] biennial periods that timely and appropriate application is made.

2. No personalized license plates shall be issued containing any letters, numbers or combination of letters and numbers which are obscene, profane, inflammatory or contrary to public policy. The director may recall any personalized license plates, including those issued prior to August 28, 1992, if he determines that the plates are obscene, profane, inflammatory or contrary to public policy. Where the director recalls such plates under the provisions of this subsection, he shall reissue personalized license plates to the owner of the motor vehicle for which they were issued at no charge, if the new plates proposed by the owner of the motor vehicle meet the standards established under this section. Nothing contained in this subsection shall be interpreted to prohibit the use of license plates, which are no longer valid for registration purposes, as collector's items or for decorative purposes.

3. The director may also establish categories of specialized personalized license plates from which license plates may be issued. Any such person that desires a special personalized license plate from any such category shall pay the same additional fee and make the same kind of application as that required by subsection 1 of this section, and the director shall issue such plates in the same manner as other special personalized license plates are issued.

4. The director of revenue shall issue to residents of the state of Missouri who hold an unrevoked and unexpired official amateur radio license issued by the Federal Communications Commission, upon application and upon payment of the additional fee specified in subsection 1 of this section, special personalized license plates bearing the official amateur radio call letters assigned by the Federal Communications Commission to the applicant. The application shall be accompanied by an affidavit stating that the applicant has an unrevoked and unexpired amateur radio license issued by the Federal Communications Commission and the official radio call letters assigned by the Federal Communications Commission to the applicant.

5. Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, any business listed in subsection 1 of section 301.570 that repossesses motor vehicles or trailers and sells or otherwise disposes of them shall be issued a placard displaying the word "Repossessed", provided such business pays the fees presently required of a manufacturer, distributor, or dealer in section 301.560. Such placard shall bear a number and shall be in such form as the director of revenue shall determine, and shall be only used for demonstrations when displayed substantially as provided for number plates on the rear of the motor vehicle or trailer.

302.181. 1. The license issued under the provisions of sections 302.010 to 302.340 shall be in such form as the director shall prescribe, but the license shall be a card made of plastic or other comparable material. All licenses shall be manufactured of materials and processes that will prohibit, as nearly as possible, the ability to reproduce, alter, counterfeit, forge or duplicate any license without ready detection. All licenses [shall] may bear the licensee's social security number[, if the licensee has one, and if not, a notarized affidavit must be signed by the licensee stating that the licensee does not possess a social security number, or, if applicable, a certified statement must be submitted as provided in subsection 4 or 5 of this section] at the option of the licensee. The license shall also bear the expiration date of the license, the classification of the license, the name, date of birth, residence address, and brief description and colored photograph of the licensee, and a facsimile of the signature of the licensee. The director shall provide by administrative rule the procedure and format for a licensee to indicate on the back of the license together with the designation for an anatomical gift as provided in section 194.240, RSMo, the name and address of the person designated pursuant to sections 404.800 to 404.865, RSMo, as the licensee's attorney in fact for the purposes of a durable power of attorney for health care decisions. No license shall be valid until it has been so signed by the licensee. If any portion of the license is prepared by a private firm, any contract with such firm shall be made in accordance with the competitive purchasing procedures as established by the state director of the division of purchasing. [For all licenses issued or renewed after March 1, 1992, the applicant's social security number shall serve as his license number. Where] If the licensee has no social security number[, or where the licensee is issued a license without a social security number in accordance with subsection 4 or 5 of this section,] or the licensee chooses not to use the licensee's social security number as a license number the director shall issue a license number for the licensee and such number shall also include an indicator showing that the number is not a social security number.

2. All film involved in the production of photographs for licenses shall become the property of the department of revenue.

3. The license issued shall be carried at all times by the holder thereof while driving a motor vehicle, and shall be displayed upon demand of any officer of the highway patrol, or any police officer or peace officer, or any other duly authorized person, for inspection when demand is made therefor. Failure of any operator of a motor vehicle to exhibit [his] the operator's license to any duly authorized officer shall be presumptive evidence that such person is not a duly licensed operator.

4. [The director of revenue shall issue a commercial driver's license without a social security number to an applicant therefor, who is otherwise qualified to be licensed, upon presentation to the director of a certified statement on forms prescribed and made available by the department of revenue which states that the applicant is a member of a specified religious denomination which prohibits the use of identification numbers by members as being contrary to its religious tenets.

5. The director of revenue shall issue a noncommercial driver's license without a social security number to an applicant therefor, who is otherwise qualified to be licensed, upon presentation to the director of a certified statement that the applicant objects to the display of the social security number on the license. The director shall assign an identification number, that is not based on a social security number, to the applicant which shall be displayed on the license in lieu of the social security number.

6.] The director of revenue shall issue a license without the photograph to an applicant therefor, who is otherwise qualified to be licensed, upon presentation to the director of a certified statement on forms prescribed and made available by the department of revenue which states that the applicant is a member of a specified religious denomination which prohibits photographs of members as being contrary to its religious tenets. The license shall state thereon that no photograph is required because of the religious affiliation of the licensee. The director of revenue shall establish guidelines and furnish to each circuit court such forms as the director deems necessary to comply with this subsection. The circuit court shall not charge or receive any fee or court cost for the performance of any duty or act pursuant to this subsection.

[7.] 5. The department of revenue may issue a temporary license without the photograph to out-of-state applicants and members of the armed forces, except that where such temporary license is issued it shall be valid only until the applicant shall have had time to appear and have [his] the applicant's picture taken and a license with [his] the applicant's photograph issued.

[8.] 6. The department of revenue shall issue upon request a nondriver's license card containing essentially the same information as is on the driver's license upon payment of seven dollars and fifty cents if the applicant is under the age of sixty-five. An applicant who is sixty-five years of age or older may purchase a nondriver's license card without a photograph for one dollar or a nondriver's license card with a photograph for seven dollars and fifty cents. The nondriver's license card shall be used for identification purposes only and shall not be valid as a license.

[9.] 7. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated [under] pursuant to the authority of this chapter shall become effective until it has been approved by the joint committee on administrative rules in accordance with the procedures provided herein, and the delegation of the legislative authority to enact law by the adoption of such rules is dependent upon the power of the joint committee on administrative rules to review and suspend rules pending ratification by the senate and the house of representatives as provided herein.

[10.] 8. Upon filing any proposed rule with the secretary of state, the filing agency shall concurrently submit such proposed rule to the committee, which may hold hearings upon any proposed rule or portion thereof at any time.

[11.] 9. A final order of rulemaking shall not be filed with the secretary of state until thirty days after such final order of rulemaking has been received by the committee. The committee may hold one or more hearings upon such final order of rulemaking during the thirty-day period. If the committee does not disapprove such order of rulemaking within the thirty-day period, the filing agency may file such order of rulemaking with the secretary of state and the order of rulemaking shall be deemed approved.

[12.] 10. The committee may, by majority vote of the members, suspend the order of rulemaking or portion thereof by action taken prior to the filing of the final order of rulemaking only for one or more of the following grounds:

(1) An absence of statutory authority for the proposed rule;

(2) An emergency relating to public health, safety or welfare;

(3) The proposed rule is in conflict with state law;

(4) A substantial change in circumstance since enactment of the law upon which the proposed rule is based.

[13.] 11. If the committee disapproves any rule or portion thereof, the filing agency shall not file such disapproved portion of any rule with the secretary of state and the secretary of state shall not publish in the Missouri Register any final order of rulemaking containing the disapproved portion.

[14.] 12. If the committee disapproves any rule or portion thereof, the committee shall report its findings to the senate and the house of representatives. No rule or portion thereof disapproved by the committee shall take effect so long as the senate and the house of representatives ratifies the act of the joint committee by resolution adopted in each house within thirty legislative days after such rule or portion thereof has been disapproved by the joint committee.

The committee shall be authorized to hold hearings and make recommendations pursuant to the provisions of section 536.037, RSMo. The secretary of state shall publish in the Missouri Register, as soon as practicable, notice of the suspension or revocation.

302.740. 1. The commercial driver's license shall be manufactured of materials and processes that will prohibit as nearly as possible, the ability to reproduce, alter, counterfeit, forge, or duplicate any license without ready detection. Such license shall include, but not be limited to, the following information: a colored photograph of the person, the legal name and address of the person, a physical description of the person, including sex, height, weight and eye color, the person's social security number provided at the option of the licensee or such other number or identifier deemed appropriate by the director or the secretary, the date of birth, class or type of commercial motor vehicle or vehicles which the person is authorized to drive, the name of this state, and the words "COMMERCIAL DRIVER'S LICENSE" or "CDL", the dates of issuance and expiration, the person's signature and such other information as the director prescribes.

2. Before issuing a commercial driver's license, the director shall obtain driving record information from sources including, but not limited to, the national driver's register or the commercial driver's license information system of any state in which the person has been licensed.

3. Within ten days after issuing a commercial driver's license, the director shall notify the commercial driver's license information system of such fact, providing all information required to ensure identification of the person. For the purpose of this subsection, the date of issuance shall be the date the commercial driver's license is mailed to the applicant.

4. The commercial driver's license shall indicate the class of vehicle the person may drive and any applicable endorsements or restrictions. Commercial driver's license classifications, endorsements and restrictions shall be in compliance with the Commercial Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1986 (Title XII of Pub. Law 99-570) and those prescribed by the director.

(1) New motor vehicles which have not been previously titled and registered, prior to the initial motor vehicle registration or the next succeeding registration which is required by law;

(2) Those motor vehicles which are engaged in interstate commerce and are proportionately registered in this state with the Missouri highway reciprocity commission, although the owner may request that such vehicle be inspected by an official inspection station, and a peace officer may stop and inspect such vehicles to determine whether the mechanical condition is in compliance with the safety regulations established by the United States Department of Transportation; and

(3) Historic motor vehicles registered under section 301.131, RSMo; shall submit such commercial motor vehicles to an annual inspection [of their] and such motor vehicles other than commercial motor vehicles to a biennial inspection. Such inspections shall be of the motor vehicle's mechanism and equipment in accordance with the provisions of sections 307.350 to 307.390 and obtain a certificate of inspection and approval and a sticker, seal, or other device from a duly authorized official inspection station. The inspection, except the inspection of school buses which shall be made at the time provided in section 307.375, shall be made at the time prescribed in the rules and regulations issued by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol; but the inspection of a vehicle shall not be made more than sixty days prior to the date of application for [annual] registration or within sixty days of when a vehicle's registration is transferred. The certificate of inspection and approval shall be a sticker, seal, or other device or combination thereof, as the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol prescribes by regulation and shall be displayed upon the motor vehicle or trailer as prescribed by the regulations established by him. The replacement of certificates of inspection and approval which are lost or destroyed shall be made by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol under regulations prescribed by him.

2. For the purpose of obtaining an inspection only, it shall be lawful to operate a vehicle over the most direct route between the owner's usual place of residence and an inspection station of his choice, notwithstanding the fact that the vehicle does not have a current state registration license. It shall also be lawful to operate such a vehicle from an inspection station to another place where repairs may be made and to return the vehicle to the inspection station notwithstanding the absence of a current state registration license.

3. No person whose motor vehicle was duly inspected and approved as provided in this section shall be required to have the same motor vehicle again inspected and approved for the sole reason that such person wishes to obtain a set of any special personalized license plates available under section 301.144, RSMo, or a set of any license plates available under section 301.142, RSMo, prior to the expiration date of such motor vehicle's current [annual] registration.

307.353. Other provisions of law notwithstanding, no person shall be required to have [an annual] a commercial motor vehicle [inspection] inspected during a registration period which exceeds one year or a motor vehicle other than a commercial motor vehicle inspected during a registration period which exceeds two years. The inspection required at the beginning of the registration period shall be valid for the entire registration period.

307.355. 1. No state registration license to operate the type of vehicle required to be inspected by section 307.350 may be transferred or issued unless the application for the transfer of a license or the application for [annual] registration is accompanied by a current certificate of inspection and approval issued not more than sixty days prior to the date of the application, or, in the cases of school buses, the current certificate of inspection and approval issued at the time provided in section 307.375 next preceding the date of application, except:

(1) The director of revenue may transfer or issue a state registration license to the type of vehicle required to be inspected by section 307.350 without a certificate of inspection and approval accompanying the application if the director has satisfactory evidence that the vehicle was not in the state of Missouri at any time during the sixty days prior to the date of application; however, the owner of every such vehicle must submit the vehicle for inspection and obtain a certificate of inspection and approval within ten days after the vehicle is first returned to the state of Missouri.

(2) The director of revenue shall renew a vehicle's registration license without a certificate of inspection and approval accompanying the application if satisfactory documentary evidence is presented at the time of application that either, the license being renewed was properly transferred within a six-month period prior to the expiration of the license being renewed, or that the commercial motor vehicle for which the registration is being issued was issued a registration for a period of less than one year for the registration period just expiring or that a motor vehicle other than a commercial vehicle for which the registration is being issued was issued a registration for a period of less than two years for the registration period just expiring.

2. If due to interstate operation a commercial motor vehicle as defined in section 301.010, RSMo, or a trailer of the type required to be inspected is required to obtain full fee registration in this and any other state during the same calendar year, no Missouri certificate of inspection and approval is required if the vehicle bears evidence that a current valid inspection sticker or decal was issued by such other state in which the vehicle is registered; provided that the sticker or decal issued by such other state is valid for the registration period in this state.

3. After a commercial motor vehicle as defined in section 301.010, RSMo, has been registered for the current year, no certificate of inspection and approval is required when a local commercial motor vehicle license is changed to a beyond-local commercial motor vehicle license or when the licensed gross weight is changed during the licensed period.

Section 1. Section 2. Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY, Tuesday, April 16, 1996

Speaker Pro Tem Daniels in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"Give up your anger, and forsake wrath; be not vexed, it will only harm you.

For evildoers shall be cut off, but those who wait for the Lord shall possess the land." (Ps. 36.5)

Today we commemorate Yom Shoah, the day of commemoration for the Holocaust. We pray to you, the God of life, for continued healing, especially the peace and healing that can only come from forgiveness.

We include today prayer about the continuation of the kind of attitude and mind-set that breeds genocide and its relatives, racial and ethnic hatred and that arrogance that presumes that our group is the only one that is right.

The Jewish and Christian faith share a common belief that we are all created in your image, God, male and female, and each major world religion and our basic human instinct tell us that there is something divine, something holy in all of us, despite the evidence we have of those who cannot find that divine spark in their own soul. We pray for the continued conversion of heart through our surrender to your authority, gracious God, and the medical advances that can cure the sources of evil in our bodies and the disturbance in the human mind that bring us so much evil.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Karen Roach, Jeff Kuhlengel, Brandi Thomas, Chris Nobles, Randa Robb, Ashley Flanagan, Kurt Fuemmeler, David Schmidt, Cassandra Bosslet, Brent Ebl, Bart Towers, Melinda Brda, Meaghan Crow, Ryan Curry, Adam Duke, Allison Swaters, Jared Westhusing, Becky Rotert, Theron Eye, Becky Goth, Mark Goth, Joshua Huffman, Christopher Smith, Frank Atwell, Seth Atwell, Jesse Atwell, Christopher Allen, Stephanie Allen, Theresa Creel, Audrey Cunningham, Nikki Warden, Susan Blum, Royce Hoehn, Brian Harrison, Rhonda Dunlap, Joshua Reynolds, Amy Krueger, Chris O'Neal, Jennfer De Jong, Sarah McCrary, Samantha McCrary, Nathan Pogue, Abigail Morton, Jesse Morton, Heather Rybak, Kenneth Dunek, Andrea Friess, Tia Haas, Mike Robbins, Nickey Robbins, Nathan Huckaba, Tony Huckaba, Amy Henke, Diana Criscione, Sarah Bradford, Stephen Long, Nicole Cash, Abi Kissinger, Ryan Cash, Katrina Caldwell, Jonathan Whitwell and David Whitwell.

The Journal of the fifty-sixth day was approved as corrected.

plates were originally issued to have the same in his or her possession whether in use or not; except that the buyer of a motor vehicle or trailer who trades in a motor vehicle or trailer may attach the license plates from the traded-in motor vehicle or trailer to the newly purchased motor vehicle or trailer. The operation of a motor vehicle with such transferred plates shall be lawful for no more than thirty days.

2. In the case of a transfer of ownership the original owner may register another motor vehicle under the same number, upon the payment of a fee of two dollars, if the motor vehicle is of horsepower, gross weight or (in the case of a passenger-carrying commercial motor vehicle) seating capacity, not in excess of that originally registered. When such motor vehicle is of greater horsepower, gross weight or (in the case of a passenger-carrying commercial motor vehicle) seating capacity, for which a greater fee is prescribed, applicant shall pay a transfer fee of two dollars and a pro rata portion for the difference in fees. When such vehicle is of less horsepower, gross weight or (in case of a passenger-carrying commercial motor vehicle) seating capacity, for which a lesser fee is prescribed, applicant shall not be entitled to a refund.

3. Upon the sale of a motor vehicle or trailer by a dealer, a buyer who has made application for registration, by mail or otherwise, may operate the same for a period of fifteen days after taking possession thereof, if during such period the motor vehicle or trailer shall have attached thereto, in the manner required by section 301.130, number plates issued to the dealer. Upon application and presentation of satisfactory evidence that the buyer has applied for registration, a dealer may furnish such number plates to the buyer for such temporary use. In such event, the dealer shall require the buyer to deposit the sum of ten dollars and fifty cents to be returned to the buyer upon return of the number plates as a guarantee that said buyer will return to the dealer such number plates within fifteen days. The director shall issue a temporary permit or paper plate authorizing the operation of a motor vehicle or trailer by a buyer for not more than twenty days of the date of purchase.

4. The temporary permit or paper plate shall be made available by the director of revenue and may be purchased from the department of revenue upon proof of purchase of a motor vehicle or trailer for which the buyer has no registration plate available for transfer, or from a dealer upon purchase of a motor vehicle or trailer for which the buyer has no registration plate available for transfer. The director shall make temporary plates or permits available to registered dealers in this state in sets of ten plates or permits. The fee for the temporary permit or plate shall be seven dollars and fifty cents for each permit or plate issued. No dealer shall charge more than seven dollars and fifty cents for each permit issued. House Resolution No. 727

Whereas, a number of Missouri organizations, including historical societies and Boy Scouts, have assisted in erecting historical markers to commemorate a tragic event that occurred in this state; and

Whereas, the Potawatomi Indians were forcibly removed from their homes in northern Indiana in 1838 and marched to a new location in Kansas; and

Whereas, the route the Potawatomi Indians traveled, known historically as the Trail of Death, passed through eight counties in the State of Missouri, namely, Marion, Monroe, Randolph, Chariton, Carroll, Ray, Lafayette, and Jackson; and

Whereas, the route has been documented in the diary kept by Jesse C. Douglass, Enrolling Agent, and the letters of Father Benjamin Marie Petit, a Priest, both of whom accompanied the Potawatomi Indians on the march; and

Whereas, several historical markers concerning the trail have already been dedicated, including markers at Palmyra, Paris, Keytesville, and Independence; and

Whereas, the Indian Awareness Center, a branch of the Fulton County Historical Society, Rochester, Indiana, has asked that the route taken from Indiana to Kansas by the Potawatomi Indians in the fall of 1838 be declared a Regional Historic trail in memory of the hardships endured by the group during the march; and

Whereas, this activity requires no federal, state, or local funds, and is of historical interest to Missourians:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Eighty-eighth General Assembly, declare that the route taken through the State of Missouri by the Potawatomi Indians in 1838 be designated as a Regional Historic Trail; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Fulton County Historical Society of Rochester, Indiana, and for the State Historical Society of Missouri, Columbia.

House Resolution No. 774

WHEREAS, the primary function of the Missouri House of Representatives is to discuss, deliberate, and act upon the various pieces of legislation that are introduced to the body on the floor of the House Chamber; and

WHEREAS, it is of critical importance that the House Chamber be reserved for use by the members of this legislative body and their staff whenever this body is required to consider or act upon important legislative or other matters during official functions, which include meeting times, special sessions, veto sessions or regular sessions of the General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, though the House does allow the use of the House Chamber by other groups for a number of worthwhile projects and programs, the scheduling of the House Chamber for use by these groups must not conflict with the legislative functions of the House of Representatives, and consideration must be given to the expense involved in converting the House to an automated chamber and to eliminating the risk of inadvertent damage that may be caused by groups using the chamber:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the Missouri House of Representatives of the Eighty-eighth General Assembly, that no person or group other than the members of the House of Representatives and the staff of the House of Representatives be permitted to use the House Chamber except for ceremonial usage during any meeting times, special sessions, veto sessions, or regular sessions of the Missouri General Assembly.

House Journal

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

FIFTY-NINTH DAY, Thursday, April 18, 1996

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

Tomorrow, at this hour of the day, this nation will pause as one common people to remember and grieve a tragedy suffered a year ago in Oklahoma City. There will be thanksgiving for those who survived; there will be sorrow for those who died. There will be gratitude for the hundreds of volunteers who worked around the clock -- for those whose prayers were unceasing.

In a world, O God of Compassion, where such things can happen, give us the courage to face down evil and hatred. As those here in this place wrestle with decisions -- whether they're about guns and gifts, or education and environment - help them follow a conscience of good will and justice toward ALL people, regardless of political agenda or racial origin, regardless of policy plans or personal opinions.

Lord of Life, let us never forget that such things can happen and let us strive with perseverance to see that they don't.

Bless now these Representatives, staff and workers. Give them a restful weekend and grant them your ever-constant presence. Amen.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Amanda Hertzig, David Douglas, Adrian Wegeng, Joseph Grimm, Kelly Johnson, Amanda Mallot, Kyle Proffitt, Aaron Judd, Katie Woodard, Andrew Pelican, Brian McCormac, Ashley Sproull, Lauren Markenson, Megan Hinkman, Anna Donovan, Mary Heidorn, Trebor Dreyfus, Adam Blankenship, Justin Belter, Shannon Sellens, David Messbarger, Jennifer Drummond, Kevin Keim, Kevin Jakubowicz, Tiffany Meinert, Jennie Huber, Doug Casarella, Alex Fak, Shelley Kofsky, Salil Sheth, Jamie Marsh, Bradley Petzold, Nathan Hoffman, Sarah Pleiness, Shaun Streeter, Mike Wilson, Kelly FitzWilliam, Sean Madsen, Neil Sanders, Michael Lewis, Ethan Rogers, Sam Drzymala, A.J. Eads, Sarah Lemp, Sarah Reinus, Rachel Goldberg and Annie Wischmeyer.

The Journal of the fifty-eighth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the President Pro Tem has appointed the following Conference Committee to act with a like Committee from the House on HCS SB 870: Senators Staples, McKenna, Maxwell, Singleton and Westfall.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted HCR 4.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted HCR 8.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 26.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 26

WHEREAS, agriculture is an ever-changing and ever-expanding industry; and

WHEREAS, in order to survive and make a living in today's market environment, farmers must continue to expand the uses of their products and to find ways to enhance the competitiveness of their farms through the development of new agricultural products; and

WHEREAS, the production of industrial hemp could provide Missouri farmers an additional alternative product; and

WHEREAS, hemp was one of the first plants to be cultivated by humans, more than 12,000 years ago; and

WHEREAS, paper was invented using hemp in China more than 2,000 years ago; and

WHEREAS, hemp was widely grown as a cash crop in Colonial America and was even used to pay taxes. George Washington and Thomas Jefferson grew hemp, and it was turned into paper at a mill owned by Benjamin Franklin; and

WHEREAS, two of the most important documents in the history of the United States, the Constitution and Declaration of Independence, were drafted on hemp paper; and

WHEREAS, Rudolph Diesel designed his engine to run on hemp oil; and

WHEREAS, an acre of hemp produces four times as much paper as an acre of trees and produces an acid-free paper that lasts 1,500 years compared to wood-based paper's shelf-life of 25 to 100 years; and

WHEREAS, hemp is naturally pest and disease resistant and therefore grows without the use of pesticides or herbicides; and

WHEREAS, the roots of hemp penetrate the soil nine to 14 inches deep, bringing subsoil nutrients to the surface and protecting the soil from erosion; and

WHEREAS, hemp produces one of the strongest natural fibers and will produce 10 times more fiber per acre per year than a fully mature forest. It takes 300 years for a forest to grow while a hemp crop matures once a year; and

WHEREAS, the production of industrial hemp does not interfere with the regulation of controlled substances in Missouri since industrial hemp contains a very low THC (delta-9- tetrahydrocannobinol) level and is harvested before reaching that low level. In addition, a permit is required from the federal drug enforcement agency before research can proceed; and

WHEREAS, the University of Missouri Research facility is one of the premier agricultural research facilities in the nation; and

WHEREAS, the development and use of industrial hemp could be in the best interests of the state economy and agriculture in that industrial hemp may be used for the manufacture of rope, sacks, batts, yarn, paper, composite materials, thread, cordage, cloth and other such products as may be made from the fiber or sterilized seed as have been or which may be developed;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Missouri Senate of the Eighty-eighth General Assembly, the House of Representatives concurring therein, that the University of Missouri be authorized to grow industrial hemp so as to conduct research on commercial uses for industrial hemp; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the University of Missouri submit an annual report of its findings to each successive General Assembly by January 1st; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare on hemp paper a properly inscribed copy of this Resolution for the Dean of the College of Agriculture at the University of Missouri.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate refuses to concur in HCS SCS SB 657, and requests the House to recede from its position or, failing to do so, grant the Senate a conference thereon.

House Journal

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SIXTIETH DAY, Monday, April 22, 1996

Speaker Pro Tem Daniels in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"How manifold your works, O Lord, in wisdom you have wrought them all - the earth is full of your creatures." (Ps. 104:24).

As we celebrate Earth Day, we praise you our God for the beautiful rain overnight and we life up in prayer those who suffered most from the severity of the thunderstorms and the tornados.

We pray for a greater respect for the earth and its fruits and resources and a just concern for all of its citizens. We pray also about the growing tension in our state over the activity of the Freemen and for all the high profile tension in our world here and overseas that common sense, dialogue and the willingness to see one another as sacred creatures will help us solve our problems. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Clay Thompson, Matt Trail, Garrett Stokan, Patrick Green, Molly Jasper, Chip Lewis and Ryan Cheek.

The Journal of the fifty-ninth day was approved as corrected.

4. If the commission fails to comply with the provisions of this section, the proponents of the petition may file a mandamus action or other appropriate action to compel compliance with the ministerial duties set out in this section.".

As used in sections 1 to 6 of this act, the term "established political party" means a political party which at the last general election for state and county officers, polled for its candidate for governor more than two percent of the entire vote cast for governor in this state.

2. A statewide presidential preference primary shall be held on the municipal election date held in March, 2000, and on such municipal election date every fourth year thereafter. On or before the eighth Tuesday prior to the date of the presidential preference primary, the secretary of state shall announce the official list of presidential candidates for each established political party as provided in section 2 of this act.

Section 2. 1. The official list of presidential candidates for each established political party shall include the names of all constitutionally qualified candidates who meet all of the requirements specified in the rules of the state or national party organization of each established political party for whom, on or after 8:00 a.m. on the second Tuesday in December in the year preceding the presidential primary, and on or before 5:00 p.m. on the ninth Tuesday prior to the presidential primary, a written request to be included on the presidential primary ballot is filed with the secretary of state along with:

(2) A written statement, sworn to before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, that the candidate is unable to pay the filing fee and does not have funds in a campaign fund or committee to pay the filing fee and a petition signed by not less than one thousand registered voters in each of the state's congressional districts requesting that the candidate's name be placed on the ballot of the specified established political party for the presidential preference primary. The request to be included on the presidential primary ballot shall be in the following form:

I (We) the undersigned, do hereby request that the name of ..... be placed upon the ..... (date of election) presidential primary ballot as candidate for nomination as the nominee for President of the United States on the ..... Party ticket.

2. The state or national party organization of an established political party which adopts rules imposing signature requirements to be met before a candidate can be listed as an official candidate shall notify the secretary of state by October first of the year preceding the presidential primary.

3. Any person may have his name stricken from the presidential primary ballot by, on or before 5:00 p.m., on the Friday before the eighth Tuesday prior to the election, filing with the secretary of state a written statement, sworn to before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, requesting that his name not be printed on the official primary ballot. Thereafter, the secretary of state shall not include the name of that person in the official list announced under section 1 of this act or in the certified list of candidates transmitted under section 3 of this act.

4. The filing times set out in this section shall only apply to presidential preference primaries, and are in lieu of those established in section 115.349, RSMo.

Section 3. 1. On or before the eighth Tuesday prior to a presidential preference primary election, the secretary of state shall transmit to each county clerk, or other person whose duty is to prepare ballots for an election for a state office, a certified list containing the names of each candidate whose name shall appear on the presidential preference primary ballot of each party.

2. Each county clerk, or other person whose duty is to prepare ballots for an election for a state office, shall cause the name of candidates certified by the secretary of state to appear on the presidential preference primary ballot of each party along with a listing for an uncommitted vote.

3. The conduct of the presidential preference primary election and the count and canvass of the votes cast therein shall conform as nearly as is practicable to that prescribed for the conduct of the primary election for state officers. All primary election laws not inconsistent with the provisions of sections 1 to 6 of this act shall be applicable to the conduct of this election, and the form of the ballot insofar as is practicable shall be substantially as that prescribed by section 115.395, RSMo.

4. After the count and canvass of the votes cast, the secretary of state shall notify the state chairman of each of the established political parties for whom a candidate was listed, of the number of votes and the proportion of the total number of votes recorded in that established political party's primary that each candidate and uncommitted listing received in each congressional district individually and in the state at large.

Section 4. 1. The state party organization which is the state organization recognized by the national organization of that established political party shall, after the primary and before the national convention, conduct a series of caucuses culminating in congressional and state conventions. Delegates to the national conventions shall be chosen at the congressional district and state conventions pursuant to rules established by the political parties, except that rules so established require that national delegates be pledged to support presidential candidates as provided by sections 1 to 6 of this act. The delegates and alternates shall be selected as provided in this section, except that, if the rules of the national committee of the established political party are in conflict with the provisions of this section, then the national committee rules shall govern the selection of delegates where in conflict with this section.

2. Not less than three-fourths of the convention delegates from the state to the national convention shall be allocated equally to the state congressional districts. Those delegates not allotted to congressional districts shall be allotted to the state as at large delegates. Additional at large delegates allocated to a state under national party rules shall not be included in the calculation of the proportion of the state's delegates allocated to congressional districts and at large.

3. Following the state presidential primary, anyone seeking to be selected as national convention delegate or alternate shall designate whether or not he is committed, and, if committed, to which candidate he is committed.

4. To qualify as a delegate from a congressional district, a person shall be a registered voter of the congressional district from which he seeks to be a delegate. To qualify as an at large delegate, a person shall be a registered voter of this state.

5. If a delegate or alternate dies, withdraws or becomes disqualified after he has been selected and before the national convention for which he is selected has begun, he shall be replaced by a qualified person committed to the same preference and selected by the party's congressional district committee or state committee, as the case may be.

6. Congressional district delegates and alternates shall be selected so that the proportion of the total district delegates and alternates that are committed to each candidate or are uncommitted equals as nearly as possible the proportion of the popular vote cast in the presidential primary selection in that district for each candidate and for the uncommitted position, except that votes for a candidate or for the uncommitted position which total less than fifteen percent of the district total shall be counted as uncommitted in determining proportions of district delegates awarded if the sum of all such votes exceeds fifteen percent of the district total.

7. At large delegates and alternates shall be selected in numerical order from each slate so that the proportion of the total at large delegates and alternates that is uncommitted or committed to each candidate equals as nearly as possible the proportion of the popular vote for that established political party that was cast as uncommitted and for each candidate in the state at large, except that, votes for a candidate or uncommitted listing that total less than fifteen percent of the total shall be counted as uncommitted in determining proportions of district delegates awarded if the sum of all such votes exceeds fifteen percent of the state total.

8. In determining the number of delegates and alternates to be awarded to each candidate and as the uncommitted delegates and alternates, the percentage of the vote received by each candidate and the percentage of the uncommitted vote in each congressional district or the state at large, as the case may be, shall be multiplied by the total number of delegates allotted to the congressional district or the state at large, as the case may be. The product arrived at for each candidate or the uncommitted vote shall be rounded off to the nearest whole number to arrive at the number of delegates to be awarded to a particular candidate or the uncommitted vote. The percentage of the vote received by each candidate and for uncommitted shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this section and shall not take into consideration the votes for any candidate or uncommitted listing that total less than fifteen percent of the district total or the state at large, as the case may be.

9. The delegates and alternates shall be selected and allocated as provided in this section, except that, if the rules of the national committee of the established political party are in conflict with the provisions of this section, then the national committee rules shall govern the selection and allocation of delegates where in conflict with this section.

Section 5. 1. Each national convention delegate and alternate shall be bound to vote for the candidate for whom he designated commitment, if any, when he was selected as a delegate or alternate until that or another candidate received the party's nomination, two ballots have been taken or that candidate withdraws, suspends his campaign, releases his delegates, or receives less than fifteen percent of the votes cast on the first ballot, whichever first occurs.

2. Each delegate and alternate, within ten days after accepting selection as a delegate or alternate, shall file with the secretary of state his sworn pledge that he will abide by the provisions of sections 1 to 6 of this act.

3. If the rules of the national committee of an established political party prohibit any delegate from being bound to cast his vote for a candidate, then the provisions of the national committee rules shall govern.

Section 6. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 115.061 to 115.077, RSMo, to the contrary, a presidential preference primary shall impose on the state of Missouri only those costs which pertain directly to the presidential preference primary and the state shall not be liable for any costs ordinarily incurred by any local election authority conducting an election on the municipal election date in March.".

House Journal

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SIXTY-FIRST DAY, Tuesday, April 23, 1996

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"The spirit of the Lord Yahweh has been given to me, for Yahweh has anointed me, has sent me to bring good news to the poor, to bind up hearts that are broken; to proclaim liberty to captives, freedom to those in prison; to proclaim a year of favor from Yahweh, a day of vengeance for our God. (Is. 61: 1-2).

Gracious God: Today we ask for that spirit which Isaiah spoke of, a spirit that will help us to be peace-makers, to care for the hurts of the human family, to be instruments of your mercy. May we put ourselves in the shoes of the other before we make harsh judgments and be compassionate to their failings as we challenge them with love and receive correction from them in the same spirit.

I add a special prayer today for my friend of 24 years, Jack Plympton, our Reading Clerk for five years, upon his premature retirement for health reasons. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

Representative Montgomery offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

Amend House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 987, 1155, 1158 and 1219, Page 1, Section A, Line 3 by inserting after said line the following:

135.010. As used in sections 135.010 to 135.030 the following words and terms mean:

(1) "Claimant", a person or persons claiming a credit under sections 135.010 to 135.030. If the persons are eligible to file a joint federal income tax return and reside at the same address at any time during the taxable year, then the credit may only be allowed if claimed on a combined Missouri income tax return or a combined claim return reporting their combined incomes and property taxes. A claimant shall not be allowed a property tax credit unless the claimant or spouse has attained the age of sixty-five on or before the last day of the calendar year and the claimant or spouse was a resident of Missouri for the entire year, or the claimant or spouse is a veteran of any branch of the armed forces of the United States or this state who became one hundred percent disabled as a result of such service, or the claimant or spouse is disabled as defined in [section 22(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended] in subsection 2 of this section, and such claimant or spouse provides proof of such disability in such form and manner, and at such times, as the director of revenue may require. The residency requirement shall be deemed to have been fulfilled for the purpose of determining the eligibility of a surviving spouse for a property tax credit if a person of the age of sixty-five years or older who would have otherwise met the requirements for a property tax credit dies before the last day of the calendar year;

(2) "Disabled", the inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve months. A claimant shall not be required to be gainfully employed prior to such disability to qualify for the property tax credit;

[(2)] (3) "Gross rent", amount paid by a claimant to a landlord for the rental, at arm's length, of a homestead during the calendar year, exclusive of charges for health and personal care services and food furnished as part of the rental agreement, whether or not expressly set out in the rental agreement. If the director of revenue determines that the landlord and tenant have not dealt at arm's length, and that the gross rent is excessive, then he shall determine the gross rent based upon a reasonable amount of rent. Gross rent shall be deemed to be paid only if actually paid prior to the date a return is filed. The director of revenue may prescribe regulations requiring a return of information by a landlord receiving rent, certifying for a calendar year the amount of gross rent received from a tenant claiming a property tax credit and shall, by regulation, provide a method for certification by the claimant of the amount of gross rent paid for any calendar year for which a claim is made. The regulations authorized by this subdivision may require a landlord or a tenant or both to provide data relating to health and personal care services and to food. Neither a landlord nor a tenant may be required to provide data relating to utilities, furniture, home furnishings or appliances;

(3) "Homestead", the dwelling in Missouri owned or rented by the claimant and not to exceed five acres of land surrounding it as is reasonably necessary for use of the dwelling as a home. It may consist of part of a multidwelling or multipurpose building and part of the land upon which it is built. "Owned" includes a vendee in possession under a land contract and one or more tenants by the entireties, joint tenants, or tenants in common and includes a claimant actually in possession if he was the immediate former owner of record, if a lineal descendant is presently the owner of record, and if the claimant actually pays all taxes upon the property. It may include a mobile home;

(4) "Income", Missouri adjusted gross income as defined in section 143.121, RSMo, less two thousand dollars as an exemption for the claimant's spouse residing at the same address, and increased, where necessary, to reflect the following:

(a) Social security, railroad retirement, and veterans payments and benefits unless the claimant is a one hundred percent service-connected, disabled veteran or a spouse of a one hundred percent service-connected, disabled veteran. The one hundred percent service-connected disabled veteran shall not be required to list veterans payments and benefits;

(b) The total amount of all other public and private pensions and annuities;

(c) Public relief, public assistance, and unemployment benefits received in cash, other than benefits received under this chapter;

(d) No deduction being allowed for losses not incurred in a trade or business;

(e) Interest on the obligations of the United States, any state, or any of their subdivisions and instrumentalities;

(5) "Property taxes accrued", property taxes paid, exclusive of special assessments, penalties, interest, and charges for service levied on a claimant's homestead in any calendar year. Property taxes shall qualify for the credit only if actually paid prior to the date a return is filed. The director of revenue shall require a tax receipt or other proof of property tax payment. If a homestead is owned only partially by claimant, then "property taxes accrued" is that part of property taxes levied on the homestead which was actually paid by the claimant. For purposes of this subdivision, property taxes are "levied" when the tax roll is delivered to the director of revenue for collection. If a claimant owns a homestead part of the preceding calendar year and rents it or a different homestead for part of the same year, "property taxes accrued" means only taxes levied on the homestead both owned and occupied by the claimant, multiplied by the percentage of twelve months that such property was owned and occupied as the homestead of the claimant during the year. When a claimant owns and occupies two or more different homesteads in the same calendar year, property taxes accrued shall be the sum of taxes allocable to those several properties occupied by the claimant as a homestead for the year. If a homestead is an integral part of a larger unit such as a farm, or multipurpose or multidwelling building, property taxes accrued shall be that percentage of the total property taxes accrued as the value of the homestead is of the total value. For purposes of this subdivision "unit" refers to the parcel of property covered by a single tax statement of which the homestead is a part;

(6) "Rent constituting property taxes accrued", twenty percent of the gross rent paid by a claimant and spouse in the calendar year." and

Further amend said substitute by amending the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Representative Jacob raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 2 goes beyond the scope of the bill.

The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken.

On motion of Representative Montgomery, House Amendment No. 2 was adopted by the following vote:

Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section 143.124, Line 2, by inserting after the word "allowances" the following: "not described in section 1 of this act and"; and Further amend said bill, Page 4, Section 143.161, Line 7, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"143.191. 1. Every employer maintaining an office or transacting any business within this state and making payment of any wages taxable [under] pursuant to sections 143.011 to 143.998 to a resident or nonresident individual shall deduct and withhold from such wages for each payroll period the amount provided in subsection 3 of this section.

2. The term "wages" referred to in subsection 1 of this section means wages as defined by section 3401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The term "employer" means any person, firm, corporation, association, fiduciary of any kind, or other type of organization for whom an individual performs service as an employee, except that if the person or organization for whom the individual performs service does not have control of the payment of compensation for such service, the term "employer" means the person having control of the payment of the compensation. The term includes the United States, this state, other states, and all agencies, instrumentalities, and subdivisions of any of them.

3. The method of determining the amount to be withheld shall be prescribed by regulations of the director of revenue. The prescribed table, percentages, or other method shall result, so far as practicable, in withholding from the employee's wages during each calendar year an amount substantially equivalent to the tax reasonably estimated to be due from the employee [under] pursuant to sections 143.011 to 143.998 with respect to the amount of such wages included in [his] the employee's Missouri adjusted gross income during the calendar year.

4. For purposes of this section an employee shall be entitled to the same number of personal and dependency withholding exemptions as the number of exemptions to which [he] the employee is entitled for federal income tax withholding purposes. An employer may rely upon the number of federal withholding exemptions claimed by the employee, except where the employee provides the employer with a form claiming a different number of withholding exemptions in this state.

5. The director of revenue may enter into agreements with the tax departments of other states, [(]which require income tax to be withheld from the payment of wages[)], so as to govern the amounts to be withheld from the wages of residents of such states [under] pursuant to this section. Such agreements may provide for recognition of anticipated tax credits in determining the amounts to be withheld and, [under] pursuant to regulations prescribed by the director of revenue, may relieve employers in this state from withholding income tax on wages paid to nonresident employees. The agreements authorized by this subsection are subject to the condition that the tax department of such other states grant similar treatment to residents of this state.

6. The director of revenue shall enter into agreements with the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States or with the appropriate secretaries of the respective branches of the [armed forces] uniformed services of the United States for the withholding, as required by subsections 1 and 2 of this section, of income taxes due the state of Missouri on wages or other payments for service in the [armed] uniformed services of the United States or on payments received as [retirement or] retainer pay of any member or former member of the [armed forces] uniformed services entitled to such pay.

7. Subject to appropriations for the purpose of implementing this section, the director of revenue shall comply with provisions of the laws of the United States as amended and the regulations promulgated thereto in order that all residents of this state receiving monthly retirement income as a civil service annuitant from the federal government taxable by this state may have withheld monthly from any such moneys, whether pension, annuities or otherwise, an amount for payment of state income taxes as required by state law, but such withholding shall not be less than twenty-five dollars per quarter.

Section 1. The total amount of any annuities, pensions, retirement allowances and other retirement benefits provided by any law of the United States to any person for service in the uniformed services of the United States shall not be subject to the tax provided pursuant to chapter 143, RSMo.".

However, any tax credit that can not be claimed in the taxable year the contribution was made may be carried over to the next four succeeding taxable years until the full credit has been claimed.

The director of revenue may establish more than one period of time and reapportion more than once during each fiscal year. To the maximum extent possible, the director of revenue shall establish the procedures described herein in such a manner as to ensure that taxpayers can claim all the tax credits possible up to the cumulative amount of tax credits available for the fiscal year.

3. The amount of the tax credit claimed shall not exceed the amount of the taxpayer's state tax liability for the taxable year that the credit is claimed, and such taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit in excess of fifty thousand dollars per taxable year. However, any tax credit that can not be claimed in the taxable year the contribution was made may be carried over to the next four succeeding taxable years until the full credit has been claimed.

If a maternity home fails to use all, or some percentage to be determined by the director of revenue, of its apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time, the director of revenue may reapportion these unused tax credits to those maternity homes that have used all, or some percentage to be determined by the director of revenue, of their apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time. The director of revenue may establish more than one period of time and reapportion more than once during each fiscal year. To the maximum extent possible, the director of revenue shall establish the procedures described herein in such a manner as to ensure that taxpayers can claim all the tax credits possible up to the cumulative amount of tax credits available for the fiscal year.

288.050. 1. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this law, a claimant shall be disqualified for waiting week credit or benefits until after [he] the claimant has earned wages for work insured [under] pursuant to the unemployment compensation laws of any state equal to ten times [his] the claimant's weekly benefit amount if the deputy finds:

(1) That [he] the claimant has left [his] work voluntarily without good cause attributable to [his] such work or to [his] the claimant's employer; except that [he] the claimant shall not be disqualified:

(a) If the deputy finds [he] the claimant quit such work for the purpose of accepting a more remunerative job which [he] the claimant did accept and earn some wages therein;

(b) If [he] the claimant quit temporary work to return to [his] such claimant's regular employer; or

(c) If the deputy finds the individual quit work, which would have been determined not suitable in accordance with paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of this section, within twenty-eight calendar days of the first day worked; or

(d) As to initial claims filed after December 31, 1988, if the claimant presents evidence supported by competent medical proof that she was forced to leave her work because ofvidence pregnancy, notified her employer of such necessity as soon as practical under the bvidence circumstances, and returned to that employer and offered her services to that employer as soon as she was physically able to return to work, as certified by a licensed and practicing physician, but in no event later than ninety days after the termination of the pregnancy. An employee shall have been employed for at least one year with the same employer before she may be provided benefits [under] pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph;

(2) That [he] the claimant has retired pursuant to the terms of a labor agreement between [his] the claimant's employer and a union duly elected by the employees as their official representative or in accordance with an established policy of [his] the claimant's employer; or

(3) That [he] the claimant failed without good cause either to apply for available suitable work when so directed by the deputy, or to accept suitable work when offered [him] the claimant, either through the division or directly by an employer by whom the individual was formerly employed, or to return to [his] the individual's customary self-employment, if any, when so directed by the deputy.

(a) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the division shall consider, among other factors and in addition to those enumerated in paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the degree of risk involved to [his] the individual's health, safety and morals, [his] the individual's physical fitness and prior training, [his] the individual's experience and prior earnings, [his] the individual's length of unemployment, [his] the individual's prospects for securing work in [his] the individual's customary occupation, the distance of available work from [his] the individual's residence and [his] the individual's prospect of obtaining local work; except that, if an individual has [removed himself] moved from the locality in which [he] the individual actually resided when [he] such individual was last employed to a place where there is less probability of [his] the individual's employment at [his] such individual's usual type of work and which is more distant from or otherwise less accessible to the community in which [he] the individual was last employed, work offered by [his] the individual's most recent employer if similar to that which [he] such individual performed in [his] such individual's last employment and at wages, hours, and working conditions which are substantially similar to those prevailing for similar work in such community, or any work which [he] the individual is capable of performing at the wages prevailing for such work in the locality to which [he has removed] the individual has moved, if not hazardous to [his] such individual's health, safety or morals, shall be deemed suitable for [him] the individual;

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this law, no work shall be deemed suitable and benefits shall not be denied [under] pursuant to this law to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

a. If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;

b. If the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

c. If as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a company union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization.

2. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this law, if a deputy finds that a claimant has been discharged for misconduct connected with [his] the claimant's work, such claimant, depending upon the seriousness of the misconduct as determined by the deputy according to the circumstances in each case, shall be disqualified for waiting week credit or benefits for not less than four nor more than sixteen weeks for which [he] the claimant claims benefits and is otherwise eligible. In addition to the disqualification for benefits [under] pursuant to this provision the division may in the more aggravated cases of misconduct cancel all or any part of the individual's wage credits, which were established through [his] the individual's employment by the employer who discharged [him] such individual, according to the seriousness of the misconduct. A disqualification provided for [under] pursuant to this subsection shall not apply to any week which occurs after the claimant has earned wages for work insured [under] pursuant to the unemployment compensation laws of any state in an amount equal to eight times [his] the claimant's weekly benefit amount.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, a claimant may not be determined to be disqualified for benefits because the claimant is in training approved [under] pursuant to section 236 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, (19 U.S.C.A. Sec. 2296, as amended), or because the claimant left work which was not "suitable employment" to enter such training. For the purposes of this subsection "suitable employment" means, with respect to a worker, work of a substantially equal or higher skill level than the worker's past adversely affected employment, and wages for such work at not less than eighty percent of the worker's average weekly wage as determined for the purposes of the Trade Act of 1974.

288.070. 1. All claims shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the division may prescribe; except that such regulations shall not require the filing of a claim for benefits by the claimant in person for a week of unemployment occurring immediately prior to [his] the claimant's reemployment, but claims in such cases may be made by mail, or otherwise if authorized by regulation. Notice of each initial claim filed by an insured worker which establishes the beginning of [his] such worker's benefit year shall be promptly mailed by the division to each base period employer of such individual and to the last employing unit whose name is furnished by the individual when [he] such individual files such claim. In similar manner, a notice of each renewed claim filed by an insured worker during a benefit year after a period in such year during which [he] the insured worker was employed shall be given to the last employing unit whose name is furnished by the individual when [he] the individual files such renewed claim or to any other base period or subsequent employer of the worker who has requested such a notice. Any such base period employer or any employing unit, which employed the claimant since the beginning of the base period, who within ten calendar days after the mailing of notice of the initial claim or a renewed claim to [his or its] the employer or employing unit's last known address files a written protest against the allowance of benefits, and any employing unit from whom the claimant was separated during a week of continued claim other than a week in which an initial or renewed claim is effective, shall be deemed an interested party to any determination allowing benefits during the benefit year until such time as the issue or issues raised by the protest are resolved by a determination or decision which has become final.

2. A deputy shall promptly examine each initial claim and make a determination of the claimant's status as an insured worker. Each such determination shall be based on a written statement showing the amount of wages for insured work paid to the claimant by each employer during [his] the claimant's base period and shall include a finding as to whether such wages meet the requirements for [him] the claimant to be an insured worker, and, if so, the first day of [his] the claimant's benefit year, [his] the claimant's weekly benefit amount, and the maximum total amount of benefits which may be payable to [him] the claimant for weeks of unemployment in [his] the claimant's benefit year. The deputy shall in respect to all claims for benefits thereafter filed by such individual in [his] the claimant's benefit year make a written determination as to whether and in what amount the claimant is entitled to benefits for the week or weeks with respect to which the determination is made. Whenever claims involve complex questions of law or fact, the deputy, with the approval of the director, may refer such claims to the appeals tribunal, without making a determination, for a fair hearing and decision as provided in section 288.190.

3. The deputy shall, in writing, promptly notify the claimant of [his] such deputy's determination on an initial claim, including the reason therefor, and a copy of the written statement as provided in subsection 2 of this section. The deputy shall promptly notify the claimant and all other interested parties of [his] such deputy's determination on any claim for benefits and shall give the reason therefor; except that, where a determination on a later claim for benefits in a benefit year is the same as the determination on a preceding claim, no additional notice shall be given. A determination shall be final, when unappealed, in respect to any claim to which it applies except that an appeal from a determination on a claim for benefits shall be considered as an appeal from all later claims to which the same determination applies. The deputy may, however, not later than one year following the end of a benefit year, for good cause, reconsider any determination on any claim and shall promptly notify the claimant and other interested parties of [his] such deputy's redetermination and the reasons therefor. Whenever the deputy shall have notified any interested employer of the denial of benefits to a claimant for any week or weeks and shall thereafter allow benefits to such claimant for a subsequent week or weeks, [he] the deputy shall notify such interested employer of the beginning date of the allowance of benefits for such subsequent period.

4. Unless the claimant or any interested party within [fifteen] thirty calendar days after notice of such determination is either delivered in person or mailed to the last known address of such claimant or interested party files an appeal from such determination, it shall be final. If, pursuant to a determination or redetermination, benefits are payable in any amount or in respect to any week as to which there is no dispute, such amount of benefits shall be promptly paid regardless of any appeal.

5. Benefits shall be paid promptly in accordance with a determination or redetermination [under] pursuant to this section, or the decision of an appeals tribunal, the labor and industrial relations commission of Missouri or a reviewing court upon the issuance of such determination, redetermination or decision (regardless of the pendency of the period to apply for reconsideration, file an appeal, or petition for judicial review as provided in this section, or section 288.190, 288.200, or 288.210, as the case may be, or the pendency of any such application, appeal, or petition) unless and until such determination, redetermination or decision has been modified or reversed by a subsequent redetermination or decision, in which event benefits shall be paid or denied for weeks of unemployment thereafter in accordance with such modified or reversed redetermination or decision.

6. Benefits paid during the pendency of the period to apply for reconsideration, file an appeal, or petition for judicial review or during the pendency of any such application, appeal, or petition shall be considered as having been due and payable regardless of any redetermination or decision unless the modifying or reversing redetermination or decision establishes that the claimant willfully failed to disclose or falsified any fact which would have disqualified [him] the claimant or rendered [him] the claimant ineligible for such benefits as contemplated in subsection 9 of section 288.380.

7. Benefits paid during the pendency of the period to apply for reconsideration, file an appeal, or petition for judicial review or during the pendency of any such application, appeal, or petition which would not have been payable under a redetermination or decision which becomes final shall not be chargeable to any employer. Beginning with benefits paid on and after January 1, 1998, the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to employers who have elected to make payments in lieu of contributions pursuant to subsection 3 of section 288.090.

8. The ten-day period mentioned in subsection 1 of this section and the [fifteen-day] thirty- day period mentioned in subsection 4 of this section may, for good cause, be extended.

288.100. 1. (1) The division shall maintain a separate account for each employer which is paying contributions, and shall credit [his] each employer's account with all contributions which [he] each employer has paid. A separate account shall be maintained for each employer making payments in lieu of contributions to which shall be credited all such payments made. The account shall also show payments due as provided in section 288.090. The division may close and cancel such separate account after a period of four consecutive calendar years during which such employer has had no employment in this state subject to contributions. Nothing in this law shall be construed to grant any employer or individuals in [his] the employer's service prior claims or rights to the amounts paid by [him] the employer into the fund either on [his] the employer's own behalf or on behalf of such individuals. Except as provided in subdivision (4) of this subsection, regular benefits and that portion of extended benefits not reimbursed by the federal government paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the accounts of [his] the individual's base period employers who are paying contributions subject to the provisions of subdivision (4) of subsection 3 of section 288.090. With respect to initial claims filed after December 31, 1984, for benefits paid to an individual based on wages paid by one or more employers in the base period of the claim, the amount chargeable to each employer shall be obtained by multiplying the benefits paid by a ratio obtained by dividing the base period wages from such employer by the total wages appearing in the base period. Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the maximum amount of extended benefits paid to an individual and charged against the account of any employer shall not exceed one-half of the product obtained by multiplying the benefits paid by a ratio obtained by dividing the base period wages from such employer by the total wages appearing in the base period.

(a) The provisions of subdivision (1) of this subsection notwithstanding, with respect to weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1978, the maximum amount of extended benefits paid to an individual and charged against the account of an employer which is an employer pursuant to subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of section 288.032 and which is paying contributions pursuant to subsections 1 and 2 of section 288.090 shall not exceed the calculated entitlement for the extended benefit claim based upon the wages appearing within the base period of the extended benefit claim.

(2) Beginning as of June 30, 1951, and as of June thirtieth of each year thereafter, any unassigned surplus in the unemployment compensation fund which is five hundred thousand dollars or more in excess of five-tenths of one percent of the total taxable wages paid by all employers for the preceding calendar year as shown on the division's records on such June thirtieth shall be credited on a pro rata basis to all employer accounts having a credit balance in the same ratio that the balance in each such account bears to the total of the credit balances subject to use for rate calculation purposes for the following year in all such accounts on the same date. As used in this subdivision, the term "unassigned surplus" means the amount by which the total cash balance in the unemployment compensation fund exceeds a sum equal to the total of all employer credit account balances. The amount thus prorated to each separate employer's account shall for tax rating purposes be considered the same as contributions paid by the employer and credited to [his] the employer's account for the period preceding the calculation date except that no such amount can be credited against any contributions due or that may thereafter become due from such employer.

(3) At the conclusion of each calendar quarter the division shall, within thirty days, notify each employer by mail of the benefits paid to each claimant by week as determined by the division which have been charged to [his] such employer's account subsequent to the last notice.

(4) (a) No benefits based on wages paid for services performed prior to the date of any act for which a claimant is disqualified [under] pursuant to section 288.050 shall be chargeable to any employer directly involved in such disqualifying act.

(b) In the event the deputy has in due course determined [under] pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 288.050 that a claimant quit his work with an employer for the purpose of accepting a more remunerative job with another employer which [he] the claimant did accept and earn some wages therein, no benefits based on wages paid prior to the date of the quit shall be chargeable to the employer the claimant quit.

(c) In the event the deputy has in due course determined [under] pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 288.050 that a claimant quit temporary work in employment with an employer to return to [his] the claimant's regular employer, then, only for the purpose of charging base period employers, all of the wages paid by the employer who furnished the temporary employment shall be combined with the wages actually paid by the regular employer as if all such wages had been actually paid by the regular employer. Further, charges for benefits based on wages paid for part-time work shall be removed from the account of the employer furnishing such part-time work if that employer continued to employ the individual claiming such benefits on a regular recurring basis each week of [his] the claimant's claim to at least the same extent that [he] the employer had previously employed [him] the claimant and so informs the division within [fifteen] thirty days from the date of notice of benefit charges.

(d) No charge shall be made against an employer's account in respect to benefits paid an individual if the gross amount of wages paid by such employer to such individual is four hundred dollars or less during the individual's base period on which [his] the individual's benefit payments are based. Further, no charge shall be made against any employer's account in respect to benefits paid any individual unless such individual was in employment with respect to such employer longer than a probationary period of twenty-eight days, if such probationary period of employment has been reported to the division as required by regulation.

(e) In the event the deputy has in due course determined pursuant to paragraph (c) of subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 288.050 that a claimant is not disqualified, no benefits based on wages paid for work prior to the date of the quit shall be chargeable to the employer the claimant quit.

(f) Nothing in paragraphs (b), (c), [and] (d) or (e) of this subdivision shall in any way affect the benefit amount, duration of benefits or the wage credits of the claimant.

2. The division may prescribe regulations for the establishment, maintenance, and dissolution of joint accounts by two or more employers, and shall, in accordance with such regulations and upon application by two or more employers to establish such an account, or to merge their several individual accounts in a joint account, maintain such joint account as if it constituted a single employer's account.

3. The division may by regulation provide for the compilation and publication of such data as may be necessary to show the amounts of benefits not charged to any individual employer's account classified by reason no such charge was made and to show the types and amounts of transactions affecting the unemployment compensation fund.

288.110. [Any individual, type of organization or employing unit which has acquired substantially all of the business of an employer, excepting in any such case any assets retained by such employer incident to the liquidation of his obligations, and in respect to which the division finds that immediately after such change such business of the predecessor employer is continued without interruption solely by the successor, shall stand in the position of such predecessor employer in all respects, including the predecessor's separate account, actual contribution and benefit experience, annual payrolls, and liability for current or delinquent contributions, interest and penalties. If two or more individuals, organizations, or employing units acquired at approximately the same time substantially all of the business of an employer (excepting in any such case any assets retained by such employer incident to the liquidation of his obligations) and in respect to which the division finds that immediately after such change all portions of such business of the predecessor are continued without interruption solely by such successors, each such individual, organization, or employing unit shall stand in the position of such predecessor with respect to the proportionate share of the predecessor's separate account, actual contribution and benefit experience and annual payroll as determined by the portion of the predecessor's taxable payroll applicable to the portion of the business acquired, and each such individual, organization or employing unit shall be liable for current or delinquent contributions, interest and penalties of the predecessor in the same relative proportion. Further, any successor under this section which was not an employer at the time the acquisition occurred, shall pay contributions for the balance of the current rate year at the same contribution rate as the contribution rate of the predecessor whether such rate is more or less than two and seven-tenths percent, provided there was only one predecessor or there were only predecessors with identical rates. If the predecessors' rates were not identical, the division shall calculate a rate as of the date of acquisition applicable to the successor for the remainder of the rate year, which rate shall be based on the combined experience of all predecessor employers. In the event that any successor was, prior to an acquisition, an employer, and there is a difference in the contribution rate established for such calendar year applicable to any acquired or acquiring employer, the division shall make a recalculation as of the date of acquisition of the contribution rate applicable to any successor employer based upon the combined experience of all predecessor and successor employers, which revised contribution rate shall apply to employment after the date of any such acquisition. For this purpose a calculation date different from July first may be established. When the division has determined that a successor or successors stand in the position of a predecessor employer, the predecessor's liability shall be terminated as of the date of the acquisition.] 1. For purposes of this chapter, a business is deemed as transferred if any asset or liability activity of an employer is transferred in whole or in part by any means to another employer or employing unit. The transfer provision is applicable to all employers or employing units and shall include for profit, not for profit or governmental entities.

2. For the purposes of this chapter, if the business of any employer is transferred, the transferee is deemed a successor if the division determines that at the time of the business transfer, the predecessor and the successor businesses are owned or controlled, either directly or indirectly, by substantially the same interest or interests by legally enforceable means. Ownership of the business entity by the same interest or interests shall be considered substantially the same if at least fifty percent or more of the business entity of the successor is owned or controlled by individuals or entities who, immediately preceding the change of ownership, owned or controlled at least fifty percent or more of the business entity of the predecessor, and the successor has continued or resumes the business of the predecessor in the same establishment which may or may not be at the same location. Without limitation by reason of enumeration, it is presumed by the division, unless shown to the contrary, that the meaning of "same interest or interests" includes a spouse, child, parent of the individual or individuals who owned or controlled the business. The meaning of "same interest or interests" shall include any combination of the relationships as previously outlined in this subsection.

3. Any successor pursuant to this section which was not an employer at the time the transfer occurred shall pay contributions for the balance of the calendar year at the same contribution rate as the predecessor provided there is only one predecessor or multiple predecessors with identical rates. If there is more than one predecessor and the predecessors' rates are not identical, the division shall calculate a contribution rate which shall be applicable to the successor for the remainder of the contribution rate year. The calculated contribution rate shall be based on the combined experience of all predecessor employers and shall be applicable to the next calendar quarter within the same calendar year following the date of the transfer. In the event that the successor is an employer prior to a transfer and there is a difference in the contribution rate established for such calendar year applicable to any predecessor employer, the division shall make a recalculation of the contribution rate applicable to the successor employer based upon the combined experience of all predecessor and successor employers, as of the beginning of the next calendar quarter within the same calendar year following the date of transfer.

4. When the division determines that a successor stands in the position of a predecessor employer, the successor shall take over and continue the predecessor's account, including positive and negative balances and all other aspects of the account pursuant to this chapter. The predecessor and the successor shall be jointly and severally liable for any amounts owed by the predecessor to the division.

5. If only a portion of any asset or liability activity of the predecessor is transferred, the successor shall stand in the position of the predecessor and shall receive a proportionate share of the predecessor's separate account, actual contribution and benefit experience and annual payroll as determined by the portion of the predecessor's taxable payroll applicable to the portion of the asset or liability or activity acquired. The predecessor shall remain fully liable for its current or delinquent contributions or both, payments in lieu of contributions, interest and penalties. The successor shall also be jointly and severally liable with the predecessor for a proportionate share of the predecessor's current or delinquent contributions or both, payments in lieu of contributions, interest and penalties of the predecessor in the same proportionate share as provided for in this section.

6. The provisions of this section shall become effective on January 1, 1997.

288.113. Each employer's rate for the twelve months commencing January first of any calendar year shall be determined on the basis of [his] the employer's record through the preceding June thirtieth. In the event the division has been unable to calculate the rate, or the calculation of such rate by the division has not yet become final, in time to advise such employer of such rate a reasonable time before the date any contribution payment may be due, the rate in effect for the preceding calendar year shall be paid by each employer and an adjustment of any overpayment shall be permitted or additional payment demanded in the event of an underpayment, in connection with any different rate established for such calendar year, but no interest shall accrue on any such underpayment until the expiration of [fifteen] thirty days from the mailing of such demand.

[288.114. Effective September 30, 1995, any person who is defined as an employer or employing unit pursuant to this chapter and chapter 287, RSMo, but whose employees are not eligible for benefits under either or both chapters shall not be required to pay any taxes otherwise imposed under those chapters to the extent that the person's employees are not eligible for benefits.]

288.130. 1. Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate payroll and other related records, containing such information as the division may by regulation prescribe for a period of at least [five] three calendar years after the record was made. Such records shall be open to inspection and be subject to being copied by authorized representatives of the division at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. Any authorized person engaged in administering this law may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports, with respect to individuals performing services for it, which are deemed necessary for the effective administration of this law.

2. Each employer shall post and maintain in places readily accessible to [his] the employer's workers printed statements concerning benefit rights, claims for benefits and such other matters related to the administration of this law as the division may by regulation prescribe. Each employer shall supply to workers copies of any printed statements relating to claims for benefits when and as the division may by regulation prescribe. Such printed statements and other materials shall be supplied by the division without cost.

3. A deputy shall make an ex parte determination after investigation but without hearing with respect to any matter pertaining to the liability of an employing unit which does not involve a claimant. The deputy shall promptly notify any interested employing units of each such determination and the reason for it. The division shall grant a hearing before an appeals tribunal to any employing unit appealing from any such ex parte determination provided an appeal is filed in writing within [fifteen] thirty days following the date of notification or the mailing of such determination to the party's last known address. In the absence of an appeal any such determination shall become final at the expiration of a [fifteen-day] thirty- day period. The deputy may, however, at any time within a year from the date of [his] the deputy's determination, for good cause, reconsider the determination and shall promptly notify all interested employing units of [his] the amended determination and the reason for it.

4. The [fifteen-day] thirty-day period provided in subsection 3 of this section may, for good cause, be extended.

288.140. If not later than [four] three years after the date on which any contributions would have been required to be paid if due, an employing unit who has paid such contributions or interest thereon shall make application for an adjustment thereof in connection with subsequent contribution payments, or for a refund thereof because such adjustment is not practicable, and if the division shall determine that such contributions or interest or any portion thereof was erroneously collected, the division shall make an adjustment thereof, without interest, in connection with subsequent contribution payments, or if such adjustment is not practicable, the division shall refund such payment, without interest, from the fund. The division may, in its discretion, at any time and under such conditions and limitations as it may deem proper, make an adjustment or refund of contributions or interest paid thereon which the division finds has been erroneously collected, or any part thereof, if it finds there is good cause why such adjustment or refund should be made. The division shall not be required to refund any contributions based upon wages payable or paid which have been included in a determination of a claimant's benefit rights and which determination has become final.

288.160. 1. If any employer neglects or refuses to make a report and payment of contributions as required by this law the division shall make an estimate based on any information in its possession or that may come into its possession of the amount of wages paid by such employer for the period in respect to which [he] the employer failed to make report and payment, and upon the basis of said estimated amount compute and assess the contributions and interest payable by such employer, adding to such sum a penalty equal to ten percent thereof. Promptly thereafter, the division shall give to such employer written notice of such estimated contributions, interest and penalties as so assessed, the notice to be served personally or by registered mail, directed to the last known principal place of business of such employer in this state or in any state in the event [he] the employer has none in this state.

2. In any case in which any contributions, interest or penalties imposed by this law are not paid when due, it shall be the duty of the division, when the amount of contributions, interest or penalties is determined, either by the report of the employer or by such investigation as the division may make, to assess the contributions, interest and penalties so determined against such employer and to certify the amount of said contributions, interest and penalties and give such employer written notice, served personally or by registered mail, directed to the last known address of such employer in this state or in any state, in the event [he] the employer has none in this state.

3. If fraud or evasion on the part of any employer is discovered by the division, the division shall determine the amount by which the state has been defrauded, shall add to the amount so determined a penalty equal to twenty-five percent thereof, and shall assess the same against the employer. The amount so assessed shall be immediately due and payable; provided, however, that the division shall promptly thereafter give to said employer written notice of such assessment.

4. Any employer against whom an assessment is made [under] pursuant to the provisions of subsections 1, 2 and 3 above may petition for reassessment. The petition for such reassessment shall be filed with the division during the thirty-day period following the day of service or mailing of the notice of such assessment. In the absence of the filing of such a petition for reassessment the assessment shall become final upon the expiration of such a thirty-day period. Each such petition for reassessment shall set forth specifically and in detail the grounds upon which it is claimed the assessment is erroneous.

5. (1) In any case in which any contributions, interest or penalties imposed by law are not paid when due, the notice of the assessment of such contributions, interest and penalties shall be served upon or mailed to the employer within [five] three years of the date upon which the payment of the contributions was due except that in any case of fraud or misrepresentation on the part of the employer, the notice of the assessment of the contributions, interest and penalties may be served upon or mailed to the employer at any time.

(2) The giving of the notice of the making of the assessment shall toll any statute of limitations on the collection of any contributions, interest and penalties assessed.

(3) In the event any employer is entitled to the advantage of the soldiers' and sailors' civil relief act of 1940, or any amendment thereto, prior to the date any assessment becomes final, such employer shall be permitted to file a petition for reassessment at any time within ninety days following such employer's discharge from the armed services.

(4) The certificate of assessment which, [under] pursuant to the provisions of section 288.170, may be filed with the clerk of the circuit court shall, upon such filing, thereafter be treated in all respects as a final judgment of the circuit court against the employer and the general statute of limitations applying to other judgments of courts of record shall apply.

288.190. 1. The director shall designate an impartial referee or referees to hear and decide disputed determinations, claims referred pursuant to subsection 2 of section 288.070, and petitions for reassessment. No employee of the division shall participate on behalf of the division in any case in which [he] the division employee is an interested party.

2. The manner in which disputed determinations, referred claims, and petitions for reassessment shall be presented and the conduct of hearings shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the division for determining the rights of the parties, whether or not such regulations conform to common law or statutory rules of evidence and other technical rules of procedure. When the same or substantially similar evidence is relevant and material to the matters in issue in claims by more than one individual or in claims by a single individual in respect to two or more weeks of unemployment, the same time and place for considering each such claim or claims may be fixed, hearings thereon jointly conducted, a single record of the proceedings made, and evidence introduced with respect to one proceeding considered as introduced in the others, if in the judgment of the appeals tribunal or the commission having jurisdiction of the proceeding such consolidation would not be prejudicial to any party. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with a disputed determination, referred claim, or petition for reassessment. The appeals tribunal shall include in the record and consider as evidence all records of the division that are material to the issues. All testimony at any hearing shall be recorded but need not be transcribed unless the matter is further appealed.

3. Unless an appeal on a disputed determination or referred claim is withdrawn, an appeals tribunal, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall affirm, modify, or reverse the determination of the deputy, or shall remand the matter to the deputy with directions. In addition, in any case wherein the appellant, after having been duly notified of the date, time, and place of the hearing, shall fail to appear at such hearing, the appeals tribunal may enter an order dismissing the appeal. The director may transfer to another appeals tribunal the proceedings on an appeal determination before an appeals tribunal. The parties shall be duly notified of an appeals tribunal's decision or order, together with its reason therefor, which shall be deemed to be the final decision or order of the division unless, within [fifteen] thirty days after the date of notification or mailing of such decision, further appeal is initiated pursuant to section 288.200; except that, within [fifteen] thirty days of either notification or mailing of the appeals tribunal's decision or order, the appeals tribunal, on its own motion, may reconsider any decision or order when it appears that such reconsideration is essential to the accomplishment of the object and purpose of this law.

4. Unless a petition for reassessment is withdrawn or is allowed without a hearing, the petitioners shall be given a reasonable opportunity for a fair hearing before an appeals tribunal upon each such petition. The appeals tribunal shall promptly notify the interested parties of its decision upon such petition together with its reason therefor. In addition, in any case wherein the appellant, after having been duly notified of the date, time, and place of the hearing, shall fail to appear at such hearing, the appeals tribunal may enter an order dismissing the appeal. In the absence of the filing of an application for review of such decision, the decision, whether it results in a reassessment or otherwise, shall become final [fifteen] thirty days after the date of notification or mailing thereof; except that, within [fifteen] thirty days of either notification or mailing of the appeals tribunal's decision or order, the appeals tribunal, on its own motion, may reconsider any decision or order when it appears that such reconsideration is essential to the accomplishment of the object and purposes of this law.

288.200. 1. Any of the parties (including the division) to any decision of an appeals tribunal, may file with the commission within [fifteen] thirty days following the date of notification or mailing of such decision, an application to have such decision reviewed by the commission. The commission may allow or deny an application for review. If an application is allowed, the commission may affirm, modify, reverse, or set aside the decision of the appeals tribunal on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in such case or may take additional evidence or may remand the matter to the appeals tribunal with directions. Any additional hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the requirements of subsection 2 of section 288.190. The commission shall promptly notify the parties of its decision and its reasons therefor. If an application for review is denied, the decision of the appeals tribunal shall be deemed to be the decision of the commission for the purpose of judicial review and shall be subject to judicial review within the time and in the manner provided for with respect to decisions of the commission except that the time limitations shall run from the date of notice of the order of the commission denying the application for review.

2. Any decision of the commission shall become final ten days after the date of notification or mailing thereof to the parties. Any right, fact or matter in issue, directly based upon or necessarily involved in a determination or redetermination which has become final or in a decision on appeal which has become final, shall be conclusive with respect to the parties who had notice of such determination, redetermination, or decision for all the purposes of the employment security law in any other proceeding; except that, the commission may on its own motion and by a written decision reconsider any determination or redetermination or decision wherein any such right, fact or matter at issue was determined or necessarily involved when it appears that such reconsideration is essential to accomplish the object and purposes of the law. Judicial review of any decision of the commission shall be permitted only after the party claiming to be aggrieved thereby has exhausted the administrative remedies as provided by this law and the rules and regulations of the division.".

House Journal

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SIXTY-SECOND DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 1996

Speaker Pro Tem Daniels in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

"I will sing of loyalty and of justice; to you, O Lord, I will sing. I will study the way that is blameless. When shall I attain it?" Psalm 101:1-2 (NRSV)

O God of Grace and Glory, when we resent having so many choices to make, help us remember that good character is the habit of choosing right from wrong.

Help us see that the strength of this state and its people lie on the path of justice and integrity. History and experience have given us evidence of your guidance to nations and to individuals. Give us the faith to believe that when You want us to do or not to do any particular thing, You will find a way of letting us know it.

The days grow short and there is much to be done. Working hours grow longer and there is much to be done. Grant those here the stamina and the endurance to accomplish what needs doing in these last several weeks, and bless them with your presence. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Alicia Hill, Ashlee Wheeler, Dawn Barnett, Amy Dudash, Lisa Helker, Matt Gierse, Paul Cereghino, Kelly Dillon, Luke Heyer, Evan O'Brien, Jennifer Sombart, Elizabeth Clark, Josh Kreiter, Kait Fischer, Evan Barnett, Kyle Hamilton, Amanda Pizzimenti, Allen Kirchner, Courtney Cook, Jonathan Fournier, Tyler Adams, Adam Lewis, Dennis Henke, Crusman Brown, Brad Miller, Kelly Yarbrough, Chris Lindsay and Jessica Hemby.

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SIXTY-THIRD DAY, Thursday, April 25, 1996

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Carl R. Gauck, St. Paul Lutheran Church, Lohman, MO.

Gracious God, King of the Universe, we give you thanks for bringing us to the beginning of this day. We thank you for the varied opportunities we have had to serve you and your people already this day. We pray for your continual guidance in the various decisions we have to make. Let us always be mindful of your teaching through your prophets: to care for the poor, promote justice, and walk humbly with you always.

May all our actions, decisions and laws reflect this principle of living as your people. Watch over our travel this day; bring us safely to our homes and the people we love and represent. Guide our passage and give us joy and confidence in your continual presence and mercy, this we ask in you name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SIXTY-FOURTH DAY, Monday, April 29, 1996

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Carl R. Gauck, S.T.M.

Gracious and Heavenly Father, King of the Universe, we thank you for bringing us to the beginning of this day and safely riding with us as we traveled to be here. We thank you for having given us the opportunity to serve you through the people we have met and the meetings we have attended. We pray be with us as time seems to be compressing; help us to find ways to deal with the stress of long hours and onslaught of information and legislation. Give us wisdom and your guidance during these closing weeks and the decisions that have to be made and the impact and implications of each bill. Strengthen us and help us as we seek to serve our people by first serving you and by being servants to all. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Mary Sloan Pleus, Samantha Wagoner, Ashley Kohlbaker, Mike Schlueter, Samantha Britton, Jakob Lewis, Michelle Maples, Brett Wilcox, Heather Robison, Rachel Keppel, Katie Pfenning, Jessica Zieger, Carolyn Wagner, Chelsie Gillispie, Darcy Criss, Joseph Brown, Joshua Brown and Marty Moss.

The Journal of the sixty-third day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SIXTY-FIFTH DAY, Tuesday, April 30, 1996

Speaker Pro Tem Daniels in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"All depend on You to give them food when they need it, You give it to them and they eat it; You provide food and they are satisfied." (Ps. 104:27).

Our thoughts turn this morning to the earth, yesterday's reports of widespread drought in the mid-west and the recent heavy rains do not do much to help the spirits of our farmers and gardeners and all of us who consume their produce. We pray to you, the Lord of the earth, for the spirit of courage and strength of character which our farmers need. In these changing times, we pray for those involved in decisions at the federal level about the relationship between government and the farming industry and for disputes involving the farming industry and the rest of our lives as citizens, including the repeal of the sales tax. May a spirit of fairness and cooperation and a keen sense of the common good inspire all that we are about. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the sixty-fourth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

House Amendment No. 4

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bills Nos. 1149, 1150 and 1240, page 1, section 1, line 11, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"572.010. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Advance gambling activity", a person "advances gambling activity" if, acting other than as a player, [he] the person engages in conduct that materially aids any form of gambling activity. Conduct of this nature includes but is not limited to conduct directed toward the creation or establishment of the particular game, lottery, contest, scheme, device or activity involved, toward the acquisition or maintenance of premises, paraphernalia, equipment or apparatus therefor, toward the solicitation or inducement of persons to participate therein, toward the actual conduct of the playing phases thereof, toward the arrangement or communication of any of its financial or recording phases, or toward any other phase of its operation. A person advances gambling activity if, having substantial proprietary control or other authoritative control over premises being used with [his] the person's knowledge for purposes of gambling activity, [he] the person permits that activity to occur or continue or makes no effort to prevent its occurrence or continuation. The supplying, servicing and operation of a licensed excursion gambling boat under sections 313.800 to 313.840, RSMo, does not constitute advancing gambling activity;

(2) "Bookmaking", [means] advancing gambling activity by unlawfully accepting bets from members of the public as a business, rather than in a casual or personal fashion, upon the outcomes of future contingent events;

(3) "Contest of chance" [means], any contest, game, gaming scheme or gaming device in which the outcome depends in a material degree upon an element of chance, notwithstanding that the skill of the contestants may also be a factor therein;

(4) "Gambling", a person engages in "gambling" when [he] such person stakes or risks something of value upon the outcome of a contest of chance or a future contingent event not under his control or influence, upon an agreement or understanding that he will receive something of value in the event of a certain outcome. Gambling does not include bona fide business transactions valid under the law of contracts, including but not limited to contracts for the purchase or sale at a future date of securities or commodities, and agreements to compensate for loss caused by the happening of chance, including but not limited to contracts of indemnity or guaranty and life, health or accident insurance; nor does gambling include playing an amusement device that confers only an immediate right of replay not exchangeable for something of value. Gambling does not include any licensed activity, or persons participating in such games which are covered by sections 313.800 to 313.840, RSMo, or conducting or participating in any raffle;

(5) "Gambling device" [means], any device, machine, paraphernalia or equipment that is used or usable in the playing phases of any gambling activity, whether that activity consists of gambling between persons or gambling by a person with a machine. However, lottery tickets, policy slips and other items used in the playing phases of lottery and policy schemes are not gambling devices within this definition;

(6) "Gambling record" [means], any article, instrument, record, receipt, ticket, certificate, token, slip or notation used or intended to be used in connection with unlawful gambling activity;

(7) "Lottery" or "policy" [means], an unlawful gambling scheme in which for a consideration the participants are given an opportunity to win something of value, the award of which is determined by chance. The term "lottery" or "policy" does not include a raffle;

(8) "Player" [means], a person who engages in any form of gambling solely as a contestant or bettor, without receiving or becoming entitled to receive any profit therefrom other than personal gambling winnings, and without otherwise rendering any material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation of the particular gambling activity. A person who gambles at a social game of chance on equal terms with the other participants therein does not otherwise render material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation thereof by performing, without fee or remuneration, acts directed toward the arrangement or facilitation of the game, such as inviting persons to play, permitting the use of premises therefor and supplying cards or other equipment used therein. A person who engages in "bookmaking" as defined in subdivision (2) of this section is not a "player";

(9) "Professional player" [means], a player who engages in gambling for a livelihood or who has derived at least twenty percent of his income in any one year within the past five years from acting solely as a player;

(10) "Profit from gambling activity", a person "profits from gambling activity" if, other than as a player, [he] the person accepts or receives money or other property pursuant to an agreement or understanding with any person whereby he participates or is to participate in the proceeds of gambling activity;

(11) "Raffle", a drawing conducted by any organization which qualifies for tax-exempt status under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, any political party, candidate committee or person who has filed as a candidate for public office, or any group formed for a one-time charitable or benevolent purpose, where one or more prizes are awarded to persons who enter the drawing by purchasing tickets or by making a contribution to the person or organization conducting the drawing, and where all proceeds of the drawing are used for a charitable or benevolent purpose, or in the case of a political party, candidate committee or candidate for public office, such proceeds are used for campaign expenditures as governed by chapter 130, RSMo;

(12) "Slot machine" [means], a gambling device that as a result of the insertion of a coin or other object operates, either completely automatically or with the aid of some physical act by the player, in such a manner that, depending upon elements of chance, it may eject something of value. A device so constructed or readily adaptable or convertible to such use is no less a slot machine because it is not in working order or because some mechanical act of manipulation or repair is required to accomplish its adaptation, conversion or workability. Nor is it any less a slot machine because apart from its use or adaptability as such it may also sell or deliver something of value on a basis other than chance;

[(12)] (13) "Something of value" [means], any money or property, any token, object or article exchangeable for money or property, or any form of credit or promise directly or indirectly contemplating transfer of money or property or of any interest therein or involving extension of a service, entertainment or a privilege of playing at a game or scheme without charge;

[(13)] (14) "Unlawful" [means], not specifically authorized by law."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

On motion of Representative Brown, House Amendment No. 4 was adopted.

Representative Pouche offered House Amendment No. 5.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bills Nos. 1149, 1150 and 1240, section 1, page 1, by inserting immediately after said section the following new section:

"Section 2. Gambling establishments are prohibited from receiving benefits through state business assistance programs pursuant to sections 99.800 to 99.865, sections 135.100 to 135.150, and sections 135.200 to 135.256, RSMo. For purposes of this section, "gambling establishments" are facilities primarily used for conducting licensed gaming activities by an organization other than a bona fide religious, charitable, fraternal, veteran or service organization."

Amend title and enacting clause accordingly.

On motion of Representative Pouche, House Amendment No. 5 was adopted by the following vote:

House Amendment No. 6

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bills Nos. 1149, 1150 & 1240, Page 1, Section 43.351, by inserting the following after said section:

313.812. 1. The commission may issue licenses pursuant to subsection 1 of section 313.807 when it is satisfied that the applicant has complied with all rules and regulations, including an update of all information provided to the commission in the licensee's initial application. The commission shall decide the number, location and type of excursion gambling boat in a city or county under subsection 10 of this section. The license shall set forth the name of the licensee, the type of license granted, the place where the excursion gambling boat will operate and dock, including the docking of an excursion gambling boat which is continuously docked, and other information the commission deems appropriate. The commission shall have the ultimate responsibility of deciding the number, location, and type of excursion gambling boats licensed in a city or county; however, any city or county which has complied with the provisions of subsection 10 of this section shall submit to the commission a plan outlining the following:

(1) The recommended number of licensed excursion gambling boats operating in such city or county;

(2) The recommended licensee or licensees operating in such city or county;

(3) The community's economic development or impact and affirmative action plan concerning minorities' and women's ownership, contracting and employment for the waterfront development;

(4) The city or county proposed sharing of revenue with any other municipality;

(5) Any other information such city or county deems necessary; and

(6) Any other information the commission may determine is necessary.

The commission shall provide for due dates for receiving such plan from the city or county.

2. A license to operate an excursion gambling boat shall only be granted to an applicant upon the express conditions that:

(1) The applicant shall not, by a lease, contract, understanding, or arrangement of any kind, grant, assign, or turn over to a person the operation of an excursion gambling boat licensed under this section or of the system of wagering described in section 313.817. This section does not prohibit a management contract with a person licensed by the commission; and

(2) The applicant shall not in any manner permit a person other than the licensee and the management licensee to have a share, percentage, or proportion of the money received for admissions to the excursion gambling boat.

3. The commission shall require, as a condition of granting a license, that an applicant operate an excursion gambling boat which, as nearly as practicable, resembles or is a part of Missouri's or the home dock city's or county's riverboat history.

4. The commission shall encourage through its rules and regulations the use of Missouri resources, goods and services in the operation of any excursion gambling boat.

5. The excursion gambling boat shall provide for nongaming areas, food service and a Missouri theme gift shop. The amount of space used for gaming shall be determined in accordance with all rules and regulations of the commission and the United States Coast Guard safety regulations.

6. A license to operate gambling games or to operate an excursion gambling boat shall not be granted unless the applicant has, through clear and convincing evidence, demonstrated financial responsibility sufficient to meet adequately the requirements of the proposed enterprise.

7. The applicant shall establish by clear and convincing evidence its fitness to be licensed if there is evidence that any of the following apply:

(1) The applicant has been suspended from operating an excursion gambling boat or a game of chance or gambling operation in another jurisdiction by a board or commission of that jurisdiction;

(2) The applicant is not the true owner of the enterprise proposed;

(3) The applicant is not the sole owner, and other persons have ownership in the enterprise, which fact has not been disclosed;

(4) The applicant is a corporation that is not publicly traded and ten percent or more of the stock of the corporation is subject to a contract or option to purchase at any time during the period for which the license is to be issued unless the contract or option was disclosed to the commission and the commission approved the sale or transfer during the period of the license;

(5) The applicant has knowingly made a false statement of a material fact to the commission; or

(6) The applicant has failed to meet a valid, bona fide monetary obligation in connection with an excursion gambling boat.

8. A license shall not be granted if the applicant has not established his [his] the applicant's good repute and moral character or if the applicant has pled guilty to, or has been convicted of, a felony. No licensee shall employ or contract with any person who has pled guilty to, or has been convicted of, a felony to perform any duties directly connected with the licensee's privileges under a license granted pursuant to this section, except that employees performing nongaming related occupations as determined by the commission shall be exempt from the requirements of this subsection.

9. A licensee shall not lend to any person money or any other thing of value for the purpose of permitting that person to wager on any gambling game authorized by law. This does not prohibit credit card or debit card transactions or cashing of checks. Any check cashed [must] shall be deposited within twenty-four hours. The commission may require licensees to verify a sufficient account balance exists before cashing any check. Any licensee who violates the provisions of this subsection shall be subject to an administrative penalty of five thousand dollars for each violation. Such administrative penalties shall be assessed and collected by the commission.

10. Gambling excursions including the operation of gambling games on an excursion gambling boat which is not continuously docked shall be allowed only on the Mississippi River and the Missouri River. No license to conduct gambling games on an excursion gambling boat in a city or county shall be issued unless and until the qualified voters of the city or county approve such activities pursuant to this subsection. The question shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the city or county at a general, primary or special election upon the motion of the governing body of the city or county or upon the petition of fifteen percent of the qualified voters of the city or county determined on the basis of the number of votes cast for governor in the city or county at the last election held prior to the filing of the petition. The question shall be submitted in substantially the following form:

Shall the City (County) of ..... allow the licensing of excursion gambling boats or floating facilities as now or hereafter provided by Missouri gaming law in the city (county)?

* YES * NO

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the question, then the commission may license excursion gambling boats in that city or county and such boats may operate on the Mississippi River and the Missouri River. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the question, then the commission shall not license such excursion gambling boats in such city or county unless and until the question is again submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the city or county at a later election; except that, in no event shall a proposal pursuant to this subsection be submitted to the voters sooner than eighteen months from the date the last proposal was submitted pursuant to this subsection. Excursion gambling boats may only dock in a city or unincorporated area of a county which approves licensing of such excursion gambling boats pursuant to this subsection, but gambling operations may be conducted at any point on the Mississippi River or the Missouri River during an excursion. Those cities and counties which have approved by election pursuant to this subsection, except those cities or counties which have subsequently rejected by election, the licensing of any type of excursion gambling boats in the city or county prior to April 6, 1994, are exempt from any local election requirement of this section as such previous election shall have the same effect as if held after May 20, 1994.

11. If a docking fee is charged by a city or a county, a licensee operating an excursion gambling boat shall pay the docking fee prior to the start of the excursion season.

12. Any licensee shall not be delinquent in the payment of property taxes or other taxes or fees or in the payment of any other contractual obligation or debt due or owed to the state or a political subdivision of the state.

13. An excursion gambling boat licensed by the state shall meet all of the requirements of chapter 306, RSMo, and is subject to an inspection of its sanitary facilities to protect the environment and water quality by the commission or its designee before a license to operate an excursion gambling boat is issued by the commission. Licensed excursion gambling boats shall also be subject to such inspections during the period of the license as may be deemed necessary by the commission. The cost of such inspections shall be paid by the licensee.

14. A holder of any license shall be subject to imposition of penalties, suspension or revocation of such license, or other action for any act or failure to act by himself or herself or his or her agents or employees, that is injurious to the public health, safety, morals, good order and general welfare of the people of the state of Missouri, or that would discredit or tend to discredit the Missouri gaming industry or the state of Missouri unless the licensee proves by clear and convincing evidence that it is not guilty of such action. The commission shall take appropriate action against any licensee who violates the law or the rules and regulations of the commission. Without limiting other provisions of this subsection, the following acts or omissions may be grounds for such discipline:

(1) Failing to comply with or make provision for compliance with sections 313.800 to 313.850, the rules and regulations of the commission or any federal, state or local law or regulation;

(2) Failing to comply with any rule, order or ruling of the commission or its agents pertaining to gaming;

(3) Receiving goods or services from a person or business entity who does not hold a supplier's license but who is required to hold such license by the provisions of sections 313.800 to 313.850 or the rules and regulations of the commission;

(4) Being suspended or ruled ineligible or having a license revoked or suspended in any state [of] or gaming jurisdiction;

(5) Associating with, either socially or in business affairs, or employing persons of notorious or unsavory reputation or who have extensive police records, or who have failed to cooperate with any officially constituted investigatory or administrative body and would adversely affect public confidence and trust in gaming;

(6) Employing in any gambling games operation or any excursion gambling boat operation, any person known to have been found guilty of cheating or using any improper device in connection with any gambling game;

(7) Use of fraud, deception, misrepresentation or bribery in securing any permit or license issued pursuant to sections 313.800 to 313.850;

(8) Obtaining or attempting to obtain any fee, charge, or other compensation by fraud, deception, or misrepresentation;

(9) Incompetence, misconduct, gross negligence, fraud, misrepresentation or dishonesty in the performance of the functions or duties regulated by sections 313.800 to 313.850.

313.835. Gaming commission fund, created, purpose, expenditures--veterans' homes capital improvement trust fund, created, purpose, funding.--

1. All revenue received by the commission from license fees, penalties, administrative fees, reimbursement by any excursion gambling boat operators for services provided by the commission and admission fees authorized under the provisions of sections 313.800 to 313.850 shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the "Gaming Commission Fund" which is hereby created for the sole purpose of funding the administrative costs of the commission relating to excursion gambling boat operations, subject to appropriation. Moneys deposited into this fund shall not be considered proceeds of excursion gambling boat operations. Moneys deposited into the gaming commission fund shall be considered state funds pursuant to article IV, section 15 of the Missouri Constitution. All interest received on the gaming commission fund shall be credited to the gaming commission fund. Any appropriation from the state general revenue fund to fund expenses of the state gaming commission, other than funds from the gaming commission fund, shall be reimbursed to the general revenue fund by July 1, 1995. Beginning July 1, 1995, any excess moneys not already encumbered at the end of any fiscal year in the gaming commission fund shall be distributed in the following manner:

(1) The first five hundred thousand dollars shall be appropriated on a per capita basis to cities and counties that match the state portion and have demonstrated a need for funding community neighborhood organization programs for the homeless and to deter gang-related violence and crimes;

(2) The next five hundred thousand dollars shall be transferred to the compulsive gamblers fund established pursuant to section 313.842;

[(2)] (3) Until July 1, 2000, the remaining unencumbered funds shall be transferred to the "Veterans' Homes Capital Improvement Trust Fund", as hereby created in the state treasury. The state treasurer shall administer the veterans' homes capital improvement trust fund, and the moneys in such fund shall be used solely, upon appropriation, by the Missouri veterans' commission for the construction or renovation of veterans' homes in this state. Any interest which accrues to the fund shall remain in the fund and shall be used in the same manner as moneys which are transferred to the fund pursuant to this section. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, to the contrary, moneys in the veterans' homes capital improvement trust fund at the end of any biennium shall not be transferred to the credit of the general revenue fund. Beginning July 1, 2000, the remaining unencumbered funds shall be transferred from the gaming commission fund to the state general revenue fund.

2. If, prior to July 1, 1995, any unencumbered moneys in the gaming commission fund that exceed the amount appropriated in fiscal year 1995 to any state agency for the purpose of regulating excursion gambling shall be transferred to the veterans' homes capital improvement trust fund.

313.842. There may be established an outpatient center which shall provide services for compulsive gamblers and their families [in any city or county that licenses excursion gambling boats]. As used in this section, "compulsive gambler" means a person who is chronically and progressively preoccupied with gambling and the urge to gamble. Such centers may be funded from the taxes collected and distributed to [the] any city or county [establishing the center under] pursuant to section 313.822. Such moneys shall be submitted to the state and credited to the "Compulsive Gamblers Fund", which is hereby established within the department of mental health. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, to the contrary, moneys in the fund at the end of any biennium shall not be transferred to the credit of the general revenue fund. The department of mental health shall administer all programs, either directly or by contract, for compulsive gamblers. [Any such person or family of such person requesting services for compulsive gambling from the outpatient center must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that his or her chronic and preoccupation with gambling and the urge to gamble was exacerbated by this proposed legislation establishing riverboat gambling in this state.]

Further amend said bill by enacting the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Representative Froelker requested a division of the question.

House Amendment No. 6

Part I

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bills Nos. 1149, 1150 & 1240, Page 1, Section 43.351, by inserting the following after said section:

313.812. 1. The commission may issue licenses pursuant to subsection 1 of section 313.807 when it is satisfied that the applicant has complied with all rules and regulations, including an update of all information provided to the commission in the licensee's initial application. The commission shall decide the number, location and type of excursion gambling boat in a city or county under subsection 10 of this section. The license shall set forth the name of the licensee, the type of license granted, the place where the excursion gambling boat will operate and dock, including the docking of an excursion gambling boat which is continuously docked, and other information the commission deems appropriate. The commission shall have the ultimate responsibility of deciding the number, location, and type of excursion gambling boats licensed in a city or county; however, any city or county which has complied with the provisions of subsection 10 of this section shall submit to the commission a plan outlining the following:

(1) The recommended number of licensed excursion gambling boats operating in such city or county;

(2) The recommended licensee or licensees operating in such city or county;

(3) The community's economic development or impact and affirmative action plan concerning minorities' and women's ownership, contracting and employment for the waterfront development;

(4) The city or county proposed sharing of revenue with any other municipality;

(5) Any other information such city or county deems necessary; and

(6) Any other information the commission may determine is necessary.

The commission shall provide for due dates for receiving such plan from the city or county.

2. A license to operate an excursion gambling boat shall only be granted to an applicant upon the express conditions that:

(1) The applicant shall not, by a lease, contract, understanding, or arrangement of any kind, grant, assign, or turn over to a person the operation of an excursion gambling boat licensed under this section or of the system of wagering described in section 313.817. This section does not prohibit a management contract with a person licensed by the commission; and

(2) The applicant shall not in any manner permit a person other than the licensee and the management licensee to have a share, percentage, or proportion of the money received for admissions to the excursion gambling boat.

3. The commission shall require, as a condition of granting a license, that an applicant operate an excursion gambling boat which, as nearly as practicable, resembles or is a part of Missouri's or the home dock city's or county's riverboat history.

4. The commission shall encourage through its rules and regulations the use of Missouri resources, goods and services in the operation of any excursion gambling boat.

5. The excursion gambling boat shall provide for nongaming areas, food service and a Missouri theme gift shop. The amount of space used for gaming shall be determined in accordance with all rules and regulations of the commission and the United States Coast Guard safety regulations.

6. A license to operate gambling games or to operate an excursion gambling boat shall not be granted unless the applicant has, through clear and convincing evidence, demonstrated financial responsibility sufficient to meet adequately the requirements of the proposed enterprise.

7. The applicant shall establish by clear and convincing evidence its fitness to be licensed if there is evidence that any of the following apply:

(1) The applicant has been suspended from operating an excursion gambling boat or a game of chance or gambling operation in another jurisdiction by a board or commission of that jurisdiction;

(2) The applicant is not the true owner of the enterprise proposed;

(3) The applicant is not the sole owner, and other persons have ownership in the enterprise, which fact has not been disclosed;

(4) The applicant is a corporation that is not publicly traded and ten percent or more of the stock of the corporation is subject to a contract or option to purchase at any time during the period for which the license is to be issued unless the contract or option was disclosed to the commission and the commission approved the sale or transfer during the period of the license;

(5) The applicant has knowingly made a false statement of a material fact to the commission; or

(6) The applicant has failed to meet a valid, bona fide monetary obligation in connection with an excursion gambling boat.

8. A license shall not be granted if the applicant has not established his [his] the applicant's good repute and moral character or if the applicant has pled guilty to, or has been convicted of, a felony. No licensee shall employ or contract with any person who has pled guilty to, or has been convicted of, a felony to perform any duties directly connected with the licensee's privileges under a license granted pursuant to this section, except that employees performing nongaming related occupations as determined by the commission shall be exempt from the requirements of this subsection.

9. A licensee shall not lend to any person money or any other thing of value for the purpose of permitting that person to wager on any gambling game authorized by law. This does not prohibit credit card or debit card transactions or cashing of checks. Any check cashed [must] shall be deposited within twenty-four hours. The commission may require licensees to verify a sufficient account balance exists before cashing any check. Any licensee who violates the provisions of this subsection shall be subject to an administrative penalty of five thousand dollars for each violation. Such administrative penalties shall be assessed and collected by the commission.

10. Gambling excursions including the operation of gambling games on an excursion gambling boat which is not continuously docked shall be allowed only on the Mississippi River and the Missouri River. No license to conduct gambling games on an excursion gambling boat in a city or county shall be issued unless and until the qualified voters of the city or county approve such activities pursuant to this subsection. The question shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the city or county at a general, primary or special election upon the motion of the governing body of the city or county or upon the petition of fifteen percent of the qualified voters of the city or county determined on the basis of the number of votes cast for governor in the city or county at the last election held prior to the filing of the petition. The question shall be submitted in substantially the following form:

Shall the City (County) of ..... allow the licensing of excursion gambling boats or floating facilities as now or hereafter provided by Missouri gaming law in the city (county)?

* YES * NO

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the question, then the commission may license excursion gambling boats in that city or county and such boats may operate on the Mississippi River and the Missouri River. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the question, then the commission shall not license such excursion gambling boats in such city or county unless and until the question is again submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the city or county at a later election; except that, in no event shall a proposal pursuant to this subsection be submitted to the voters sooner than eighteen months from the date the last proposal was submitted pursuant to this subsection. Excursion gambling boats may only dock in a city or unincorporated area of a county which approves licensing of such excursion gambling boats pursuant to this subsection, but gambling operations may be conducted at any point on the Mississippi River or the Missouri River during an excursion. Those cities and counties which have approved by election pursuant to this subsection, except those cities or counties which have subsequently rejected by election, the licensing of any type of excursion gambling boats in the city or county prior to April 6, 1994, are exempt from any local election requirement of this section as such previous election shall have the same effect as if held after May 20, 1994.

11. If a docking fee is charged by a city or a county, a licensee operating an excursion gambling boat shall pay the docking fee prior to the start of the excursion season.

12. Any licensee shall not be delinquent in the payment of property taxes or other taxes or fees or in the payment of any other contractual obligation or debt due or owed to the state or a political subdivision of the state.

13. An excursion gambling boat licensed by the state shall meet all of the requirements of chapter 306, RSMo, and is subject to an inspection of its sanitary facilities to protect the environment and water quality by the commission or its designee before a license to operate an excursion gambling boat is issued by the commission. Licensed excursion gambling boats shall also be subject to such inspections during the period of the license as may be deemed necessary by the commission. The cost of such inspections shall be paid by the licensee.

14. A holder of any license shall be subject to imposition of penalties, suspension or revocation of such license, or other action for any act or failure to act by himself or herself or his or her agents or employees, that is injurious to the public health, safety, morals, good order and general welfare of the people of the state of Missouri, or that would discredit or tend to discredit the Missouri gaming industry or the state of Missouri unless the licensee proves by clear and convincing evidence that it is not guilty of such action. The commission shall take appropriate action against any licensee who violates the law or the rules and regulations of the commission. Without limiting other provisions of this subsection, the following acts or omissions may be grounds for such discipline:

(1) Failing to comply with or make provision for compliance with sections 313.800 to 313.850, the rules and regulations of the commission or any federal, state or local law or regulation;

(2) Failing to comply with any rule, order or ruling of the commission or its agents pertaining to gaming;

(7) Use of fraud, deception, misrepresentation or bribery in securing any permit or license issued pursuant to sections 313.800 to 313.850;

(8) Obtaining or attempting to obtain any fee, charge, or other compensation by fraud, deception, or misrepresentation;

(9) Incompetence, misconduct, gross negligence, fraud, misrepresentation or dishonesty in the performance of the functions or duties regulated by sections 313.800 to 313.850.

House Journal

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SIXTY-SIXTH DAY, Wednesday, May 1, 1996

Speaker Pro Tem Daniels in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

On this first day of May, O God of Life, let us enjoy the ever present signs of your creation. Let us take time in the midst of the hectic pace we live to see the green of the trees and to smell the aroma of newly-opened flowers. Your creation calls us to remember that there is something alive and well beyond the confines of these four walls.

In these closing days of this session, guide these representatives and make them aware of a mandate higher than that of the ballot box, a mandate to legislate wisely and well. May your strength help them face the problems that confront them, not only by giving them wisdom greater than their own, but by relieving their minds of all other anxieties.

God of Past, Present and Future, remind us all that, even as we look to the future, we can only take one step at a time, one day at a time. Show us where duty lies and give us a push to stay on the right path.

Reassure us with your presence in all that we do. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 28.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 28

WHEREAS, the United States has long supported a just peace in Northern Ireland, one that can only be achieved with a settlement that protects the civil rights of all parties; and

WHEREAS, a cornerstone of United States immigration policy is reuniting families, and preferences are given to immediate family members seeking admission into the United States; and

WHEREAS, the United States has maintained a proud heritage that has centered around the ideals of liberty and support for international human rights, and has expressly condemned governments for their failure to help families reunite; and

WHEREAS, separating a person from loved ones causes great anguish for all those involved; and

WHEREAS, Matt Morrison sought refuge in the United States after having served his sentence as prescribed by the British Courts, and subsequently found sanctuary in this country, established a fine family, and made this great land his home; and

WHEREAS, Matt Morrison has worked, paid taxes, obeyed laws, and lived peaceably in the St. Louis area for the past ten years; and

WHEREAS, the Immigration and Naturalization Service has pending deportation proceedings against Matt Morrison, who is not wanted by the British Courts for a crime, and who is not suspected of a crime in the United States of America or in the United Kingdom; and

WHEREAS, these proceedings have provoked great controversy and criticism within Ireland and Great Britain and have been criticized by human rights organizations worldwide; and

WHEREAS, Matt Morrison's wife, Francie, and their two children are citizens of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, the deportation of Matt Morrison would disrupt his family and separate him from his spouse and his American-born children in a manner that is repugnant to principles of United States Immigration policy and the oft-stated declarations of this nation; and

WHEREAS, many mentally-ill citizens in the St. Louis area would suffer directly if Matt's wife, Francie, who serves as Director of Places For People, is forced to leave this country; and

WHEREAS, Matt Morrison, his loving wife, Francie, and his two children, Matthew and Mary Kate, are united in their desire to keep the family intact, and the citizens of the City of St. Louis along with many friends and loved ones share this desire:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate of the Eighty-eighth General Assembly, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby join the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis in calling upon the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service to stay the deportation proceedings against Matt Morrison, who has served sentence for offenses stemming from the conflict in Northern Ireland, and to permit Mr. Morrison to remain in the United States with his family; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted HCR 11.

Senate Amendment No. 1

Amend House Bill No. 1098, Page 4, Section 32.057, Line 105 of said section by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"143.451. 1. Missouri taxable income of a corporation shall include all income derived from sources within this state.

2. A corporation described in subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 shall include in its Missouri taxable income all income from sources within this state, including that from the transaction of business in this state and that from the transaction of business partly done in this state and partly done in another state or states. However:

(1) Where income results from a transaction partially in this state and partially in another state or states, and income and deductions of the portion in the state cannot be segregated, then such portions of income and deductions shall be allocated in this state and other state or states as will distribute to this state a portion based upon the portion of the transaction in this state and the portion in such other state or states.

(2) The taxpayer may elect to compute the portion of income from all sources in this state in the following manner:

(a) The income from all sources shall be determined as provided, excluding therefrom the figures for the operation of any bridge connecting this state with another state.

(b) The amount of sales which are transactions wholly in this state shall be added to one-half of the amount of sales which are transactions partly within this state and partly without this state, and the amount thus obtained shall be divided by the total sales or in cases where sales do not express the volume of business, the amount of business transacted wholly in this state shall be added to one-half of the amount of business transacted partly in this state and partly outside this state and the amount thus obtained shall be divided by the total amount of business transacted, and the net income shall be multiplied by the fraction thus obtained, to determine the proportion of income to be used to arrive at the amount of Missouri taxable income. The investment or reinvestment of its own funds, or sale of any such investment or reinvestment, shall not be considered as sales or other business transacted for the determination of said fraction.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a transaction involving the sale of tangible property is:

(a) "Wholly in this state" if both the seller's shipping point and the purchaser's destination point are in this state;

(b) "Partly within this state and partly without this state" if the seller's shipping point is in this state and the purchaser's destination point is outside this state, or the seller's shipping point is outside this state and the purchaser's destination point is in this state;

(c) Not "wholly in this state" or not "partly within this state and partly without this state" only if both the seller's shipping point and the purchaser's destination point are outside this state;

(d) [This subdivision shall not apply and subdivision (2) of subsection 2 of this section shall apply to transactions in which tangible property was moved from within this state to another state prior to shipment to the purchaser or in which both the seller's shipping point and the purchaser's destination point of tangible property are determined to be in states which do not have jurisdiction to impose a franchise or an income tax on the taxpayer regardless of whether the states impose such a tax;

(e)] For purposes of this subdivision the purchaser's destination point shall be determined without regard to the FOB point or other conditions of the sale, and the seller's shipping point is determined without regard to the location of the seller's principle office or place of business.

3. Any corporation described in subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 organized in this state or granted a permit to operate in this state for the transportation or care of passengers shall report its gross earnings within the state on intrastate business and shall also report its gross earnings on all interstate business done in this state which report shall be subject to inquiry for the purpose of determining the amount of income to be included in Missouri taxable income. The previous sentence shall not apply to a railroad.

4. A corporation described in subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 shall include in its Missouri taxable income all income arising from all sources in this state and all income from each transportation service wholly within this state, from each service where the only lines of such corporation used are those in this state, and such proportion of revenue from each service where the facilities of such corporation in this state and in another state or states are used, as the mileage used over the lines of such corporation in the state shall bear to the total mileage used over the lines of such corporation. The taxpayer may elect to compute the portion of income from all sources within this state in the following manner:

(1) The income from all sources shall be determined as provided;

(2) The amount of investment of such corporation on December thirty-first of each year in this state in fixed transportation facilities, real estate and improvements, plus the value on December thirty-first of each year of any fixed transportation facilities, real estate and improvements in this state leased from any other railroad shall be divided by the sum of the total amount of investment of such corporation on December thirty-first of each year in fixed transportation facilities, real estate and improvements, plus the value on December thirty-first of each year, of any fixed transportation facilities, real estate and improvements leased from any other railroad. Where any fixed transportation facilities, real estate or improvements are leased by more than one railroad, such portion of the value shall be used by each railroad as the rental paid by each shall bear to the rental paid by all lessees. The income shall be multiplied by the fraction thus obtained to determine the proportion to be used to arrive at the amount of Missouri taxable income.

5. A corporation described in subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 shall include in its Missouri taxable income one-half of the net income from the operation of a bridge between this and another state. If any such bridge is owned or operated by a railroad corporation or corporations, or by a corporation owning a railroad corporation using such bridge, then the figures for operation of such bridge may be included in the return of such railroad or railroads; or if such bridge is owned or operated by any other corporation which may now or hereafter be required to file an income tax return, one-half of the income or loss to such corporation from such bridge may be included in such return by adding or subtracting same to or from another net income or loss shown by the return.

6. A corporation described in subdivision (4) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 shall include in its Missouri taxable income all income arising from all sources within this state. Income shall include revenue from each telephonic or telegraphic service rendered wholly within this state; from each service rendered for which the only facilities of such corporation used are those in this state; and from each service rendered over the facilities of such corporation in this state and in other state or states, such proportion of such revenue as the mileage involved in this state shall bear to the total mileage involved over the lines of said company in all states. The taxpayer may elect to compute the portion of income from all sources within this state in the following manner:

(1) The income from all sources shall be determined as provided;

(2) The amount of investment of such corporation on December thirty-first of each year in this state in telephonic or telegraphic facilities, real estate and improvements thereon, shall be divided by the amount of the total investment of such corporation on December thirty-first of each year in telephonic or telegraphic facilities, real estate and improvements. The income of the taxpayer shall be multiplied by fraction thus obtained to determine the proportion to be used to arrive at the amount of Missouri taxable income.

7. From the income determined in subsections 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of this section to be from all sources within this state shall be deducted such of the deductions for expenses in determining Missouri taxable income as were incurred in this state to produce such income and all losses actually sustained in this state in the business of the corporation.

8. If a corporation derives only part of its income from sources within Missouri, its Missouri taxable income shall only reflect the effect of the following listed deductions to the extent applicable to Missouri. The deductions are: (a) its deduction for federal income taxes pursuant to section 143.171, and (b) the effect on Missouri taxable income of the deduction for net operating loss allowed by Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code. The extent applicable to Missouri shall be determined by multiplying the amount that would otherwise affect Missouri taxable income by the ratio for the year of the Missouri taxable income of the corporation for the year divided by the Missouri taxable income for the year as though the corporation had derived all of its income from sources within Missouri. For the purpose of the preceding sentence, Missouri taxable income shall not reflect the listed deductions.

143.631. 1. Within sixty days (one hundred fifty days if the taxpayer is outside the United States) after the mailing of a notice of deficiency, the taxpayer may file with the director of revenue a written protest against the proposed assessment in which he shall set forth the grounds on which the protest is based. If a protest is filed, the director of revenue shall reconsider the proposed deficiency.

2. A taxpayer's protest may include a request for an informal hearing with the director. If such a request is made, an informal hearing shall be heard. The informal hearing shall be a forum for discussion of the merits of the proposed assessment. The parties shall also consider the possibility of negotiating a settlement of the contested tax liability.

[2.] 3. If a taxpayer has filed a timely protest under subsection 1 of this section, the taxpayer may, at any time before an assessment has become final, make a deposit with the director of revenue of any part or all of the tax, interest, additions to tax or penalties proposed in the notice of deficiency. The deposit shall be accompanied by a written statement setting forth:

(1) The identification of the tax and the tax period to which the deposit applies;

(2) The amount of tax, interest, additions to tax or penalties to which the deposit is to be applied by the director; and

(3) Such other identifying information as the director of revenue may by regulation provide.

[3.] 4. Upon receipt of a timely deposit under subsection 2 of this section, the director of revenue shall issue a receipt to the taxpayer acknowledging receipt of the deposit, and confirming the amount of tax, interest, additions to tax and penalty to which the deposit has been applied. All such deposits shall be deposited in the general revenue fund of the state as payments of tax, interest, additions to tax and penalty, as the case may be. The director of revenue shall refuse the tender of any deposit which does not satisfy the requirements of this section, and shall return such payment to the taxpayer.

[4.] 5. A taxpayer which had made a deposit under this section which has been accepted by the director of revenue may at any time before an assessment has become final or an action has been filed in the circuit court of Cole County under subsection 5 of section 143.841, request in writing that the director of revenue return the deposit to the taxpayer. The director of revenue shall return such deposit without interest if a written request is made. The taxpayer's request for return of a deposit shall not be treated under this chapter as a claim for refund for purposes of section 143.821.

[5.] 6. The payment under protest provision provided by this section shall only apply to taxes imposed by this chapter and shall not be incorporated by reference to apply to taxes imposed by other chapters.

143.781. 1. The director of revenue within the applicable period of limitations may credit an overpayment of income tax and interest on such overpayment against any liability in respect of any tax imposed by the tax laws of this state on the person who made the overpayment, and the balance shall be credited or refunded if it exceeds one dollar. Overpayments shall be determined by taking into account any deposit made by a taxpayer under section 143.631, except a deposit which has been returned to a taxpayer pursuant to a written request. Unless directed otherwise by a taxpayer, the director of revenue may credit all or part of the overpayment of a taxpayer on a joint or combined return against the amount of tax due from his spouse.

2. If the amount allowable as a credit for tax withheld from the taxpayer exceeds his tax to which the credit relates, the excess shall be considered an overpayment.

3. If there has been an overpayment of tax required to be deducted and withheld under section 143.191, a credit or refund shall be made to the employer only to the extent that the amount of the overpayment was not deducted and withheld by the employer.

4. The director of revenue may prescribe regulations providing for the crediting against the estimated income tax for any taxable year of the amount determined to be an overpayment of the income tax for a preceding taxable year.

5. If any amount of income tax is assessed or collected after the expiration of the period of limitations properly applicable thereto, such amount shall be considered an overpayment.

6. The provisions of sections 143.781 to 143.841 to the contrary notwithstanding, a credit or refund, or any portion thereof, shall be transferred to the state agency to set off a debt due and owing to the state agency as provided in sections 143.782 to 143.788. When any action is taken pursuant to sections 143.782 to 143.788, the provisions of sections 143.782 to 143.788 shall govern all aspects of any rights and entitlement to credits or refunds covered by such action. If there is a final determination that the taxpayer is entitled to receive all or part of the setoff pursuant to the provisions of sections 143.782 to 143.788, the amount to which the taxpayer is entitled shall bear interest as provided in section 143.811, beginning sixty days after such setoff.

143.811. 1. Under regulations prescribed by the director of revenue, interest shall be allowed and paid at the rate determined by section 32.065, RSMo, on any overpayment in respect of the tax imposed by sections 143.011 to 143.996[; except that, where the overpayment resulted from the filing of an amendment of the tax by the taxpayer after the last day prescribed for the filing of the return, interest shall be allowed and paid at the rate of six percent per annum]. With respect to the part of an overpayment attributable to a deposit made pursuant to subsection 2 of section 143.631, interest shall be paid thereon at the rate in section 32.065, RSMo, from the date of the deposit to the date of refund. No interest shall be allowed or paid if the amount thereof is less than one dollar.

2. For purposes of this section:

(1) Any return filed before the last day prescribed for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day determined without regard to any extension of time granted the taxpayer;

(2) Any tax paid by the taxpayer before the last day prescribed for its payment, any income tax withheld from the taxpayer during any calendar year, and any amount paid by the taxpayer as estimated income tax for a taxable year shall be deemed to have been paid by him on the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of his taxable year to which such amount constitutes a credit or payment.

3. For purposes of this section with respect to any withholding tax:

(1) If a return for any period ending with or within a calendar year is filed before April fifteenth of the succeeding calendar year, such return shall be considered filed April fifteenth of such succeeding calendar year; and

(2) If a tax with respect to remuneration paid during any period ending with or within a calendar year is paid before April fifteenth of the succeeding calendar year, such tax shall be considered paid on April fifteenth of such succeeding calendar year.

4. If any overpayment of tax imposed by sections 143.011 to 143.996 is refunded within four months after the last date prescribed (or permitted by extension of time) for filing the return of such tax or within four months after the return was filed, whichever is later, no interest shall be allowed under this section on overpayment.

5. Any overpayment resulting from a carryback, including a net operating loss and a corporate capital loss, shall be deemed not to have been made prior to the close of the taxable year in which the loss arises.

144.020. 1. A tax is hereby levied and imposed upon all sellers for the privilege of engaging in the business of selling tangible personal property or rendering taxable service at retail in this state. The rate of tax shall be as follows:

144.190. 1. If a tax has been incorrectly computed by reason of a clerical error or mistake on the part of the director of revenue, such fact shall be set forth in the records of the director of revenue, and the amount of the overpayment shall be credited on any taxes then due from the person legally obligated to remit the tax under sections 144.010 to 144.525, and the balance shall be refunded to the person legally obligated to remit the tax, his administrators or executors, as provided for in section 144.200.

2. Senate Amendment No. 2

"135.010. As used in sections 135.010 to 135.030 the following words and terms mean:

(1) "Claimant", a person or persons claiming a credit under sections 135.010 to 135.030. If the persons are eligible to file a joint federal income tax return and reside at the same address at any time during the taxable year, then the credit may only be allowed if claimed on a combined Missouri income tax return or a combined claim return reporting their combined incomes and property taxes. A claimant shall not be allowed a property tax credit unless the claimant or spouse has attained the age of sixty-five on or before the last day of the calendar year and the claimant or spouse was a resident of Missouri for the entire year, or the claimant or spouse is a veteran of any branch of the armed forces of the United States or this state who became one hundred percent disabled as a result of such service, or the claimant or spouse is disabled as defined in [section 22(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended] subdivision 2 of this section, and such claimant or spouse provides proof of such disability in such form and manner, and at such times, as the director of revenue may require. The residency requirement shall be deemed to have been fulfilled for the purpose of determining the eligibility of a surviving spouse for a property tax credit if a person of the age of sixty-five years or older who would have otherwise met the requirements for a property tax credit dies before the last day of the calendar year. The residency requirement shall also be deemed to have been fulfilled for the purpose of determining the eligibility of a claimant who would have otherwise met the requirements for a property tax credit but who dies before the last day of the calendar year;

(2) "Disabled", the inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve months. A claimant shall not be required to be gainfully employed prior to such disability to qualify for a property tax credit;

[(2)] (3) "Gross rent", amount paid by a claimant to a landlord for the rental, at arm's length, of a homestead during the calendar year, exclusive of charges for health and personal care services and food furnished as part of the rental agreement, whether or not expressly set out in the rental agreement. If the director of revenue determines that the landlord and tenant have not dealt at arm's length, and that the gross rent is excessive, then he shall determine the gross rent based upon a reasonable amount of rent. Gross rent shall be deemed to be paid only if actually paid prior to the date a return is filed. The director of revenue may prescribe regulations requiring a return of information by a landlord receiving rent, certifying for a calendar year the amount of gross rent received from a tenant claiming a property tax credit and shall, by regulation, provide a method for certification by the claimant of the amount of gross rent paid for any calendar year for which a claim is made. The regulations authorized by this subdivision may require a landlord or a tenant or both to provide data relating to health and personal care services and to food. Neither a landlord nor a tenant may be required to provide data relating to utilities, furniture, home furnishings or appliances;

[(3)] (4) "Homestead", the dwelling in Missouri owned or rented by the claimant and not to exceed five acres of land surrounding it as is reasonably necessary for use of the dwelling as a home. It may consist of part of a multidwelling or multipurpose building and part of the land upon which it is built. "Owned" includes a vendee in possession under a land contract and one or more tenants by the entireties, joint tenants, or tenants in common and includes a claimant actually in possession if he was the immediate former owner of record, if a lineal descendant is presently the owner of record, and if the claimant actually pays all taxes upon the property. It may include a mobile home;

[(4)] (5) "Income", Missouri adjusted gross income as defined in section 143.121, RSMo, less two thousand dollars as an exemption for the claimant's spouse residing at the same address, and increased, where necessary, to reflect the following:

(a) Social security, railroad retirement, and veterans payments and benefits unless the claimant is a one hundred percent service-connected, disabled veteran or a spouse of a one hundred percent service-connected, disabled veteran. The one hundred percent service-connected disabled veteran shall not be required to list veterans payments and benefits;

(b) The total amount of all other public and private pensions and annuities;

(c) Public relief, public assistance, and unemployment benefits received in cash, other than benefits received under this chapter;

(d) No deduction being allowed for losses not incurred in a trade or business;

(e) Interest on the obligations of the United States, any state, or any of their subdivisions and instrumentalities;

[(5)] (6) "Property taxes accrued", property taxes paid, exclusive of special assessments, penalties, interest, and charges for service levied on a claimant's homestead in any calendar year. Property taxes shall qualify for the credit only if actually paid prior to the date a return is filed. The director of revenue shall require a tax receipt or other proof of property tax payment. If a homestead is owned only partially by claimant, then "property taxes accrued" is that part of property taxes levied on the homestead which was actually paid by the claimant. For purposes of this subdivision, property taxes are "levied" when the tax roll is delivered to the director of revenue for collection. If a claimant owns a homestead part of the preceding calendar year and rents it or a different homestead for part of the same year, "property taxes accrued" means only taxes levied on the homestead both owned and occupied by the claimant, multiplied by the percentage of twelve months that such property was owned and occupied as the homestead of the claimant during the year. When a claimant owns and occupies two or more different homesteads in the same calendar year, property taxes accrued shall be the sum of taxes allocable to those several properties occupied by the claimant as a homestead for the year. If a homestead is an integral part of a larger unit such as a farm, or multipurpose or multidwelling building, property taxes accrued shall be that percentage of the total property taxes accrued as the value of the homestead is of the total value. For purposes of this subdivision "unit" refers to the parcel of property covered by a single tax statement of which the homestead is a part;

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

House Journal

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SIXTY-SEVENTH DAY, Thursday, May 2, 1996

Representative Witt in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Michael Coleman, Herman United Methodist Church, Herman, Missouri.

Almighty God, who governs the world in righteousness, and whose judgements are true and righteous altogether, grant that those who rule over our beautiful state and who legislate for us, its citizens, may be of one mind to establish justice and promote the welfare of all our people.

As you anointed leaders and called forth prophets of old, bring to us again Your "Spirit" which makes holy and call forth from this August assembly today new prophets and new leaders who will deliver Your message of truth, and not just their own.

Lead us to recognize those true representatives and authentic leaders as men and women walk with You, who love Your people and can walk with them, who feel their pain and share their joys, who dream their dreams and strive to accompany them to their common goal.

In Your fire, with Your Spirit, embolden and commission us to empower our elected state officials to serve in ways that bring real glory to Your name.

Endow each of these, our State Representatives, with a right understanding, pure purposes, and sound speech. Enable them to rise above all self-seeking and party zeal to the nobler concerns of public good and human brotherhood.

Cleanse our public life of every evil, subdue in our state all that is harmful and make us a disciplined and devoted people, that we may do Your will on earth as it is done in heaven.

We ask these things, O God, in the name of Jesus, Your Son, the Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Heather Maruska, Alexandra O'Toole, Timothy O'Toole, Katherine O'Toole, Tammy Redding, David Williams, Brandi Anstine, Dusty Wharton, Melissa Stegner, Julie Stegner and Samantha Walden.

Further amend said bill, page 9, section 475.050, line 30, by inserting immediately after said line, the following:

"476.405. 1. Within the limits of any appropriation made for this purpose, the salary fixed by sections 211.381, 211.393, 477.130, 478.013, 478.018, 483.083, 483.163, and 485.060, RSMo, may be adjusted in any one year by a salary adjustment. The salary adjustment shall not exceed the salary adjustment for the executive department contained in the pay plan applicable to other state employees at a similar salary level for that fiscal year. If no salary adjustment or a lower salary adjustment is granted pursuant to this section than is granted the executive department in any year, then the salary adjustment granted pursuant to this section in the next fiscal year may exceed the salary adjustment of the executive department by the amount of the difference in the prior year.

2. The amount of a salary adjustment to be approved pursuant to this section shall be stated in a separate line item of the appropriation bill. A salary adjustment approved pursuant to this section shall be added to the statutory salary and the sum of these amounts shall be the statutory salary of the office for all purposes. This statutory salary shall be included in the appropriation bill in the same manner as any other personal service appropriation involving a statutory salary.

3. The schedule shall be open for public inspection and shall be annually included in the Missouri Register and an appendix to the Revised Statutes of Missouri. For each office for which a salary adjustment is approved pursuant to this section, the revisor of statutes shall place a revisor's note following each section providing compensation for the office referencing the reader to the compensation index.

483.163. 1. Each circuit clerk, except the circuit clerk in any city not within a county, shall cooperate with the prosecuting attorney and division of child support enforcement in the investigation and documentation of possible criminal nonsupport under section 568.040, RSMo, which involves any case or cases for which the clerk is trustee.

Such compensation shall be payable in equal installments in the same manner and at the same time as other compensation is paid to the circuit clerk.

House Journal

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SIXTY-EIGHTH DAY, Monday, May 6, 1996

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

Lord God, we pray today for the members of this body. Help them in their offices, in committees, and above all, as they meet here in session each day. May they never forget that what is said and done here is not done in isolation, but is always under the scrutiny of the citizens of this state and in your sight. Let them feel the weight of their responsibility so that the trust of the populace is not misplaced. Let them speak and act so that those who hear and see them might be reassured, rather than disillusioned. We live in times which are fraught with distrust, disillusionment, and despair. Do not let us be a part of perpetuating those feelings, but let us be a part of allaying them.

Most of all, God, make yourself real to these men and women so that they know your presence and guidance in all that they do. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Douglas Williams.

The Journal of the sixty-seventh day was approved as corrected.

An action may be brought by the department, or by the attorney general on his own volition or at the request of the department or any other appropriate state agency, to temporarily or permanently enjoin or restrain any violation of sections 198.003 to 198.096, to enjoin the acceptance of new residents until substantial compliance with sections 198.003 to 198.096 is achieved, or to enjoin any specific action or practice of the facility. Any action brought under the provisions of this section shall be placed at the head of the docket by the court, and the court shall hold a hearing on any action brought under the provisions of this section no less than fifteen days after the filing of the action.

2. [At the department's request, the attorney general] The department, or at the department's request, the attorney general, may bring an action in circuit court to recover a civil penalty against the licensed operator of the facility as provided by this [subsection] section. Such action shall be brought in the circuit court for the county in which the facility is located [and], or in the circuit court of Cole County. The moving party shall specify in its petition a recommended amount of penalty to be assessed. The circuit court shall determine the amount of penalty to be assessed within the limits set out in this section. Appeals may be taken from the judgment of the circuit court as in other civil cases.

[(1)] 3. The operator of any facility which has been cited with a violation of sections 198.003 to 198.096 or the regulations established pursuant thereto, or of subsection (b), (c), or (d) of section 1396r of Title 42 of the United States Code or the regulations established pursuant thereto, is liable to the state for civil penalties of up to ten thousand dollars for each day that the violations existed or continues to exist. As used in this subsection, the term "violation" shall mean a breach of a specific state or federal standard or statute which remains uncorrected and not in accord with the accepted plan of correction at the time of the reinspection conducted pursuant to subsection 3 of section 198.026 or the regulations established pursuant to Title 42 of the United States Code. Violations shall be presumed to continue to exist from the time they are found until the time the division of aging finds them to have been corrected. The amount of the penalty shall be determined as follows:

[(b)] (2) For each violation of a class II standard, not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars;

[(c)] (3) For each violation of a class III standard, not less than fifteen dollars nor more than one hundred fifty dollars;

[(d)] (4) For each violation of a federal standard which does not also constitute a violation of a state law or regulation, not less than two hundred fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars;

[(e)] (5) For each specific class I violation by the same operator which has been cited within the past twenty-four months and for each specific class II or III violation by the same operator which has been cited within the past twelve months, double the amount last imposed. [Penalties collected pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited in the state general revenue fund.

As used in this subdivision the term "violation" shall mean a breach of a specific state or federal standard or statute which remains uncorrected and not in accord with the accepted plan of correction at the time of the reinspection conducted pursuant to subsection 3 of section 198.026 or the regulations established pursuant to Title 42 of the United States Code.] A judgment rendered against the operator of a facility pursuant to this subsection shall bear interest as provided in subsection 1 of section 408.040, RSMo.

[(2)] 4. Any individual who willfully and knowingly certifies under subsection (b)(3)(B)(i) of section 1396r of Title 42 of the United States Code a material and false statement in a resident assessment is subject to a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars with respect to each assessment. Any individual who willfully and knowingly causes another individual to certify under subsection (b)(3)(B)(i) of section 1396r of Title 42 of the United States Code a material and false statement in a resident assessment is subject to a civil penalty of not more than five thousand dollars with respect to each assessment.

[3.] 5. The imposition of any remedy provided for in sections 198.003 to 198.186 shall not bar the imposition of any other remedy.

6. Penalties collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the division of aging elderly home delivered means trust fund as established in section 660.078, RSMo.

[4.] 7. [In any action to recover a civil penalty under this section, no civil penalty shall be awarded for any period that any facility is attempting in good faith to remedy any noncompliance or for any period where any facility is in good faith litigating any substantial question of law or fact. The provisions of supreme court rule 55.03 of the rules of civil procedure as presently stated or as hereafter amended are expressly applicable to any action under this section to recover a civil penalty.] To recover any civil penalty, the moving party shall prove by clear[, cogent] and convincing evidence that the violation occurred.

8. The licensed operator of a facility against whom an action to recover civil penalty is brought pursuant to this section may confess judgment as provided in section 511.070, RSMo, at any time prior to hearing. If said licensed operator agrees to confess judgment, the amount of the civil penalty recommended by the moving party in its petition shall be reduced by twenty- five percent and the confessed judgment shall be entered by the circuit court at the reduced amount.

9. The amount of any civil penalty assessed by the circuit court pursuant to this section shall be reduced by the amount of any civil monetary penalty which the licensed operator of the facility may establish it has paid pursuant to the laws of the United States for the breach of the same federal standards for which the state action is brought.

10. In addition to the civil penalties specified in subdivision (1) of subsection 3 of this section, any facility which is found pursuant to subsection 1 and 2 of this section with a violation of a class I standard when such violation results in actual physical or sexual injury to any resident of that facility shall be liable to the state for a civil penalty of one hundred dollars multiplied by the number of beds licensed to the facility, up to a maximum of ten thousand dollars. The liability of the facility for civil penalties under this section shall be incurred immediately upon the citation of the violation and shall not be affected by any subsequent correction of the

SIXTH-NINTH DAY, Tuesday, May 7, 1996

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

The rains continue to fall, O God of Creation, and once again we see nature taking a destructive turn. Help us to hold fast to the knowledge that you are the God of all that is and help those whose lives are being disrupted by flood or tornados. And yet even in the midst of the destruction, we see the creative force that the rain also brings as it refreshes a ground hardened by winter's cold dryness.

Lord, those inside these walls often are unaware of what is happening outside - sometimes unaware of the weather, sometimes unaware of the people. Keep these representatives in tune with those they represent and help them give a listening and hearing ear to the voices that elected them. Give them wisdom; give them courage; give them hope to see accomplished what will most benefit the people of Missouri.

And now, O God, we ask your presence in this room, in the hearts and minds and souls of those present, that we might all know of your loving care for us. Guide the decisions made today - may they be directed by your hand. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Janelle Hilbur, Johnny Lynch, Cadie Kroenke, Melana Batzold, Kirk Barron, Jerry Barnes, Jaime Sandburn, Nikki Thompson, Michael Park, Jennifer Hendrick, Scott David, Laura Arzola and Alan Buckrucker.

Representative Carter moved that the House refuse to adopt CCR SCS HCS HB 1010, as amended, and request the Senate to recede from its position or, failing to do so, grant the House a further conference.

Representative Reynolds made a substitute motion that the House refuse to adopt Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1010 and request the Senate to grant further conference on Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1010 and that the House conferees be instructed to adopt the following corrective language in lieu of Senate Substitute Amendment No. 1 for Senate Amendment No. 2 to Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1010:

From General Revenue.....$664,000

From General Revenue.....$900,000"

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House substitute motion on Conference Committee Report on Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1010, by adding instructions to the conferees that to fund said amendment the conferees shall delete an equal amount stated in said amendment from other parts of said bill.

The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken.

Representative Reynolds raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 1 is not germane to the House substitute motion.

Representative Reynolds withdrew his point of order.

House Journal

SEVENTIETH DAY, Wednesday, May 8, 1996

The Speaker Pro Tem Daniels in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

In this world, O Lord, where the pennies and nickels and dimes amount to millions, help make us aware of the impact of our decisions. Those pennies and nickels and dimes add up to improved health care for women and children; those pennies and nickels and dimes add up to enhanced and improved education for the children and young adults of Missouri; those pennies, nickels and dimes add up to making a difference in people's lives. Let us never forget that at the end of the dollar signs are the people of Missouri, including our own friends and family.

Thank you, God, for giving those here determination and courage to do work that is often unappreciated and unrecognized. Thank you for strengthening them for tasks that take long hours and grueling paper work. In the midst of words of disagreement and dissension, let us occasionally stop and give words of appreciation and thanks. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

"Our Inheritance"

May 8, 1996

There is a passage in the Book of Psalms that says, "We spend our years as a tale that is told."

The tale that is told of the Missouri House of Representatives is one that has special meaning to those of us who work here.

We are the temporary keepers of the public service torch that has been passed down from generation to generation.

All of us are here because we believe we have something to contribute to keep that flame alive.

We are fortunate to work in one of the most impressive Capitols in these United States.

Made of Missouri stone and built with Missouri hands, it is a proud testament to the people of this great state.

It is easy for us who work here day after day to take the building for granted, but it doesn't last for long.

All we have to do is step out into the third floor rotunda and see Missouri school children gazing up at the Whispering Gallery in wonder, or watch families hand in hand pointing to the detailed murals.

And in that rotunda, there are two inscriptions chiseled in stone over the back entrances to the House and Senate chambers.

Over the House chamber it says, "Progress is the Law of Life."

On the Senate side, it is written, "Not to be Served but to Serve."

If you go down one more floor near the governor's office, you will find a lunette that is entitled, "Assembling of the First Legislature - St. Charles, Missouri, 1821."

For us that serve in the Missouri General Assembly, this is where the bloodline begins.

The men who met on that historic day answered Missouri's first call to public service.

It was a job that had no job description, very few requirements and not much to offer in terms of pay.

In that regard, some would argue, little has changed over the years.

The first Missouri General Assembly on that day began a tradition of serving the people of the state of Missouri.

And now, we are ending the 88th Missouri General Assembly, and the tradition of working to help the people of the state continues.

Much like the current House membership, those first lawmakers came to represent the cities, the farms, the businesses, the rich and the poor.

Thousands have answered the public service call between 1821 and 1996 to serve in the legislative body.

Some were here only briefly, deciding to move on to new challenges.

Some were given the opportunity by their constituents to have a career of public service in the legislative branch of government.

And others have died during their legislative term.

Today, we pause to salute all the men and women who have served in this House and have departed this earthly world.

We owe a debt of gratitude to them for forging a path for us to follow and for passing the torch so that we can see our way down this road of public service.

Their legacy is our inheritance.

Whether we agree or not with all the decisions that have been made between the first and 88th Missouri General Assemblies, we know they performed to the best of their abilities.

In order to come to the Capitol and consider the needs and desires of the people they represent, these House members sacrificed time with their families and gave up a normal life in their communities.

As a result we have, as was intended, a citizen legislature.

John F. Kennedy said, "In a democracy, every citizen, regardless of his interest in politics, `holds office'; every one of us is in a position of responsibility; and, in the final analysis, the kind of government we get depends upon how we fulfill those responsibilities."

All of us would have to agree that those responsibilities in the Missouri House of Representatives have been filled admirably.

We have inherited a strong base on which to build for the future: education, roads, social services and judicial systems.

As we try to build on our inheritance and make Missouri a stronger and a better place for families to live, let us remember the words of another great president, Abraham Lincoln.

He said: "Let us have faith that right makes might, and in that faith let us to the end dare to do our duty as we understand it."

Let us understand - and never forget - the debt we owe to the men and women who have preceded us in this chamber.

We are wiser from their lessons, stronger from their decisions and richer from their experiences.

It is an inheritance we shall always treasure and a tale that we should be proud to tell.

Thank you.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 28

WHEREAS, the United States has long supported a just peace in Northern Ireland, one that can only be achieved with a settlement that protects the civil rights of all parties; and

WHEREAS, a cornerstone of United States immigration policy is reuniting families, and preferences are given to immediate family members seeking admission into the United States; and

WHEREAS, the United States has maintained a proud heritage that has centered around the ideals of liberty and support for international human rights, and has expressly condemned governments for their failure to help families reunite; and

WHEREAS, separating a person from loved ones causes great anguish for all those involved; and

WHEREAS, Matt Morrison sought refuge in the United States after having served his sentence as prescribed by the British Courts, and subsequently found sanctuary in this country, established a fine family, and made this great land his home; and

WHEREAS, Matt Morrison has worked, paid taxes, obeyed laws, and lived peaceably in the St. Louis area for the past ten years; and

WHEREAS, the Immigration and Naturalization Service has pending deportation proceedings against Matt Morrison, who is not wanted by the British Courts for a crime, and who is not suspected of a crime in the United States of America or in the United Kingdom; and

WHEREAS, these proceedings have provoked great controversy and criticism within Ireland and Great Britain and have been criticized by human rights organizations worldwide; and

WHEREAS, Matt Morrison's wife, Francie, and their two children are citizens of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, the deportation of Matt Morrison would disrupt his family and separate him from his spouse and his American-born children in a manner that is repugnant to principles of United States Immigration policy and the oft-stated declarations of this nation; and

WHEREAS, many mentally-ill citizens in the St. Louis area would suffer directly if Matt's wife, Francie, who serves as Director of Places For People, is forced to leave this country; and

WHEREAS, Matt Morrison, his loving wife, Francie, and his two children, Matthew and Mary Kate, are united in their desire to keep the family intact, and the citizens of the City of St. Louis along with many friends and loved ones share this desire:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate of the Eighty-eighth General Assembly, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby join the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis in calling upon the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service to stay the deportation proceedings against Matt Morrison, who has served sentence for offenses stemming from the conflict in Northern Ireland, and to permit Mr. Morrison to remain in the United States with his family; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service.

House Journal

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SEVENTY-FIRST DAY, Thursday, May 9, 1996

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

In these waning days of this session, O God, when work hours grow longer, tempers grow shorter, and fatigue sets in, help those representatives maintain a positive attitude toward the work to be done. Give them insight to see the good that their efforts will bring about.

Help them, Lord, to say along with Samuel: "Speak, O Lord, your servant is listening." Speak to them a word of encouragement when they are discouraged and depressed. Speak a word of warning when they stray from what is right. Speak a word of comfort when life hurts. Speak a word of guidance when they don't know which way to go or what to choose. Speak to them, Lord. Help them to distinguish between the importance and the urgent, and let them not allow the things which do not matter to matter too much.

Be present to them this day in all that they do and say. Amen.

(c) Wages in lieu of notice, terminal leave pay, severance pay, separation pay or dismissal payments, regardless of whether the remuneration is voluntary or required by policy or contract. Lump sum payments and periodic payments shall be prorated by weeks on the basis of the most recent weekly wage of the individual for a standard work week.

(2) If the remuneration referred to in this subsection is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due, he shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration, and, if such benefit is not a multiple of one dollar, such amount shall be lowered to the next multiple of one dollar.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection, if a claimant has contributed in any way to the Social Security Act or the Railroad Retirement Act of 1974, or the corresponding provisions of prior law, no part of the payments received under such federal law shall be deductible from the amount of benefits received under this chapter.

5. A claimant shall be ineligible for waiting week credit or benefits for any week for which or a part of which he has received or is seeking unemployment benefits under an unemployment insurance law of another state or the United States; provided, that if it be finally determined that he is not entitled to such unemployment benefits, such ineligibility shall not apply.

6. (1) A claimant shall be ineligible for waiting week credit or benefits for any week for which the deputy finds that his total or partial unemployment is due to a stoppage of work which exists because of a labor dispute in the factory, establishment or other premises in which he is or was last employed. In the event he secures other employment from which he is separated during the existence of the labor dispute, he must have obtained bona fide employment as a permanent employee for at least the major part of each of two weeks in such subsequent employment to terminate his ineligibility. If, in any case, separate branches of work which are commonly conducted as separate businesses at separate premises are conducted in separate departments of the same premises, each such department shall for the purposes of this subsection be deemed to be a separate factory, establishment or other premises. This subsection shall not apply if it is shown to the satisfaction of the deputy that:

(a) He is not participating in or financing or directly interested in the labor dispute which caused the stoppage of work; and

(b) He does not belong to a grade or class of workers of which, immediately preceding the commencement of the stoppage, there were members employed at the premises at which the stoppage occurs, any of whom are participating in or financing or directly interested in the dispute.

(2) "Stoppage of work" as used in this subsection means a substantial diminution of the activities, production or services at the establishment, plant, factory or premises of the employing unit.

7. On or after January 1, 1978, benefits shall not be paid to any individual on the basis of any services, substantially all of which consist of participating in sports or athletic events or training or preparing to so participate, for any week which commences during the period between two successive sport seasons (or similar periods) if such individual performed such services in the first of such seasons (or similar periods) and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the later of such seasons (or similar periods).

8. Benefits shall not be payable on the basis of services performed by an alien, unless such alien is an individual who was lawfully admitted for permanent residence at the time such services were performed, was lawfully present for purposes of performing such services, or was permanently residing in the United States under color of law at the time such services were performed (including an alien who was lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of the provisions of section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act).

(1) Any data or information required of individuals applying for benefits to determine whether benefits are not payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all applicants for benefits.

(2) In the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits to such individual are not payable because of his alien status shall be made except upon a preponderance of the evidence.".

3. The interest or discount shall be a maximum of fifteen dollars per one hundred dollars per year, which shall be computed as a fifteen percent add-on interest rate, plus an additional service charge of ten dollars per premium finance agreement which need not be refunded on cancellation or prepayment; except that, if the insurance premiums being financed are for other than personal, family or household purposes, the parties to the premium finance agreement may agree to any rate of interest which shall be stated in the premium finance agreement. 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of any premium finance agreement, any insured may prepay the obligation in full at any time and shall receive a refund credit [, which shall represent at least as great a proportion of the interest or discount as the sum of the periodic balances, after the month in which prepayment is made, bears to the sum of all periodic balances under the schedule of installments in the agreement; except that, if the initial term of the contract is greater than sixty-one months, the interest earned shall be computed to the date of prepayment on the basis of the rate of interest originally contracted for computed on the actual unpaid principal balances for the time actually outstanding. Where the amount of the refund credit is less than one dollar, no refund need be made]. The amount of the refund shall be calculated by the actuarial method of calculating refunds and no more interest shall be retained than is actually earned.

The amount of the refund shall [represent at least as great a proportion of the time price differential as the sum of the monthly time balances beginning one month after prepayment is made bears to the sum of all the monthly time balances under the schedule of payment in the contract after deducting from the refund an acquisition cost of fifteen dollars; except that, if the initial term of the contract is greater than sixty-one months, the amount of the time price differential earned shall be computed to the date of prepayment on the basis of the rate originally contracted for on the actual unpaid time balances for the time actually outstanding. Any insurance obviated by reason of prepayment shall be canceled by the holder and any refund of premiums received by the holder shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of subsection 2 of section 365.080. as great a proportion of such amount of interest as the sum of the full monthly balances of the contract scheduled to follow the installment date after the date of prepayment in full bears to the sum of all the monthly balances of the contract, both sums to be determined according to the payment schedule provided by the contract; except that, if prepayment in full occurs during the first installment period, interest shall be recomputed and charged only for the actual number of days elapsed. When the period before the first installment is more or less than one month, the portion of the interest earned for such period shall be determined by counting each day in such period as one-thirtieth of a month and one three hundred and sixtieth of a year.

2. No incorporated municipality located wholly or partially within any first class county operating under a charter form of government and having a population of over nine hundred thousand inhabitants shall impose such a sales tax for that part of the city, town or village that is located within such first class county, in the event such a first class county imposes a sales tax under the provisions of sections 94.600 to 94.655.

3. The sales tax may be imposed at a rate not to exceed one-half of one percent on the receipts from the sale at retail of all tangible personal property or taxable services at retail within any city adopting such tax, if such property and services are subject to taxation by the state of Missouri under the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo.

The ordinance shall reflect the effective date thereof, and shall be accompanied by a map of the city clearly showing the territory added thereto or detached therefrom. All moneys in such transportation trust fund shall be appropriated and disbursed only for transportation purposes as enumerated in sections 94.700 to 94.755. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to taxes authorized by sections 94.700 to 94.755 which have not been imposed to retire bonds issued pursuant to sections 94.700 to 94.755.

Once all of such bonds have been retired, all funds remaining in the special trust fund required by this subsection shall be used solely for transportation purposes. Any funds in the special trust fund required by this subsection which are not needed to meet current obligations under the bonds issued pursuant to section 94.705 may be invested by the governing body in accordance with applicable laws relating to the investment of other municipal funds. In addition, the sales shall not be rendered nonexempt nor shall any material supplier or contractor, architect or engineer be obligated to pay, collect or remit sales tax with respect to such purchases made by or on behalf of an exempt entity due to such purchases being billed to or paid for by a contractor, architect or engineer or the exempt entity contracting with any entity to render any services in relation to such purchases, including but not limited to selection of materials, ordering, pickup, delivery, approval on delivery, taking of delivery, transportation, storage, assumption of risk of loss to materials or providing warranties on materials as specified by contract, use of materials or other purchases for construction of the building or other facility, providing labor, management services, administrative services, design or technical services or advice to the exempt entity, whether or not the contractor, architect or engineer or other entity exercises dominion or control in any other manner over the materials in conjunction with services or labor provided to the exempt entity.

The recorder of deeds may charge a fee of one dollar for each notice filed and recorded pursuant to this subdivision. The notice described in this subdivision shall not be required if actual construction of improvements begins within three months from the date the claimant completed the claimant's work on the property.

6. If such property is purchased by a bona fide purchaser before a notice of intent to lien is recorded, the purchaser may take the property free of any such lien unless construction commences within six months of the design professional's last work related to improvement of the property.

"476.405. 1. Within the limits of any appropriation made for this purpose, the salary fixed by sections 211.381, 211.393, 477.130, 478.013, 478.018, 483.083, 483.163, and 485.060, RSMo, may be adjusted in any one year by a salary adjustment. The salary adjustment shall not exceed the salary adjustment for the executive department contained in the pay plan applicable to other state employees at a similar salary level for that fiscal year. If no salary adjustment or a lower salary adjustment is granted pursuant to this section than is granted the executive department in any year, then the salary adjustment granted pursuant to this section in the next fiscal year may exceed the salary adjustment of the executive department by the amount of the difference in the prior year.

2. The amount of a salary adjustment to be approved pursuant to this section shall be stated in a separate line item of the appropriation bill. A salary adjustment approved pursuant to this section shall be added to the statutory salary and the sum of these amounts shall be the statutory salary of the office for all purposes. Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SEVENTY-SECOND DAY, Friday, May 10, 1996

Prayer by Representative Pat Kelley.

Gracious God, we thank you for creating us and giving us life. We thank you for your Word that gives us a road map through life. We thank you for giving us moral principles and guidelines to live our lives by.

We ask for your Presence with us in the next eight days that as legislators, You would give us guidance and wisdom, and that what we do would bring honor and glory to you.

We give you thanks for these children attending here today, and may what we do here help provide a better future for them. We pray that they will also look to You for guidance in their lives. We pray you will kindle in each of us a new spirit, that will lead to a revival throughout our land.

We pray for Representative Joe Clay Crum in the hospital, that you would bring healing to him, surround him with love and care, and help him know that You are there with him.

We give thanks for all your blessings. In Jesus name we pray.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

(h) Showing a customer through a property being sold by an owner on his or her own behalf; or

(16) "Single agent", a licensee who has entered into a brokerage relationship with and therefore represents only one party in a real estate transaction. A single agent may be one of the following:

(c) "Landlord's agent", which shall mean a licensee who represents a landlord in a leasing transaction;

(d) "Tenant's agent", which shall mean a licensee who represents the tenant in a leasing transaction;

(17) "Subagent", a designated broker, together with the broker's appointed agents, engaged by another designated broker to act as a limited agent for a client. A subagent owes the same obligations and responsibilities to the client pursuant to section 3 or 4 of this act as does the client's designated broker.

Section 2. 1. A licensee's general duties and obligations arising from the limited agency relationship shall be disclosed in writing to the seller and the buyer or to the landlord and the tenant pursuant to sections 6 to 8 of this act. Alternatively, when engaged in any of the activities enumerated in section 339.010, RSMo, a licensee may act as an agent in any transaction in accordance with a written agreement as described in section 8 of this act.

2. A licensee shall be considered a buyer's or tenant's limited agent unless:

(1) The designated broker enters into a written seller's agent or landlord's agent agreement with the party to be represented pursuant to subsection 2 of section 8 of this act;

(2) The designated broker enters into a subagency agreement with another designated broker pursuant to subsection 5 of section 8 of this act;

(3) The designated broker enters into a written agency agreement pursuant to subsection 6 of section 8 of this act; or

(4) The designated broker is performing ministerial acts.

3. Sections 1 to 16 of this act do not obligate any buyer or tenant to pay compensation to a designated broker unless the buyer or tenant has entered into a written agreement with the designated broker specifying the compensation terms in accordance with subsection 3 of section 8 of this act.

4. A licensee may work with a single party in separate transactions pursuant to different relationships, including, but not limited to, selling one property as a seller's agent and working with that seller in buying another property as a buyer's agent or as a subagent if the licensee complies with sections 1 to 16 of this act in establishing the relationships for each transaction.

Section 3. 1. A licensee representing a seller or landlord as a seller's agent or a landlord's agent shall be a limited agent with the following duties and obligations:

(1) To perform the terms of the written agreement made with the client;

(2) To exercise reasonable skill and care for the client;

(3) To promote the interests of the client with the utmost good faith, loyalty, and fidelity, including:

(a) Seeking a price and terms which are acceptable to the client, except that the licensee shall not be obligated to seek additional offers to purchase the property while the property is subject to a contract for sale or to seek additional offers to lease the property while the property is subject to a lease or letter of intent to lease;

(b) Presenting all written offers to and from the client in a timely manner regardless of whether the property is subject to a contract for sale or lease or a letter of intent to lease;

(c) Disclosing to the client all adverse material facts actually known or that should have been known by the licensee; and

(d) Advising the client to obtain expert advise as to material matters about which the licensee knows but the specifics of which are beyond the expertise of the licensee;

(4) To account in a timely manner for all money and property received;

(5) To comply with all requirements of sections 1 to 16 of this act, subsection 2 of section 339.100, RSMo, and any rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to those sections; and

(6) To comply with any applicable federal, state, and local laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances, including fair housing and civil rights statutes and regulations.

2. A licensee acting as a seller's or landlord's agent shall not disclose any confidential information about the client unless disclosure is required by statute, rule or regulation or failure to disclose the information would constitute a misrepresentation or unless disclosure is necessary to defend the affiliated licensee against an action of wrongful conduct in an administrative or judicial proceeding or before a professional committee. No cause of action shall arise against a licensee acting as a seller's or landlord's agent for making any required or permitted disclosure.

3. A licensee acting as a seller's or landlord's agent owes no duty or obligation to a customer, except that a licensee shall disclose to any customer all adverse material facts actually known or that should have been known by the licensee. The adverse material facts may include facts pertaining to:

(1) Environmental hazards affecting the property;

(2) The physical condition of the property;

(3) Material defects in the property;

(4) Material defects in the title to the property;

(5) Material limitation on the client's ability to perform under the terms of the contract.

A seller's or landlord's agent owes no duty to conduct an independent inspection of the property for the benefit of the customer and owes no duty to independently verify the accuracy or completeness of any statement made by the client or any independent inspector.

4. A seller's or landlord's agent may show alternative properties not owned by the client to prospective buyers or tenants and may list competing properties for sale or lease without breaching any duty or obligation to the client.

5. A seller or landlord may agree in writing with a seller's or landlord's agent that other designated brokers may be retained and compensated as subagents. Any designated broker acting as a subagent on the seller's or landlord's behalf shall be a limited agent with the obligations and responsibilities set forth in subsections 1 to 4 of this section.

Section 4. 1. A licensee representing a buyer or tenant as a buyer's or tenant's agent shall be a limited agent with the following duties and obligations:

(1) To perform the terms of any written agreement made with the client;

(2) To exercise reasonable skill and care for the client;

(3) To promote the interests of the client with the utmost good faith, loyalty, and fidelity, including:

(a) Seeking a price and terms which are acceptable to the client, except that the licensee shall not be obligated to seek other properties while the client is a party to a contract to purchase property or to a lease or letter of intent to lease;

(b) Presenting all written offers to and from the client in a timely manner regardless of whether the client is already a party to a contract to purchase property or is already a party to a contract or a letter of intent to lease;

(c) Disclosing to the client adverse material facts actually known or that should have been known by the licensee; and

(d) Advising the client to obtain expert advice as to material matters about which the licensee knows but the specifics of which are beyond the expertise of the licensee;

(4) To account in a timely manner for all money and property received;

(5) To comply with all requirements of sections 1 to 16 of this act, subsection 2 of section 339.100, RSMo, and any rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to those sections; and

(6) To comply with any applicable federal, state, and local laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances, including fair housing and civil rights statutes or regulations.

2. A licensee acting as a buyer's or tenant's agent shall not disclose any confidential information about the client unless disclosure is required by statute, rule, or regulation or failure to disclose the information would constitute a misrepresentation or unless disclosure is necessary to defend the affiliated licensee against an action of wrongful conduct in an administrative or judicial proceeding or before a professional committee. No cause of action for any person shall arise against a licensee acting as a buyer's or tenant's agent for making any required or permitted disclosure.

3. A licensee acting as a buyer's or tenant's agent owes no duty or obligation to a customer, except that the licensee shall disclose to any customer all adverse material facts actually known or that should have been known by the licensee. The adverse material facts may include facts concerning the client's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction. A buyer's or tenant's agent owes no duty to conduct an independent investigation of the client's financial condition for the benefit of the customer and owes no duty to independently verify the accuracy or completeness of statements made by the client or any independent inspector.

4. A buyer's or tenant's agent may show properties in which the client is interested to other prospective buyers or tenants without breaching any duty or obligation to the client. This section shall not be construed to prohibit a buyer's or tenant's agent from showing competing buyers or tenants the same property and from assisting competing buyers or tenants in attempting to purchase or lease a particular property.

5. A client may agree in writing with a buyer's or tenant's agent that other designated brokers may be retained and compensated as subagents. Any designated broker acting on the buyer's or tenant's behalf as a subagent shall be a limited agent with the obligations and responsibilities set forth in subsections 1 to 4 of this section.

Section 5. 1. A licensee may act as a dual agent only with the consent of all parties to the transaction. Consent shall be presumed by a written agreement pursuant to section 8 of this act.

2. A dual agent shall be a limited agent for both the seller and buyer or the landlord and tenant and shall have the duties and obligations required by sections 3 and 4 of this act unless otherwise provided for in this section.

3. Except as provided in subsections 4 and 5 of this section, a dual agent may disclose any information to one client that the licensee gains from the other client if the information is material to the transaction unless it is confidential information as defined in section 1 of this act.

4. The following information shall not be disclosed by a dual agent without the consent of the client to whom the information pertains:

(1) That a buyer or tenant is willing to pay more than the purchase price or lease rate offered for the property;

(2) That a seller or landlord is willing to accept less than the asking price or lease rate for the property;

(3) What the motivating factors are for any client buying, selling, or leasing the property;

(4) That a client will agree to financing terms other than those offered; and

(5) The terms of any prior offers or counter offers made by any party.

5. A dual agent shall not disclose to one client any confidential information about the other client unless the disclosure is required by statute, rule, or regulation or failure to disclose the information would constitute a misrepresentation or unless disclosure is necessary to defend the affiliated licensee against an action of wrongful conduct in an administrative or judicial proceeding or before a professional committee. No cause of action for any person shall arise against a dual agent for making any required or permitted disclosure. A dual agent does not terminate the dual agency relationship by making any required or permitted disclosure.

6. In a dual agency relationship there shall be no imputation of knowledge or information between the client and the dual agent or among persons within an entity engaged as a dual agent.

Section 6. 1. Every designated broker shall adopt a written policy which identifies and describes the relationships in which the designated broker and affiliated licensees may engage with any seller, landlord, buyer, or tenant as part of any real estate brokerage activities.

2. A designated broker shall not be required to offer or engage in more than one of the brokerage relationships enumerated in section 2 of this act.

Section 7. 1. At the earliest practicable opportunity during or following the first substantial contact by the designated broker or the affiliated licensees with a seller, landlord, buyer, or tenant who has not entered into a written agreement for services as described in subsection 15 of section 1 of this act, the licensee shall provide that person with a written copy of the current broker disclosure form which has been prescribed by the commission. If the prospective customer refuses to sign the disclosure, the licensee shall set forth, sign and date a written explanation of the facts of the refusal and the explanation shall be retained by the licensee's broker.

2. When a seller, landlord, buyer, or tenant has already entered into a written agreement for services with a designated broker, no other licensee shall be required to make the disclosures required by this section.

3. Before engaging in any of the activities enumerated in section 339.010, RSMo, a licensee working as an agent or subagent of the seller or landlord with a buyer or tenant who is not represented by a licensee shall provide to the customer the current broker disclosure form prescribed by the commission.

4. Before engaging in any of the activities enumerated in section 339.010, RSMo, a licensee working as an agent or subagent of the buyer or tenant with a seller or landlord who is not represented by a licensee shall provide to the customer the current broker disclosure form prescribed by the commission.

5. The written disclosure required pursuant to subsections 1, 3, and 4 of this section shall contain a signature block for the client or customer to acknowledge receipt of the disclosure. The customer's acknowledgment of disclosure shall not constitute a contract with the licensee. If the customer refuses to sign the disclosure, the licensee shall set forth, sign and date a written explanation of the facts of the refusal and the explanation shall be retained by the licensee's broker.

6. Disclosures made in accordance with sections 1 to 16 of this act shall be sufficient as a matter of law to disclose brokerage relationships to the public.

Section 8. 1. All written agreements for brokerage services on behalf of a seller, landlord, buyer, or tenant shall be entered into by the designated broker on behalf of that broker and affiliated licensees, except that the designated broker may authorize affiliated licensees in writing to enter into the written agreements on behalf of the designated broker.

2. Before engaging in any of the activities enumerated in section 339.010, RSMo, a designated broker intending to establish a limited agency relationship with a seller or landlord shall enter into a written agency agreement with the party to be represented. The agreement shall include a licensee's duties and responsibilities specified in section 3 of this act and the terms of compensation and shall specify whether an offer of subagency may be made to any other designated broker.

3. Before or while engaging in any acts enumerated in section 339.010, RSMo, except ministerial acts defined in section 1 of this act, a designated broker acting as a single agent for a buyer or tenant shall enter into a written agency agreement with the buyer or tenant. The agreement shall include a licensee's duties and responsibilities specified in section 4 of this act and the terms of compensation and shall specify whether an offer of subagency may be made to any other designated broker.

4. Before engaging in any of the activities enumerated in 339.010, RSMo, a designated broker intending to act as a dual agent shall enter into a written agreement with the seller and buyer or landlord and tenant permitting the designated broker to serve as a dual agent. The agreement shall include a licensee's duties and responsibilities specified in section 5 of this act and the terms of compensation.

5. Before engaging in any of the activities enumerated in section 339.010, RSMo, a designated broker intending to act as a subagent shall enter into a written agreement with the designated broker for the client. If a designated broker has made a unilateral offer of subagency, another designated broker can enter into the subagency relationship by the act of disclosing to the customer that he or she is a subagent of the client.

6. Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit the public from entering into written contracts with any broker which contain duties, obligations, or responsibilities which are in addition to those specified in this section.

Section 9. 1. The relationships set forth in this section commence on the effective date of the real estate broker's agreement and continue until performance, completion, termination or expiration of that agreement.

2. A real estate broker and an affiliated licensee owe no further duty or obligation after termination, expiration, completion or performance of the brokerage agreement, except the duties of:

(1) Accounting in a timely manner for all money and property related to, and received during, the relationship; and

(2) Treating as confidential information provided by the client during the course of the relationship that may reasonably be expected to have a negative impact on the client's real estate activity unless:

(a) The client to whom the information pertains grants written consent;

(b) Disclosure of the information is required by law;

(c) The information is made public or becomes public by the words or conduct of the client to whom the information pertains or from a source other than the real estate brokerage or the affiliated licensee; or

(d) Disclosure is necessary to defend the designated broker or an affiliated licensee against an action of wrongful conduct in an administrative or judicial proceeding or before a professional committee.

Section 10. 1. In any real estate transaction, the designated broker's compensation may be paid by the seller, the landlord, the buyer, the tenant, or a third party or by sharing the compensation between designated brokers.

2. Payment of compensation by itself shall not establish an agency relationship between the party who paid the compensation and the designated broker or any affiliated licensee.

3. A seller or landlord may agree that a designated broker or subagent may share with another designated broker the compensation paid by the seller or landlord.

4. A buyer or tenant may agree that a designated broker or subagent may share with another designated broker the compensation paid by the buyer or tenant.

5. A designated broker may be compensated by more than one party for services in a transaction with the knowledge of all the parties at or before the time of entering into a written contract to buy, sell, or lease.

Section 11. 1. A client shall not be liable for a misrepresentation of such client's limited agent or subagent arising out of the limited agency agreement unless the client knew or should have known of the misrepresentation.

2. A licensee who is serving as a limited agent or subagent of a client shall not be liable for misrepresentation of such licensee's client arising out of the brokerage agreement unless the licensee knew or should have known of the misrepresentation.

3. A licensee who is serving as a limited agent of a client shall not be liable for a misrepresentation of any subagent unless the licensee knew or should have known of the misrepresentation. A broker shall not be liable for misrepresentation of an affiliated licensee unless the broker knew or should have known of the misrepresentation.

4. A licensee who is serving as a subagent shall not be liable for a misrepresentation of the limited agent unless the subagent knew or should have known of the misrepresentation.

Section 12. A designated broker entering into a limited agency agreement with a client for the listing of property or for the purpose of representing that person in the buying, selling, exchanging, renting, or leasing of real estate may appoint in writing affiliated licensees as designated agents to the exclusion of all other affiliated licensees. A designated broker shall not be considered to be a dual agent solely because such broker makes an appointment under this section, except that any licensee who personally represents both the seller and buyer or both the landlord and tenant in a particular transaction shall be a dual agent and shall be required to comply with the provisions governing dual agents.

Section 13. 1. All designated agents to the extent allowed by their licenses shall have the same duties and responsibilities to the client and customer pursuant to sections 3 to 5 of this act as the designated broker except as provided in section 12 of this act.

2. All affiliated licensees have the same protections from vicarious liability as provided in sections 1 to 16 of this act as does their designated broker.

Section 14. Sections 1 to 16 of this act shall supersede the duties and responsibilities of the parties under the common law, including fiduciary responsibilities of an agent to a principal, except as provided in subsection 6 of section 8 of this act. Sections 1 to 16 of this act shall be construed broadly to accomplish their purposes.

Section 15. The commission shall adopt and promulgate rules and regulations to carry out sections 1 to 16 of this act. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated pursuant to the authority of sections 1 to 16 of this act shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of section 536.024, RSMo.

Section 16. Sections 1 to 16 of this act shall become effective on September 1, 1997.

House Journal

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SEVENTY-THIRD DAY, Monday, May 13, 1996

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"Where do you live Teacher... come and see." (Jn. 1:38-39).

I was walking through the auditorium of a college campus recently and the six year-old son of a student asked me, "are you a student?" I stopped for a moment and then said, "yes, those of us who teach must also be students" and then to the adults around him I said, "wisdom is finding out how little we actually know."

Gracious God, today I pray for that wisdom that pushes me to always be a student, seeking information and insights from whatever source is available, but also taking time out for long silences where the words cease and you speak from the depths of my soul. Bless this House with that same spirit. Make us always seekers, never being satisfied that we alone know all that is to be known about the marvels of your world. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ashley Miller, Marcia Pickup, Jeremy Freeman, Alexander Fak, Amanda Everett, Adrienne Wade, Damond Riddle, Kelly York, Jennie Tilson and John Morrison.

The Journal of the seventy-second day was approved as corrected.

Amend Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bills Nos. 1207, 1288, 1408 and 1409, Page 1, Section A, Line 5, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"65.652. Such township planning commission shall consist of the township trustee, the commissioner of the county commission who represents the township, one member of the township board selected by the township board, and one resident [freeholder] appointed by the township board from the unincorporated part of the township for a term of four years or until his successor takes office. The terms of all other members shall be only for the duration of their tenure of official position. All members of the township planning commission shall serve as such without compensation, except that an attendance fee as reimbursement for expenses, for not to exceed two meetings per month, may be paid to the [freeholder] resident member of the planning commission in an amount, as set by the township board, not to exceed fifteen dollars for each meeting. The planning commission shall elect its chairman who shall serve for one year.

65.690. 1. Any township board which appointed a township planning or township zoning commission and which has adopted a zoning plan, as provided in sections 65.650 to 65.700, shall appoint a township board of zoning adjustment. The board shall consist of five [freeholders] residents, not more than one of whom may be a member of the township planning commission or the township zoning commission. The membership of the first board appointed shall serve respectively: one for one year, one for two years, one for three years, two for four years. Thereafter, members shall be appointed for terms of four years each. Members shall be removable for cause by the township board upon written charges and after public hearings. Vacancies shall be filled by the township board for the unexpired term of any member whose term becomes vacant. Members of the board shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed for expenses incurred for attendance at not more than four meetings per year in an amount to be set by the township board, not to exceed ten dollars per meeting. The board of zoning adjustment shall elect its own chairman and shall adopt rules of procedure consistent with the provisions of the zoning regulations and the provisions of sections 65.650 to 65.700. The chairman, or in his absence the acting chairman, may administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses. All meetings of the board of zoning adjustment shall be open to the public, and minutes shall be kept of all proceedings and official actions, which minutes shall be filed in the office of the board and shall be a public record. Appeals to the board of zoning adjustment may be taken by any owner, lessee or tenant of land, or by a public officer, department, board or bureau, affected by any decision of the administrative officer in administering a township zoning rule. Such appeals shall be taken within a period of not more than three months, and in the manner provided by the rules stay all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken shall certify to the board that by reason of facts stated in the certificate a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property. The board of adjustment shall have the following powers and it shall be its duty:

(1) To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error of law in any order, requirement, decision or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of the township zoning regulations;

(2) To hear and decide all matters referred to it or which it is required to determine under the zoning regulations adopted by the township board as herein provided;

(3) Where, by reason of exceptional narrowness, shallowness, shape of topography or other extraordinary or exceptional situation or condition of a specific piece of property, the strict application of any regulation adopted under sections 65.650 to 65.700 would result in peculiar and exceptional difficulties to or exceptional and demonstrable undue hardship upon the owner of the property as an unreasonable deprivation of use as distinguished from the mere grant of a privilege, to authorize, upon an appeal relating to the property, a variance from the strict application so as to relieve the demonstrable difficulties or hardships, provided the relief can be granted without substantial detriment to the public good and without substantially impairing the intent, purpose, and integrity of the zone plan as embodied in the zoning regulations and map.

2. In exercising the above powers, the board may reverse or affirm wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from and may make such order, requirement, decision or determination as ought to be made, and to that end shall have all the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken. Any owners, lessees or tenants of buildings, structures or land jointly or severally aggrieved by any decision of the board of adjustment may appeal to the township board for review. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the township board may present to the circuit court of the county in which the property affected is located, a petition, duly verified, stating that the decision is illegal in whole or in part, specifying the grounds of the illegality and asking for relief therefrom. Upon the presentation of the petition, the court shall allow a writ of certiorari directed to the board of adjustment or the township board, respectively, of the action taken and data and records acted upon, and may appoint a referee to take additional evidence in the case. The court may reverse or affirm or may modify the decision brought up for review. After entry of judgment in the circuit court in the action in review, any party to the cause may prosecute an appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction in the same manner now or hereafter provided by law for appeals from other judgments of the circuit court in civil cases."; and

SEVENTY-FOURTH DAY, Tuesday, May 14, 1996

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"The truth shall make you free." (John 8:32.)

There was a discussion on the radio recently about art. One caller suggested that if she found a first century fake of a third century BC piece of art, she would be delighted that she had something old. The art critic was strong and forceful in arguing for the truth, and for the authenticity and for the passion of the original artist. It got me to wondering about how many of us are that concerned, we accept the fake, we compromise with the truth, and we quickly lose our passion for the authentic. Today, God of Truth, author of the real, help us to be more attentive to being authentic and true to the best that is in us and in our world. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Leah Schrier, Shannon Lowry, Joe Garvey, Jessica Wente, Lyndsey Deibel, Zachery Famuliner, Alyssa Paige Famuliner, Eve Mason, Katie Moulton, Katie Dierker and Nick Michalas.

The Journal of the seventy-third day was approved as corrected.

"Section B. Section 575.130, RSMo 1994, is repealed and eight new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 575.130, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, to read as follows:

575.130. 1. A person commits the crime of simulating legal process if, with purpose to mislead the recipient and cause him to take action in reliance thereon, he delivers or causes to be delivered:

(1) A request for the payment of money on behalf of any creditor that in form and substance simulates any legal process issued by any court of this state; or

(2) Any purported summons, subpoena or other legal process knowing that the process was not issued or authorized by any court.

2. This section shall not apply to a subpoena properly issued by a notary public.

3. Simulating legal process is a class B misdemeanor.

4. No person shall file a nonconsensual common law lien as defined in section 4 of this act.

5. A violation of subsection 4 of this section is a class B misdemeanor.

6. Subsection 4 of this section shall not apply to a filing officer as defined in section 4 of this act that is acting in the scope of employment.

Section 4. 1. For the purposes of sections 4 to 10 of this act:

(1) "Court" is the United States Supreme Court, Federal Courts of Appeal, Federal District Courts, Federal Magistrates, Federal Administrative Courts, Missouri supreme court, Missouri courts of appeal, Missouri circuit courts, and Missouri associate circuit courts but shall not include municipal courts;

(2) "Filing officer" is the secretary of state, the recorder of deeds of any county, the circuit clerk of any county or any public official or authorized employee required by law to accept for filing and keep as a public record any lien, deed, instrument, judgment or other document, whether in paper, electronic or other form, required to be filed or recorded under the laws of this state;

(3) "Nonconsensual common law lien" is a document that purports to assert a lien against the assets, real or personal, of any person and that, regardless of any self-description:

(a) Is not expressly provided for by a specific state or federal statute;

(b) Does not depend upon the consent of the owner of the property affected or the existence of a contract for its existence; and

(c) Is not an equitable or constructive lien imposed by a state or federal court of competent jurisdiction.

2. Nothing in sections 4 to 10 of this act shall be construed to create a lien or interest in property not otherwise existing under state or federal law.

3. Nothing in sections 4 to 10 of this act shall be construed to permit a municipal court to create a lien or interest in property not otherwise existing under state or federal law.

Section 5. 1. Any filing officer may reject for filing or recording any nonconsensual common law lien. This section shall not be construed to permit rejection of a document that is shown to be authorized by contract, lease or statute or imposed by a state or federal court of competent jurisdiction or filed by a licensed attorney, a financial institution including, but not limited to, any commercial bank, savings and loan association or credit union or a Missouri state licensed mortgage company or mortgage broker.

2. If a nonconsensual common law lien has been accepted for filing, the filing officer shall accept for filing a sworn notice of invalid lien on a form provided by the filing officer signed and submitted by the person against whom such lien was filed or such person's attorney. The form shall be captioned "Notice of Invalid Lien" and shall state the name and address of the person on whose behalf such notice is filed, the name and address of the lien claimant and a clear reference to the document or documents the person believes constitute a nonconsensual common law lien. A copy of the notice of invalid lien shall be mailed by the filing officer to the lien claimant at the lien claimant's last known address within one business day. No filing officer, county or the state shall be liable for the acceptance for filing of a nonconsensual common law lien, nor for the acceptance for filing of a sworn notice of invalid lien pursuant to this subsection.

Section 6. Any person who attempts to file a lien against real or personal property that is rejected pursuant to subsection 1 of section 5 of this act may petition the circuit court of the county of the filing officer that rejected such lien for an order, which may be granted ex parte, directing the filing officer to file or record the lien pending a hearing on whether the lien constitutes a nonconsensual common law lien. The lien claimant shall appear before the court as the petitioner within ten business days following the date of service of the petition and order on the filing officer, and show cause, if any, why the lien should not be declared void and other relief provided for by section 5 of this act should not be granted. The petition shall state the grounds upon which relief is requested, and shall be supported by the affidavit of the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney setting forth a concise statement of the facts upon which the claim for relief is based.

Section 7. Any person who has real or personal property or an interest therein, which is subject to a recorded nonconsensual common law lien who believes such lien is invalid may petition the circuit court of the county in which the lien has been recorded or filed for an order, which may be granted ex parte, directing the lien claimant to appear before the court within ten business days following the date of service of the petition and order on the lien claimant, and show cause, if any, why the claim of lien should not be declared void and other relief provided for by section 8 of this act should not be granted. The petition shall state the grounds upon which relief is requested, and shall be supported by the affidavit of the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney setting forth a concise statement of the facts upon which the claim for relief is based.

Section 8. 1. Any order rendered pursuant to section 3 or 4 of this act shall clearly state that if the lien claimant fails to appear at the time and place noted, the claim of lien shall be declared void ab initio and released and that the lien claimant shall be ordered to pay the costs incurred by any other party to the proceeding, including reasonable attorney's fees.

2. If, following a hearing on the matter, the court determines that the document at issue is a nonconsensual common law lien, the court shall issue an order declaring the lien void ab initio, releasing the lien and awarding costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

3. If the court determines that the claim of lien is valid, the court shall issue an order so stating and may award costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

4. A certified copy of any order rendered pursuant to this section shall be filed by the circuit clerk in the office of the appropriate filing officer.

Section 9. Filing officers and any employees thereof, acting in the scope of employment, shall not be liable for damages pursuant to sections 4 to 8 of this act and, except as otherwise provided by law, shall not be required to defend decisions to accept or reject any documents.

Section 10. Any person who records or files in the office of a filing officer:

(1) Any document purporting to create a nonconsensual common law lien against real or personal property; or

(2) A notice of invalid lien pursuant to subsection 2 of section 5 of this act with respect to a valid lien and which the filer knew to be false at the time of filing;

shall be liable to the damaged party for actual damages or five thousand dollars, whichever is greater plus costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

Section C. Because immediate action is necessary to prevent injustice, section B of this act is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and section B of this act shall be in full force and effect upon its passage and approval.".

The judge shall hold a hearing within ten days after the issuance of the temporary restraining order. The court may suspend execution of the order and allow a lessee to remain on the premises pending the hearing if the lessee posts a bond in an amount equal to one month's rent. Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SEVENTY-FIFTH DAY, Wednesday, May 15, 1996

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

Gracious God, in this moment when we pause to acknowledge a power that is greater than our own, let us believe, let us hope, and let us feel your presence. In our hearts are fears and frustrations, and we can't help but view the future of our world without misgivings when we read and hear of war and brutality around the world. If there is a way for us to live at peace with other nations, show and guide our leaders to practice justice in all that they do.

As these representatives push ahead to the last days of this session, help them be patient . Sometimes we find it is harder to wait than to work. In these last days, let your guiding hand move among the actions to be taken and the decisions yet to be made. And in the final analysis, may those who labor here rest assured that they have done their best for the people of Missouri. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Lyndsey Deibel, Edward Rochester, Tom Joad, Mary Shelley, Holden Caulfield, Tyler Herrelson, Whitney Herrelson and Quinn Herrelson.

The Journal of the seventy-fourth day was approved as corrected.

HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

Representatives Gaw, Daniels, Backer and Richardson, joined by the entire House, offered House Resolution No. 1288, which was read.

House Resolution No. 1288

Whereas, as the hectic days of the Second Regular Session of the Eighty-eighth General Assembly draw to a close, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives take pause to recognize an individual who has made an invaluable contribution to the general effectiveness of this legislative body; and

Whereas, Wayne Blair of New Bloomfield came to the aid of the House of Representatives a few weeks ago to assume the duties and responsibilities of Reading Clerk; and

Whereas, Wayne Blair brought to that important position a vast wealth of experience gained while serving as Reader from 1969 through 1971 and from 1989 through 1991; and

Whereas, Wayne Blair is to be commended for the prompt and zealous manner that he responded to the House's request for service in an emergency situation created by the unexpected resignation of the former Reader; and

Whereas, Wayne Blair's overall record of achievement also includes service as research analyst for the Oversight Division of the Committee on Legislative Research (1991 to the present), as Callaway County Collector (1975-1979), and as Callaway County Western District Judge (1971- 1974), having distinguished himself as the youngest "judge" in the state of Missouri with his election at the age of 24; and

Whereas, a resident of New Bloomfield, Wayne Blair is not only famous for his fast, fast cars -- especially his red Corvette, but also infamous for his attempt in the 1960s to drown the highly respected Representative from the 20th Legislative District, who currently enjoys the status of Majority Floor Leader:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Eighty-eighth General Assembly, join unanimously in expressing deep gratitude to Wayne Blair for the competent, unselfish, and faithful way in which he has gone above and beyond the call of duty in service to this august body and the citizens of this great state; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Wayne Blair, as a mark of our esteem for him.

On motion of Representative Backer, Rule 63 was suspended and House Resolution No. 1288 was adopted.

On motion of Representative Skaggs, HR 1228 was adopted.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 14

WHEREAS, the United States Congress, by its authority to regulate commerce among the states, has repeatedly preempted state laws, including those relating to health, welfare, transportation, communications, banking, environment, and civil justice, thereby reducing the ability of state legislatures to be responsive to their constituents; and

WHEREAS, more than half of all federal laws preempting state laws have been enacted by Congress since 1969, intensifying an erosion of state power that leaves an essential part of our Constitutional structure, that of federalism, standing precariously; and

WHEREAS, the United States Constitution anticipates that our American system of federalism will allow for differences among state laws, expecting people to seek change through their own legislatures without federal intervention in the form of federal legislators representing other states; and

WHEREAS, the United States Constitution provides that while federal law is "the supreme Law of the Land", any powers not delegated to the federal government are reserved to the states or the people, a balance which is necessary to protect liberty; and

WHEREAS, this healthy balance of power can only exist when the powers of the states are not preempted by the federal government, and thus remain creditable powers within the federal system; and

WHEREAS, less federal preemption means that states can act as laboratories of democracy, where people can seek novel social and economic policies without risk to the nation; and

WHEREAS, S.1629 is designed to create mechanisms for careful consideration on proposals that would preempt states in areas historically within their purview through procedural mechanisms in the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of government; and

WHEREAS, S.1629 would specifically control the preemption of state powers in the federal legislative branch by requiring a statement of Constitutional authority and an expression of intent to preempt states, in the executive branch by curbing agencies that may preempt beyond their legislative authority, and in the judicial branch by codifying judicial deference to state laws where the Congress is not clear in its intent to preempt; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Missouri House of Representatives of the Eighty-eighth General Assembly, the Senate concurring therein, hereby strongly urges the United States Congress to enact S.1629, the Tenth Amendment Enforcement Act of 1996, in order to strengthen the political safeguards of federalism as anticipated under the Constitution; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly further urges the President of the United States to endorse S. 1629 as a means of ensuring full consideration of the principals of federalism within the exercise of his executive powers; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Congressional delegation from the State of Missouri join in co-sponsoring S.1629 in order to show its support for a decisive role for states within the federal system; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate, and for each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Miscellaneous Bills and Resolutions, to which was referred SCR 29, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

In the case of owner occupied units, all proposals approved by the commission shall require a land use restriction agreement for a time period deemed reasonable by the commission requiring any subsequent owner, except a lender with a security interest in the property, to be an owner occupant whose income at the time of acquisition is at or below the level described in section 32.105, and further requiring the acquisition price to any subsequent owner shall not exceed by more than a five percent annual appreciation the acquisition price to the original, eligible owner at the time tax credits are first claimed. The land use restriction agreement shall constitute a lien as described in subdivision (4) of subsection 3 of section 32.115. The restriction shall be approved by the property owner and shall be binding on any subsequent owner of the property unless otherwise approved by the commission. In approving a proposal, the commission may authorize the use of tax credits by one or more of the business firms listed in the proposal and shall establish specific requirements regarding the degree of completion of affordable housing assistance activities necessary to be eligible for tax credits provided under this section. No tax credit shall be approved for any bank, bank and trust company, insurance company, trust company, national bank, savings association, or building and loan association for activities that are a part of its normal course of business. [7.] 3. For proposals approved under section 32.111[,]:

(1) The amount of the tax credit shall not exceed fifty-five percent of the total amount invested in affordable housing assistance activities by a business firm. Whenever said investment is made in the form of an equity investment or a loan, as opposed to a donation alone, tax credits may be claimed only where the loan or equity investment is accompanied by a donation which is eligible for federal income tax charitable deduction, and where the total value of the tax credits herein plus the value of the federal income tax charitable deduction is less than or equal to the value of the donation. Any tax credit not used in the period for which the credit was approved may be carried over the next ten succeeding calendar or fiscal years until the full credit has been allowed. If the affordable housing units for which a tax is claimed are within a larger structure, parts of which are not the subject of a tax credit claim, then expenditures applicable to the entire structure shall be reduced on a prorated basis in proportion to the ratio of the number of square feet devoted to the affordable housing units, for purposes of determining the amount of the tax credit. The total amount of tax credit granted for programs approved under section 32.111 for the [first] fiscal year beginning July 1, 1991 shall not exceed two million dollars, to be increased by no more than two million dollars each succeeding fiscal year, until the total tax credits that may be approved reaches ten million dollars in any fiscal year[.];

The commission is authorized, in its discretion, to audit the records and accounts of the owner to verify said certification[.];

[9.] (3) In the case of owner occupied affordable housing units, the qualifying owner occupant shall, before the end of the first year in which credits are claimed, certify to the commission that the occupant is income eligible during the preceding two years, and at the time of the initial purchase contract, but not thereafter. The qualifying owner occupant shall further certify to the commission, before the end of the first year in which credits are claimed, that during the compliance period indicated in the land use restriction agreement, the cost of the affordable housing unit to the occupant for the claimed unit can reasonably be projected to be in compliance with the provisions of sections 32.100 to 32.125. Any succeeding owner occupant acquiring the affordable housing unit during the compliance period indicated in the land use restriction agreement shall make the same certification[.];

[10.] (4) If at any time during the compliance period the commission determines a project for which a proposal has been approved is not in compliance with the applicable provisions of sections 32.100 to 32.125 or rules promulgated therefor, the commission [shall revoke the proposal's certificate of eligibility and all business firms included in the proposal shall be prohibited from claiming any future tax credits under the proposal and shall remit the amount of tax credits taken in previous tax years under the proposal to the director of revenue. "Industry" does not include a business which closes or substantially reduces its operation in one area of the state and relocates substantially the same operation in another area of the state. This does not prohibit a business from expanding its operations in another area of the state provided that existing operations of a similar nature are not closed or substantially reduced;

(8) "New job", a job in a new or expanding industry not including jobs of recalled workers, or replacement jobs or other jobs that formerly existed in the industry in the state;

178.893. A community college district or a state technical college, with the approval of the department of economic development in consultation with the office of administration, may enter into an agreement to establish a project and provide program services to an employer. As soon as possible after initial contact between a community college district or a state technical college and a potential employer regarding the possibility of entering into an agreement, the district or college shall inform the division of job development and training of the department of economic development and the office of administration about the potential project. The division of job development and training shall evaluate the proposed project within the overall job training efforts of the state to ensure that the project will not duplicate other job training programs. The department of economic development shall have fourteen days from receipt of the application to approve or disapprove projects. If no response is received by the community college or the state technical college within fourteen days the projects are approved. Any project that is disapproved must be in writing stating the reasons for the disapproval. If an agreement is entered into, the district and the employer shall notify the department of revenue within fifteen calendar days. An agreement may provide, but is not limited to:

(1) Payment of program costs, including deferred costs, which may be paid from one or a combination of the following sources:

(a) Funds appropriated by the general assembly from the Missouri junior college job training program fund and disbursed by the division of job development and training in respect of new jobs credit from withholding to be received or derived from new employment resulting from the project;

(b) Tuition, student fees, or special charges fixed by the board of trustees to defray program costs in whole or in part;

(c) Guarantee of payments to be received under paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdivision;

(2) Payment of program costs shall not be deferred for a period longer than ten years if program costs do not exceed five hundred thousand dollars, or eight years if program costs exceed five hundred thousand dollars from the date of commencement of the project;

(3) Costs of on-the-job training for employees, shall include wages or salaries of participating employees. Payments for on-the-job training shall not exceed the average of fifty percent of the total percent of the total wages paid by the employer to each participant during the period of training. Payment for on-the-job training may continue for up to six months after the placement of the participant in the new job;

(4) A provision which fixes the minimum amount of new jobs credit from withholding, or tuition and fee payments which shall be paid for program costs;

(5) Any payment required to be made by an employer is a lien upon the employer's business property until paid and has equal precedence with ordinary taxes and shall not be divested by a judicial sale. Property subject to the lien may be sold for sums due and delinquent at a tax sale, with the same forfeitures, penalties, and consequences as for the nonpayment of ordinary taxes. The purchasers at tax sale obtain the property subject to the remaining payments.

178.894. If an agreement provides that all or part of program costs are to be met by receipt of new jobs credit from withholding, such new jobs credit from withholding shall be determined and paid as follows:

(1) New jobs credit from withholding shall be based upon the wages paid to the employees in the new jobs;

(2) A portion of the total payments made by the employer pursuant to section 143.221, RSMo, shall be designated as the new jobs credit from withholding. Such portion shall be an amount equal to two and one-half percent of the gross wages paid by the employer for each of the first one hundred jobs included in the project and one and one-half percent of the gross wages paid by the employer for each of the remaining jobs included in the project. If business or employment conditions cause the amount of the new jobs credit from withholding to be less than the amount projected in the agreement for any time period, then other withholding tax paid by the employer pursuant to section 143.221, RSMo, shall be credited to the Missouri junior college job training fund by the amount of such difference. The employer shall remit the amount of the new jobs credit to the department of revenue in the manner prescribed in section 178.896. When all program costs, including the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the certificates have been paid, the employer credits shall cease;

(3) The community college district or the state technical college participating in a project shall establish a special fund for and in the name of the project. All funds appropriated by the general assembly from the Missouri community college job training program fund and disbursed by the division of job development and training for the project and other amounts received by the district or college in respect of the project and required by the agreement to be used to pay program costs for the project shall be deposited in the special fund. Amounts held in the special fund may be used and disbursed by the district or college only to pay program costs for the project. The special fund may be divided into such accounts and subaccounts as shall be provided in the agreement, and amounts held therein may be invested in investments which are legal for the investment of the district's other funds;

(4) Any disbursement in respect of a project received from the division of job development and training under the provisions of sections 178.892 to 178.896 and the special fund into which it is paid may be irrevocably pledged by a junior college district or a state technical college for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the certificate issued by a junior college district or a state technical college to finance or refinance, in whole or in part, the project;

(5) The employer shall certify to the department of revenue that the credit from withholding is in accordance with an agreement and shall provide other information the department may require;

(6) An employee participating in a project will receive full credit for the amount designated as a new jobs credit from withholding and withheld as provided in section 143.221, RSMo;

(7) If an agreement provides that all or part of program costs are to be met by receipt of new jobs credit from withholding, the provisions of this subsection shall also apply to any successor to the original employer until such time as the principal and interest on the certificates have been paid.

178.895. 1. To provide funds for the present payment of the costs of new jobs training programs, a community college district or a state technical college may borrow money and issue and sell certificates payable from a sufficient portion of the future receipts of payments authorized by the agreement including disbursements from the Missouri community college job training program to the special fund established by the district or the college for each project. The total amount of outstanding certificates sold by all junior college districts and the state technical college shall not exceed twenty million dollars, unless an increased amount is authorized in writing by a majority of members of the Missouri job training joint legislative oversight committee. The certificates shall be marketed through financial institutions authorized to do business in Missouri. The receipts shall be pledged to the payment of principal of and interest on the certificates. Certificates may be sold at public sale or at private sale at par, premium, or discount of not less than ninety-five percent of the par value thereof, at the discretion of the board of trustees, and may bear interest at such rate or rates as the board of trustees shall determine, notwithstanding the provisions of section 108.170, RSMo, to the contrary. However, chapter 176, RSMo, does not apply to the issuance of these certificates. Certificates may be issued with respect to a single project or multiple projects and may contain terms or conditions as the board of trustees may provide by resolution authorizing the issuance of the certificates.

2. Certificates issued to refund other certificates may be sold at public sale or at private sale as provided in this section with the proceeds from the sale to be used for the payment of the certificates being refunded. The refunding certificates may be exchanged in payment and discharge of the certificates being refunded, in installments at different times or an entire issue or series at one time. Refunding certificates may be sold or exchanged at any time on, before, or after the maturity of the outstanding certificates to be refunded. They may be issued for the purpose of refunding a like, greater, or lesser principal amount of certificates and may bear a higher, lower, or equivalent rate of interest than the certificates being renewed or refunded.

3. Before certificates are issued, the board of trustees shall publish once a notice of its intention to issue the certificates, stating the amount, the purpose, and the project or projects for which the certificates are to be issued. A person may, within fifteen days after the publication of the notice, by action in the circuit court of a county in the district, appeal the decision of the board of trustees to issue the certificates. The action of the board of trustees in determining to issue the certificates is final and conclusive unless the circuit court finds that the board of trustees has exceeded its legal authority. An action shall not be brought which questions the legality of the certificates, the power of the board of trustees to issue the certificates, the effectiveness of any proceedings relating to the authorization of the project, or the authorization and issuance of the certificates from and after fifteen days from the publication of the notice of intention to issue.

4. The board of trustees shall determine if revenues provided in the agreement are sufficient to secure the faithful performance of obligations in the agreement.

5. Certificates issued under this section shall not be deemed to be an indebtedness of the state [or], the community college district, the state technical college or of any other political subdivision of the state and the principal and interest on such certificates shall be payable only from the sources provided in subdivision (1) of section 178.893 which are pledged in the agreement.

6. The department of economic development shall coordinate the new jobs training program, and may promulgate rules that districts and the state technical college will use in developing projects with new and expanding industrial new jobs training proposals which shall include rules providing for the coordination of such proposals with the service delivery areas established in the state to administer federal funds pursuant to the federal Job Training Partnership Act. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated under the authority of sections 178.892 to 178.896 shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of section 536.024, RSMo.

7. [No] A community college district [may] and the state technical college shall not sell certificates as described in this section after July 1, 1998.

178.896. 1. There is hereby established within the state treasury a special fund, to be known as the "Missouri Community College Job Training Program Fund", to be administered by the division of job development and training. The department of revenue shall credit to the community college job training program fund, as received, all new jobs credit from withholding remitted by employers pursuant to section 178.894. The fund shall also consist of any gifts, contributions, grants or bequests received from federal, private or other sources. The general assembly, however, shall not provide for any transfer of general revenue funds into the community college job training program fund. Moneys in the Missouri community college job training program fund shall be disbursed to the division of job development and training pursuant to regular appropriations by the general assembly. The division shall disburse such appropriated funds in a timely manner into the special funds established by community college districts and the state technical college for projects, which funds shall be used to pay program costs, including the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on certificates issued by the district to finance or refinance, in whole or in part, a project. Such disbursements by the division of job development and training shall be made to the special fund for each project in the same proportion as the new jobs credit from withholding remitted by the employer participating in such project bears to the total new jobs credit from withholding remitted by all employers participating in projects during the period for which the disbursement is made. Moneys for new jobs training programs established under the provisions of sections 178.892 to 178.896 shall be obtained from appropriations made by the general assembly from the Missouri community college job training program fund. All moneys remaining in the Missouri community college job training program fund at the end of any fiscal year shall not lapse to the general revenue fund, as provided in section 33.080, RSMo, but shall remain in the Missouri community college job training program fund.

2. The department of revenue shall develop such forms as are necessary to demonstrate accurately each employer's new jobs credit from withholding paid into the Missouri community college job training program fund. The new jobs credit from withholding shall be accounted as separate from the normal withholding tax paid to the department of revenue by the employer. Reimbursements made by all employers to the Missouri community college job training program fund shall be no less than all allocations made by the division of job development and training to all community college districts for all projects. The employer shall remit the amount of the new job credit to the department of revenue in the same manner as provided in sections 143.191 to 143.265, RSMo.

3. Sections 178.892 to 178.896 shall expire July 1, 2008."; and

This also does not prohibit a business from moving its operations from one location in the state to another location in the state for the purpose of expanding such operation provided that the board determines that such expansion cannot reasonably be accommodated within the municipality in which such business is located, or in the case of a business located in an incorporated area of the county, within the county in which such business is located, after conferring with the chief elected official of such municipality or county and taking into consideration any evidence offered by such municipality or county regarding the ability to accommodate such expansion within such municipality or county. 2. Certificates issued by the board pursuant to the provisions of sections 7 to 22 of this act shall not constitute an indebtedness or liability of the state of Missouri within the meaning of any state constitutional provision or statutory limitation, shall not constitute a pledge of the faith and credit of the state of Missouri, shall not be guaranteed by the credit of the state, and unless approved by a concurrent resolution of the general assembly, no certificate in default shall be paid by the state of Missouri.

Section 10. 1. The department, in conjunction with the board, shall establish the procedures and standards for the determination and approval of eligible industries and their economic development projects by the promulgation of rules or regulations in accordance with sections 7 to 22 of this act, chapter 536, RSMo, and section 620.1066, RSMo. These rules or regulations shall mandate the evaluation of the credit worthiness of eligible industries, the number of new jobs to be provided by an economic development project to residents of the state, and the likelihood of the economic success of the economic development project. No economic development project which will result in the replacement of facilities existing in the state shall be approved by the board.

2. With respect to each eligible industry making an application to the board for incentives, and with respect to the economic development project described in the application, the board shall request relevant information, documentation and other materials and make inquiries of the applicant as necessary or appropriate. After a diligent review of relevant materials and completion of its inquiries, the board may by resolution designate an economic development project.

Section 11. The board may enter into, with the approval of the department and in consultation with the office of administration, with any eligible industry, a financing agreement with respect to its economic development project. Subject to the inclusion of the mandatory provisions set forth in sections 7 to 22 of this act, the terms and provisions of each financing agreement shall be determined by negotiations between the board and the eligible industry.

Section 12. The financing agreement shall provide in substance that:

(1) It may be assigned by the eligible industry only upon the prior written consent of the board following the adoption of a resolution by the board to such effect; and

(2) Upon default by the eligible industry in any obligations under the financing agreement or other documents evidencing, securing or related to the eligible industry's obligations, the board shall have the right, at its option, to:

(a) Declare the financing agreement or other such documents in default;

(b) Accelerate and declare the total of all such payments due by the eligible industry and sell the economic development project at public, private, or judicial sale;

(c) Pursue any remedy provided under the financing agreement or other such documents;

(d) Be entitled to the appointment of a receiver by the circuit court wherein any part of the economic development project is located; and

(e) Pursue any other applicable legal remedy.

Section 13. After receipt of an application, the board may with the approval of the department, enter into an agreement with an eligible industry for a credit pursuant to sections 7 to 22 of this act if the board determines that all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The applicant's project will create new jobs that were not jobs previously performed by employees of the applicant in Missouri;

(2) The applicant's project is economically sound and will benefit the people of Missouri by increasing opportunities for employment and strengthening the economy of Missouri;

(3) The political subdivisions affected by the project have committed significant local incentives with respect to the project;

(4) Receiving the credit is a major factor in the applicant's decision to go forward with the project and not receiving the credit will result in the applicant not creating new jobs in Missouri;

(5) Awarding the credit will result in an overall positive fiscal impact to the state;

(6) There is at least one other state that the applicant verifies is being considered for the project; and

(7) A significant disparity is identified, using best available data in the projected costs for the applicant's project compared to the costs in the competing state, including the impact of the competing state's incentive programs. The competing state's incentive program shall include state, local, private and federal funds.

Section 14. In determining the credit that should be awarded, the board shall take into consideration the following factors:

(1) The economy of the county where the projected investment is to occur;

(2) The potential impact on the economy of Missouri;

(3) The payroll attributable to the project;

(4) The capital investment attributable to the project;

(5) The amount the average wage paid by the applicant exceeds the average wage paid within the county in which the project will be located;

(6) The costs to Missouri and the affected political subdivisions with respect to the project;

(7) The financial assistance that is otherwise provided by Missouri and the affected political subdivisions; and

(8) The magnitude of the cost differential between Missouri and the competing state.

Section 15. The board shall determine the amount and duration of a project and its associated assessments, credits and refunds. The credit amount may not exceed the estimated assessment. Assessments made for any project may not exceed a period of fifteen years.

Section 16. An agreement between the board and an eligible industry shall include all of the following:

(1) A detailed description of the project that is the subject of the agreement;

(2) A specific method for determining the number of new employees employed during a taxable year who are performing jobs not previously performed by an employee of the eligible industry;

(3) A requirement that the taxpayer shall annually report to the board the number of new employees who are performing jobs not previously performed by an employee, the total amount of salaries and wages paid to eligible employees in new jobs, and any other information the board needs to perform its duties pursuant to sections 7 to 22 of this act;

(4) A requirement that the taxpayer shall provide written notification to the director and the board not more than thirty days after the taxpayer makes or receives a proposal that would transfer the taxpayer's state tax liability obligations to a successor taxpayer;

(5) Any other performance conditions that the board and the director determine are appropriate; and

(6) A requirement that the taxpayer shall maintain operations at the project location for at least two times the number of years as the term of the tax credit.

Section 17. If the board determines that an eligible industry, which has received a credit pursuant to sections 7 to 22 of this act, is not complying with the requirements of the credit agreement or all of the provisions of sections 7 to 22 of this act, the board shall, after giving the industry an opportunity to explain the noncompliance, notify the department of revenue of the noncompliance and request a penalty. The board shall state the amount of the penalty, which may not exceed the sum of any previously allowed assessments pursuant to sections 7 to 22 of this act.

Section 18. On an annual basis, the director shall provide for an evaluation of the program. The evaluation shall include an assessment of the effectiveness of the program in creating new jobs in Missouri and of the revenue impact of the program. The director shall submit a report on the evaluation to the governor, the president pro tem of the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives.

Section 19. An agreement between the board and an eligible industry shall provide that all or part of program costs are to be met by receipt of assessments. Assessments shall be based upon wages paid to eligible employees. If business or employment conditions cause the amount of the assessment to be less than the amount projected in the agreement for any time period, then a portion of withholding tax paid by the employer pursuant to sections 143.191 to 143.265, RSMo, may be credited to the board by the amount of such difference. The employer shall remit the amount of the assessment to the board. When all program costs, including the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the certificates have been paid, the employer credits shall cease.

Section 20. 1. The board shall establish a special fund for and in the name of each project. All received by the board in respect of the project and required by the agreement to be used to pay program costs for the project shall be deposited in the special fund. Amounts held in the special fund may be used and disbursed by the board only to pay program costs for the project.

2. Any disbursement in respect of a project pursuant to the provisions of sections 7 to 22 of this act, and the special fund into which it is paid, may be irrevocably pledged by the board for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the certificate issued by the board to finance or refinance, in whole or in part, the project.

3. The employer shall certify to the department of revenue that the assessment is in accordance with an agreement and shall provide other information the department may require.

4. If an agreement provides that all or part of program costs are to be met by receipt of assessments, the provisions of this section shall also apply to any successor to the original employer until such time as the principal and interest on the certificates have been paid.

Section 21. 1. To provide funds for the present payment of the costs of economic development projects, the board may borrow money and issue and sell certificates payable from a sufficient portion of the future receipts of payments authorized by the agreement. The total amount of outstanding certificates sold by the board shall not exceed thirty-five million dollars. This amount can be increased if authorized in writing by the commissioner of administration and the chairman of the senate appropriations committee and the chairman of the house budget committee. The receipts shall be pledged to the payment of principal of and interest on the certificates. Certificates may be sold at public sale or at private sale at par, premium, or discount of not less than ninety-five percent of the par value thereof, at the discretion of the board, and may bear interest at such rate or rates as the board shall determine, notwithstanding the provisions of section 108.170, RSMo, to the contrary. Certificates may be issued with respect to a single project or multiple projects and may contain terms or conditions as the board may provide by resolution authorizing the issuance of the certificates.

2. Certificates issued to refund other certificates may be sold at public sale or at private sale as provided in this section with the proceeds from the sale to be used for the payment of the certificates being refunded. The refunding certificates may be exchanged in payment and discharge of the certificates being refunded, in installments at different times or an entire issue or series at one time. Refunding certificates may be sold or exchanged at any time on, before, or after the maturity of the outstanding certificates to be refunded. They may be issued for the purpose of refunding a like, greater or lesser principal amount of certificates and may bear a higher, lower or equivalent rate of interest than the certificates being renewed or refunded.

3. The board shall determine if revenues provided in the agreement are sufficient to secure the faithful performance of obligations in the agreement.

4. Certificates issued pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to be an indebtedness of the state or the board or of any political subdivision of the state.

Section 22. 1. The approved company shall remit to the board a job development assessment fee, not to exceed five percent of the gross wages of each eligible employee whose job was created as a result of the economic development project, for the purpose of retiring bonds which fund the economic development project.

2. Amend Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1237, Page 17, Section 67.1000, Line 20, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"71.015. 1. Should any city, town, or village, not located in any county of the first classification which has adopted a constitutional charter for its own local government, seek to annex an area to which objection is made, the following shall be satisfied:

(1) Before the governing body of any city, town, or village has adopted a resolution to annex any unincorporated area of land, such city, town, or village shall first as a condition precedent determine that the land to be annexed is contiguous to the existing city, town, or village limits and that the length of the contiguous boundary common to the existing city, town, or village limit and the proposed area to be annexed is at least fifteen percent of the length of the perimeter of the area proposed for annexation.

(2) The governing body of any city, town, or village shall propose an ordinance setting forth the following:

(a) The area to be annexed and affirmatively stating that the boundaries comply with the condition precedent referred to in subdivision (1) above;

(b) That such annexation is reasonable and necessary to the proper development of the city, town, or village;

(c) That the city has developed a "plan of intent" to provide services to the area proposed for annexation;

(d) That a public hearing shall be held prior to the adoption of the ordinance;

(e) When the annexation is proposed to be effective, the effective date being up to thirty-six months from the date of any election held in conjunction thereto.

(3) The city, town, or village shall fix a date for a public hearing on the ordinance and make a good faith effort to notify all fee owners of record within the area proposed to be annexed by certified mail, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days before the hearing, and notify all residents of the area by publication of notice in a newspaper of general circulation qualified to publish legal matters in the county or counties where the proposed area is located, at least [two weeks prior to] once a week for three consecutive weeks prior to the hearing, with at least one such notice being not more than twenty days and not less than ten days before the hearing.

(4) At the hearing referred to in subdivision (3), the city, town, or village shall present the "plan of intent" and evidence in support thereof to include:

(a) A list of major services presently provided by the city, town, or village including, but not limited to, police and fire protection, water and sewer systems, street maintenance, parks and recreation, refuse collection, etc.;

(b) A proposed time schedule whereby the city, town, or village plans to provide such services to the residents of the proposed area to be annexed within three years from the date the annexation is to become effective;

(c) The level at which the city, town, or village assesses property and the rate at which it taxes that property;

(d) How the city, town, or village proposes to zone the area to be annexed;

(e) When the proposed annexation shall become effective.

(5) Following the hearing, should the governing body of the city, town, or village vote favorably by ordinance to annex the area, then before proceeding as otherwise authorized by law or charter for annexation of unincorporated areas, file an action in the circuit court of the county in which such unincorporated area is situated, under the provisions of chapter 527, RSMo, praying for a declaratory judgment authorizing such annexation. The petition in such action shall state facts showing:

(a) The area to be annexed and its conformity with the condition precedent referred to in subdivision (1) of this subsection;

(b) That such annexation is reasonable and necessary to the proper development of the city, town, or village; and

(c) The ability of the city, town, or village to furnish normal municipal services of the city, town, or village to the unincorporated area within a reasonable time not to exceed three years after the annexation is to become effective. Such action shall be a class action against the inhabitants of such unincorporated area under the provisions of section 507.070, RSMo.

(6) Except as provided in subsection 3 of this section, if the court authorizes the city, town, or village to make an annexation, the legislative body of such city, town, or village shall not have the power to extend the limits of the city, town, or village by such annexation until an election is held at which the proposition for annexation is approved by a majority of the total votes cast in the city, town, or village and by a separate majority of the total votes cast in the unincorporated territory sought to be annexed. However, should less than a majority of the total votes cast in the area proposed to be annexed vote in favor of the proposal, but at least a majority of the total votes cast in the city, town, or village vote in favor of the proposal, then the proposal shall again be voted upon in not more than one hundred twenty days by both the registered voters of the city, town, or village and the registered voters of the area proposed to be annexed. If at least two-thirds of the qualified electors voting thereon are in favor of the annexation, then the city, town, or village may proceed to annex the territory. If the proposal fails to receive the necessary majority, no part of the area sought to be annexed may be the subject of another proposal to annex for a period of two years from the date of the election, except that, during the two-year period, the owners of all fee interests of record in the area or any portion of the area may petition the city, town, or village for the annexation of the land owned by them pursuant to the procedures in section 71.012. The elections shall if authorized be held, except as herein otherwise provided, in accordance with the general state law governing special elections, and the entire cost of the election or elections shall be paid by the city, town, or village proposing to annex the territory.

(7) Failure to comply in providing services to the said area or to zone in compliance with the "plan of intent" within three years after the effective date of the annexation, unless compliance is made unreasonable by an act of God, shall give rise to a cause of action for deannexation which may be filed in the circuit court by any resident of the area who was residing in the area at the time the annexation became effective.

(8) No city, town, or village which has filed an action under this section as this section read prior to May 13, 1980, which action is part of an annexation proceeding pending on May 13, 1980, shall be required to comply with subdivision (5) of this subsection in regard to such annexation proceeding[.];

(9) If the area proposed for annexation includes a public road or highway but does not include all of the land adjoining such road or highway, then such fee owners of record, of the lands adjoining said highway shall be permitted to intervene in the declaratory judgment action described in subdivision (5) of this subsection.

2. Notwithstanding any provision of subsection 1 of this section, for any annexation by any city with a population of three hundred fifty thousand or more inhabitants which is located in more than one county that becomes effective after August 28, 1994, if such city has not provided water and sewer service to such annexed area within three years of the effective date of the annexation, a cause of action shall lie for deannexation, unless the failure to provide such water and sewer service to the annexed area is made unreasonable by an act of God. The cause of action for deannexation may be filed in the circuit court by any resident of the annexed area who is presently residing in the area at the time of the filing of the suit and was a resident of the annexed area at the time the annexation became effective. If the suit for deannexation is successful, the city shall be liable for all court costs and attorney fees.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (6) of subsection 1 of this section, all cities, towns, and villages located in any county of the first classification with a charter form of government with a population of two hundred thousand or more inhabitants which adjoins a county with a population of nine hundred thousand or more inhabitants shall comply with the provisions of this subsection. If the court authorizes any city, town, or village subject to this subsection to make an annexation, the legislative body of such city, town or village shall not have the power to extend the limits of such city, town, or village by such annexation until an election is held at which the proposition for annexation is approved by a majority of the total votes cast in such city, town, or village and by a separate majority of the total votes cast in the unincorporated territory sought to be annexed; except that:

(1) In the case of a proposed annexation in any area which is contiguous to the existing city, town or village and which is within an area designated as flood plain by the Federal Emergency Management Agency and which is inhabited by no more than thirty registered voters and for which a final declaratory judgment has been granted prior to January 1, 1993, approving such annexation and where notarized affidavits expressing approval of the proposed annexation are obtained from a majority of the registered voters residing in the area to be annexed, the area may be annexed by an ordinance duly enacted by the governing body and no elections shall be required; and

(2) In the case of a proposed annexation of unincorporated territory in which no qualified electors reside, if at least a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposition are in favor of the annexation, the city, town or village may proceed to annex the territory and no subsequent election shall be required.

If the proposal fails to receive the necessary separate majorities, no part of the area sought to be annexed may be the subject of any other proposal to annex for a period of two years from the date of such election, except that, during the two-year period, the owners of all fee interests of record in the area or any portion of the area may petition the city, town, or village for the annexation of the land owned by them pursuant to the procedures in section 71.012. The election shall, if authorized, be held, except as otherwise provided in this section, in accordance with the general state laws governing special elections, and the entire cost of the election or elections shall be paid by the city, town, or village proposing to annex the territory. Failure of the city, town or village to comply in providing services to the area or to zone in compliance with the "plan of intent" within three years after the effective date of the annexation, unless compliance is made unreasonable by an act of God, shall give rise to a cause of action for deannexation which may be filed in the circuit court by any resident of the area who was residing in such area at the time the annexation became effective or by any nonresident owner of real property in such area."; and

(e)] For purposes of this subdivision the purchaser's destination point shall be determined without regard to the FOB point or other conditions of the sale, and the seller's shipping point is determined without regard to the location of the seller's principle office or place of business.

3. Any corporation described in subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 organized in this state or granted a permit to operate in this state for the transportation or care of passengers shall report its gross earnings within the state on intrastate business and shall also report its gross earnings on all interstate business done in this state which report shall be subject to inquiry for the purpose of determining the amount of income to be included in Missouri taxable income. The previous sentence shall not apply to a railroad.

4. A corporation described in subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 shall include in its Missouri taxable income all income arising from all sources in this state and all income from each transportation service wholly within this state, from each service where the only lines of such corporation used are those in this state, and such proportion of revenue from each service where the facilities of such corporation in this state and in another state or states are used, as the mileage used over the lines of such corporation in the state shall bear to the total mileage used over the lines of such corporation. The taxpayer may elect to compute the portion of income from all sources within this state in the following manner:

(1) The income from all sources shall be determined as provided;

(2) The amount of investment of such corporation on December thirty-first of each year in this state in fixed transportation facilities, real estate and improvements, plus the value on December thirty-first of each year of any fixed transportation facilities, real estate and improvements in this state leased from any other railroad shall be divided by the sum of the total amount of investment of such corporation on December thirty-first of each year in fixed transportation facilities, real estate and improvements, plus the value on December thirty-first of each year, of any fixed transportation facilities, real estate and improvements leased from any other railroad. Where any fixed transportation facilities, real estate or improvements are leased by more than one railroad, such portion of the value shall be used by each railroad as the rental paid by each shall bear to the rental paid by all lessees. The income shall be multiplied by the fraction thus obtained to determine the proportion to be used to arrive at the amount of Missouri taxable income.

5. A corporation described in subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 shall include in its Missouri taxable income one-half of the net income from the operation of a bridge between this and another state. If any such bridge is owned or operated by a railroad corporation or corporations, or by a corporation owning a railroad corporation using such bridge, then the figures for operation of such bridge may be included in the return of such railroad or railroads; or if such bridge is owned or operated by any other corporation which may now or hereafter be required to file an income tax return, one-half of the income or loss to such corporation from such bridge may be included in such return by adding or subtracting same to or from another net income or loss shown by the return.

6. A corporation described in subdivision (4) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 shall include in its Missouri taxable income all income arising from all sources within this state. Income shall include revenue from each telephonic or telegraphic service rendered wholly within this state; from each service rendered for which the only facilities of such corporation used are those in this state; and from each service rendered over the facilities of such corporation in this state and in other state or states, such proportion of such revenue as the mileage involved in this state shall bear to the total mileage involved over the lines of said company in all states. The taxpayer may elect to compute the portion of income from all sources within this state in the following manner:

(1) The income from all sources shall be determined as provided;

(2) The amount of investment of such corporation on December thirty-first of each year in this state in telephonic or telegraphic facilities, real estate and improvements thereon, shall be divided by the amount of the total investment of such corporation on December thirty-first of each year in telephonic or telegraphic facilities, real estate and improvements. The income of the taxpayer shall be multiplied by fraction thus obtained to determine the proportion to be used to arrive at the amount of Missouri taxable income.

7. From the income determined in subsections 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of this section to be from all sources within this state shall be deducted such of the deductions for expenses in determining Missouri taxable income as were incurred in this state to produce such income and all losses actually sustained in this state in the business of the corporation.

8. If a corporation derives only part of its income from sources within Missouri, its Missouri taxable income shall only reflect the effect of the following listed deductions to the extent applicable to Missouri. The deductions are: (a) its deduction for federal income taxes pursuant to section 143.171, and (b) the effect on Missouri taxable income of the deduction for net operating loss allowed by Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code. The extent applicable to Missouri shall be determined by multiplying the amount that would otherwise affect Missouri taxable income by the ratio for the year of the Missouri taxable income of the corporation for the year divided by the Missouri taxable income for the year as though the corporation had derived all of its income from sources within Missouri. For the purpose of the preceding sentence, Missouri taxable income shall not reflect the listed deductions."; and

"99.430. 1. Preparation and approval of redevelopment and urban renewal plans shall be carried out within the following regulations:

(1) An authority shall not acquire real property for a land clearance or urban renewal project unless the governing body of the community in which the land clearance project area or urban renewal project area is located has approved the redevelopment or urban renewal plan, as prescribed in subdivision (9) of this section.

(2) An authority shall not prepare a redevelopment or an urban renewal plan for a land clearance or urban renewal project area unless the governing body of the community in which the area is located has declared, by resolution or ordinance, the area to be a blighted, or insanitary area in need of redevelopment or in need of rehabilitation.

(3) An authority shall not recommend a redevelopment or urban renewal plan to the governing body of the community in which the land clearance or urban renewal project area is located until a general plan for the development of the community has been prepared.

(4) The authority itself may prepare or cause to be prepared a redevelopment or urban renewal plan or any person or agency, public or private, may submit such a plan to an authority. A redevelopment or urban renewal plan shall be sufficiently complete to indicate its relationship to definite local objectives as to appropriate land uses, improved traffic, public transportation, public utilities, recreational and community facilities and other public improvements and the proposed land uses and building requirements in the land clearance or urban renewal project area, and shall include without being limited to:

(e) A statement as to the kind and number of additional public facilities or utilities which will be required in the area after redevelopment or urban renewal; and

(f) A schedule indicating the estimated length of time needed for completion of each phase of the plan.

(5) Prior to recommending a redevelopment or urban renewal plan to the governing body for approval, an authority shall submit the plan to the planning agency, if any, of the community in which the land clearance or urban renewal project area is located for review and recommendations as to its conformity with the general plan for the development of the community as a whole. The planning agency shall submit its written recommendations with respect to the proposed redevelopment or urban renewal plan to the authority within thirty days after receipt of the plan for review. Upon receipt of the recommendations of the planning agency, or, if no recommendations are received within the thirty days, then without the recommendations, an authority may recommend the redevelopment or urban renewal plan to the governing body of the community for approval.

(6) Prior to recommending a redevelopment or urban renewal plan to the governing body for approval, an authority shall consider whether the proposed land uses and building requirements in the land clearance or urban renewal project area are designed with the general purpose of accomplishing, in conformance with the general plan, a coordinated, adjusted and harmonious development of the community and its environs which, in accordance with present and future needs, will promote health, safety, morals, order, convenience, prosperity and the general welfare, as well as efficiency and economy in the process of development; including, among other things, adequate provision for traffic, vehicular parking, the promotion of safety from fire, panic and other dangers, adequate provision for light and air, the promotion of the healthful and convenient distribution of population, the provision of adequate transportation, water, sewerage, and other public utilities, schools, parks, recreational and community facilities and other public requirements, the promotion of sound design and arrangement, the wise and efficient expenditure of public funds, the prevention of the recurrence of insanitary or unsafe dwelling accommodations, or insanitary areas, or conditions of blight or deterioration, and the provision of adequate, safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations.

(7) The recommendation of a redevelopment or urban renewal plan by an authority to the governing body shall be accompanied by the recommendations, if any, of the planning commission concerning the redevelopment or urban renewal plan; a statement of the proposed method and estimated cost of the acquisition and preparation for redevelopment or urban renewal of the land clearance or urban renewal project area and the estimated proceeds or revenues from its disposal to redevelopers; a statement of the proposed method of financing the project; a statement of a feasible method proposed for the relocation of families to be displaced from the land clearance or urban renewal project area; and a schedule indicating the estimated length of time needed for completion of each phase of the plan.

(8) The governing body of the community shall hold a public hearing on any redevelopment or urban renewal plan or substantial modification thereof recommended by the authority, after public notice thereof by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the community once each week for [two] three consecutive weeks, the last publication to be at least ten days prior to the date set for hearing. The governing body shall also post a notice at the main entrance to any commercial building, at the entrance to any residential street, and in other public areas within the area covered by the plan. The notices shall be posted at least 15 days prior to the hearing. The notice shall describe the time, date, place and purpose of the hearing and shall also generally identify the area to be covered by the plan. All interested parties shall be afforded at the public hearing a reasonable opportunity to express their views respecting the proposed redevelopment or urban renewal plan.

(9) Following the hearing, the governing body may approve a redevelopment or urban renewal plan if it finds that the plan is feasible and in conformity with the general plan for the development of the community as a whole. A redevelopment or urban renewal plan which has not been approved by the governing body when recommended by the authority may be recommended again to it with any modifications deemed advisable.

(10) A redevelopment or urban renewal plan may be modified at any time by the authority, provided that, if modified after the lease or sale of real property in the land clearance or urban renewal project area, the modification must be consented to by the redeveloper of the real property or his successor, or their successors in interest affected by the proposed modification. Where the proposed modification will substantially change the redevelopment or urban renewal plan as previously approved by the governing body, the modification must similarly be approved by the governing body.

2. Simultaneously with such recommendation of a finding of a blighted or insanitary or undeveloped industrial area and recommendation of a plan to the governing body for approval, an authority shall submit the finding of a blighted or insanitary or undeveloped area and the plan to the planning agency, if any, of the community in which the project area is located for review and recommendation as to the conformity of the plan to the general plan for the development of the community as a whole. The planning agency shall submit its written recommendations with respect to the finding of a blighted or insanitary or undeveloped industrial area and the plan to the authority and the local governing body within thirty days after receipt of the findings and the plan for review. Upon receipt of the recommendations of the planning agency, or, if no recommendations are received within the thirty days, then without the recommendations, the governing body may simultaneously approve the finding of a blighted or insantiary or undeveloped area and approve the plan in the manner prescribed in subdivisions (8) and (9) of subsection 1."; and

Amend Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1237, Page 98, Section 338.196, Line 12, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"370.366. 1. Upon compliance with any applicable laws of the United States and upon obtaining the approval of the directors of the division of finance and the division of credit unions within the department of economic development, any central credit union organized pursuant to section 370.365 may be converted under the laws of this state into a bank or trust company located in this state, or may be consolidated or merged with one or more banks or trust companies or central credit unions incorporated under the laws of the United States or any state under the charter of a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state; provided, however, that the central credit union and its members must comply with the procedure, notice and voting requirements of sections 370.351 to 370.357, and that the approval of the director of finance shall not be required for transactions not involving a bank or trust company. The name of the resulting or surviving bank or trust company in the case of conversion, consolidation or merger may be the name of a party to the conversion, consolidation or merger, provided that in no case shall the name contain the word "national" or "federal" or be the same as or deceptively similar to the name of any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state which is engaged in business at the time of the particular conversion, consolidation or merger and is not a party thereto.

2. (1) In the case of conversion the majority of the board of directors of the central credit union shall proceed as is provided by law for other individuals incorporating a bank or trust company under the laws of this state except that the articles of agreement:

(a) May provide that instead of the capital stock having actually been paid up in money it is to be paid up in assets of the converting central credit union, the net value of which is equal to at least the full amount of the capital stock of the proposed resulting bank or trust company which capital stock shall be no less than that required by law for a bank or trust company, as the case may be, to be located in the state of Missouri;

(b) Shall provide that the proposed resulting bank or trust company is and shall be considered the same business and corporate entity as, and a continuation of the corporate entity and identity of, the converting central credit union although as to rights, powers and duties the proposed resulting institution is a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the state of Missouri;

(c) Shall set out the names and addresses of all persons who are to be officers of the proposed bank or trust company; and

(d) Shall set out the manner as provided in subdivision (1) of section 370.356 in which the ownership interest of the members shall be converted into stock of the resulting bank or trust company which stock ownership by the member or shareholder shall be lawful for this sole purpose; provided, however, that the director of finance may reject any such application upon a determination that the statutory treatment accorded the members of the converting central credit union is not fair and reasonable.

(2) If the director of finance, as the result of an examination and investigation made by the division of finance, is satisfied that such assets are of such value and that the character, responsibility and general fitness of the persons named in the articles of agreement are such as to command confidence and warrant belief that the business of the proposed corporation will be honestly and efficiently conducted in accordance with the purpose and intent of the laws of this state relative to banks or trust companies, the director of finance shall grant the charter. If the director of finance is not satisfied, the director of finance shall forthwith give notice thereof to the majority of the board of directors of the converting central credit union who shall have the same right of appeal as is provided by the laws of this state in the case of the proposed incorporators of a new bank or trust company.

(3) Upon the approval of the particular conversion being granted, the director of finance shall execute and deliver to the majority of the board of directors of the converting central credit union a certificate declaring that the bank or trust company therein named has been duly organized and is the institution resulting from the conversion of the central credit union into the resulting bank or trust company, and that the resulting bank or trust company is and shall be considered the same business and corporate entity as, and a continuation of the corporate entity and identify of, the converting central credit union. The certificate shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county or city in which the resulting bank or trust company is located and the certificate so recorded, or certified copies thereof, shall be taken in all the courts of this state as evidence of the conversion of the central credit union into the resulting bank or trust company and that the resulting bank or trust company is the same business and corporate entity as, and a continuation of the corporate entity and identity of, the converting central credit union.

(4) When the director of finance has given a certificate as aforesaid:

(a) The resulting bank or trust company and all its stockholders, directors, officers, and employees shall have the same powers and privileges and be subject to the same duties and liabilities in all respects as if such an institution had originally been organized as a bank or trust company under the laws of this state;

(b) All the rights, franchises, and interests of the converting central credit union in and to every type of property, real, personal and mixed, and choses in action thereto belonging shall be deemed to be transferred to and vest in the resulting bank or trust company without any deed or other transfer; and

(c) The resulting bank or trust company by virtue of the conversion and without any order of any court or otherwise shall hold and enjoy the same and all rights of property and interests including, but not limited to, appointments, designations and nominations and all other rights and interests, as trustee, personal representative, conservator, receiver, registrar, assignee and every other fiduciary capacity in the same manner and to the same extent as these rights and interests were held or enjoyed by the converting central credit union at the time of its conversion into the resulting bank or trust company; provided, however, that its corporate powers shall be limited to those granted to a bank or trust company under the laws of this state.

3. In the case of consolidation or merger, the same shall be consummated by each federally chartered central credit union complying with the laws of the United States relating to the consent of its members, by each state chartered central credit union complying with sections 370.351 to 370.357 relating to the consent of its members, and also by each bank or trust company complying with the provisions of the laws of this state relating to consolidation or merger of banks or trust companies, except that where the resulting institution is a bank rather than a trust company the number and qualifications of directors and any requirement that directors shall or may be divided into classes shall be determined as provided by law for banks. The rights of dissenting shareholders of the bank or trust company shall be determined as provided by the laws of this state in the case of consolidation or merger of banks or trust companies. The rights of dissenting shareholders of the central credit union shall be determined as provided by section 370.356. In the case of consolidation or merger the resulting bank or trust company shall be considered the same business and corporate entity as, and a continuation of the corporate entity and identity of, each central credit union and each bank or trust company which is a party to the consolidation or merger."; and

SEVENTY-SIXTH DAY, Thursday, May 16, 1996

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

The minutes and hours tick along on a clock that, in its history, has been fast and slow and sometimes still. These last two days of session exert a pressure to complete, to finalize, to culminate all the busyness of the past five months. As the actions of this body become a part of this state's history, reassure us, O God of all that is, was, or ever shall be, in the knowledge that we have done our best. Perhaps things have been said or done that were harmful - forgive us. Perhaps things have been said or done that resulted in injustice - forgive us. Among ALL that has been done, we know that good and just actions have been taken - bless what we have accomplished for the common good.

And now, as these representatives see light at the end of the tunnel, as they begin to gather up papers and personal items to make long trips back to friends and family, bless them in their efforts. Bless them as they reflect on and consider their actions and their relationships with one another during this session - Republican or Democrat - because we know, O Lord, that in your sight there are no party affiliations. We thank you, God, for your never- failing, unconditional love. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Jene' Hodges, Amber Perez, Steven Thompson, Daniel Scannell, Sherease Stewart, Shemika McGee, Shana Lasley, Shanay Gregory, Josh Gozdecki, Erin Drayton, Helen Swearson, Mike Wolff, Megan Gross, Stephanie Smith, Brett Wise and Lucas E. 575.130. 1. A person commits the crime of simulating legal process if, with purpose to mislead the recipient and cause him to take action in reliance thereon, he delivers or causes to be delivered:

(1) A request for the payment of money on behalf of any creditor that in form and substance simulates any legal process issued by any court of this state; or

(2) Any purported summons, subpoena or other legal process knowing that the process was not issued or authorized by any court.

2. This section shall not apply to a subpoena properly issued by a notary public.

3. Simulating legal process is a class B misdemeanor.

4. No person shall file a nonconsensual common law lien as defined in section 1 of this act.

5. A violation of subsection 4 of this section is a class B misdemeanor.

6. Subsection 4 of this section shall not apply to a filing officer as defined in section 1 of this act that is acting in the scope of employment.

Section 1. 1. For the purposes of sections 1 to 7 of this act:

(1) "Court" is the United States Supreme Court, Federal Courts of Appeal, Federal District Courts, Federal Magistrates, Federal Administrative Courts, Missouri supreme court, Missouri courts of appeal, Missouri circuit courts, and Missouri associate circuit courts but shall not include municipal courts;

(2) "Filing officer" is the secretary of state, the recorder of deeds of any county, the circuit clerk of any county or any public official or authorized employee required by law to accept for filing and keep as a public record any lien, deed, instrument, judgment or other document, whether in paper, electronic or other form, required to be filed or recorded under the laws of this state;

(3) "Nonconsensual common law lien" is a document that purports to assert a lien against the assets, real or personal, of any person and that, regardless of any self-description:

(a) Is not expressly provided for by a specific state or federal statute;

(b) Does not depend upon the consent of the owner of the property affected or the existence of a contract for its existence; and

(c) Is not an equitable or constructive lien imposed by a state or federal court of competent jurisdiction.

2. Nothing in sections 1 to 7 of this act shall be construed to create a lien or interest in property not otherwise existing under state or federal law.

3. Nothing in sections 1 to 7 of this act shall be construed to permit a municipal court to create a lien or interest in property not otherwise existing under state or federal law.

Section 2. 1. Any filing officer may reject for filing or recording any nonconsensual common law lien. This section shall not be construed to permit rejection of a document that is shown to be authorized by contract, lease or statute or imposed by a state or federal court of competent jurisdiction or filed by a licensed attorney, a financial institution including, but not limited to, any commercial bank, savings and loan association or credit union or a Missouri state licensed mortgage company or mortgage broker.

2. If a nonconsensual common law lien has been accepted for filing, the filing officer shall accept for filing a sworn notice of invalid lien on a form provided by the filing officer signed and submitted by the person against whom such lien was filed or such person's attorney. The form shall be captioned "Notice of Invalid Lien" and shall state the name and address of the person on whose behalf such notice is filed, the name and address of the lien claimant and a clear reference to the document or documents the person believes constitute a nonconsensual common law lien. A copy of the notice of invalid lien shall be mailed by the filing officer to the lien claimant at the lien claimant's last known address within one business day. No filing officer, county or the state shall be liable for the acceptance for filing of a nonconsensual common law lien, nor for the acceptance for filing of a sworn notice of invalid lien pursuant to this subsection.

Section 3. Any person who attempts to file a lien against real or personal property that is rejected pursuant to subsection 1 of section 2 of this act may petition the circuit court of the county of the filing officer that rejected such lien for an order, which may be granted ex parte, directing the filing officer to file or record the lien pending a hearing on whether the lien constitutes a nonconsensual common law lien. The lien claimant shall appear before the court as the petitioner within ten business days following the date of service of the petition and order on the filing officer, and show cause, if any, why the lien should not be declared void and other relief provided for by section 5 of this act should not be granted. The petition shall state the grounds upon which relief is requested, and shall be supported by the affidavit of the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney setting forth a concise statement of the facts upon which the claim for relief is based.

Section 4. Any person who has real or personal property or an interest therein, which is subject to a recorded nonconsensual common law lien who believes such lien is invalid may petition the circuit court of the county in which the lien has been recorded or filed for an order, which may be granted ex parte, directing the lien claimant to appear before the court within ten business days following the date of service of the petition and order on the lien claimant, and show cause, if any, why the claim of lien should not be declared void and other relief provided for by section 5 of this act should not be granted. The petition shall state the grounds upon which relief is requested, and shall be supported by the affidavit of the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney setting forth a concise statement of the facts upon which the claim for relief is based.

Section 5. 1. Any order rendered pursuant to section 3 or 4 of this act shall clearly state that if the lien claimant fails to appear at the time and place noted, the claim of lien shall be declared void ab initio and released and that the lien claimant shall be ordered to pay the costs incurred by any other party to the proceeding, including reasonable attorney's fees.

2. If, following a hearing on the matter, the court determines that the document at issue is a nonconsensual common law lien, the court shall issue an order declaring the lien void ab initio, releasing the lien and awarding costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

3. If the court determines that the claim of lien is valid, the court shall issue an order so stating and may award costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

4. A certified copy of any order rendered pursuant to this section shall be filed by the circuit clerk in the office of the appropriate filing officer.

Section 6. Filing officers and any employees thereof, acting in the scope of employment, shall not be liable for damages pursuant to sections 1 to 5 of this act and, except as otherwise provided by law, shall not be required to defend decisions to accept or reject any documents.

Section 7. Any person who records or files in the office of a filing officer:

(1) Any document purporting to create a nonconsensual common law lien against real or personal property; or

(2) A notice of invalid lien pursuant to subsection 2 of section 2 of this act with respect to a valid lien and which the filer knew to be false at the time of filing;

shall be liable to the damaged party for actual damages or five thousand dollars, whichever is greater plus costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

Section E. Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SEVENTY-SEVENTH DAY, Friday, May 17, 1996

Speaker Pro Tem Daniels in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"What thanks can we render?" (I Thess. 3:9)

Once again, we come to the end of the session of the 88th General Assembly, a first experience for some, a day of old memories for many. We give thanks to our God for the guidance and grace which was showered on us directly and mediated through so many sources - firstly our families at home and our partners in business, then our hard-working office staff, the special House clerical and floor staff, information and accounting, the post office, researchers, graphic artists, and printers, maintenance and engineering, caterers, suppliers of information and citizen input. We pay a special tribute to our departing Chief Clerk, Doug Burnett, who has served this House in several capacities for twenty-six years. We say a fond farewell to those of you who have decided to leave and those who will be asked to leave by the voters! That brings us to our last point this morning gracious Lord, a fervent prayer that we would let our integrity, our sense of fairness and trust and respect for the electorate and democratic process be the guide of all of our campaign literature and speeches and of our staff. "What does it profit if we gain the whole world and lose our souls." (Mk. 8:36). Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Dale Herzing, Julie Herzing, Jessica Herzing, Samantha Smith, Josh Baldridge, Kate Gruenwald, Paul Morris, Cullan Brian May, Allison Elizabeth May, Roxanne Getty, Seldon Getty, Blake Gott, Jamie Bodine, Eric Ling, Brittany Finney, Stephanie Garnett, Danny O'Neill, Meredith Gibbons, Christina "Chrissy" Tripp, Amanda Duncan, Curtis Pemberton,Victoria "Vicki" Long, Bryce Shields and Brandt Shields.

455.030. 1. When the court is unavailable after business hours or on holidays or weekends, a verified petition for protection from abuse or a motion for hearing on violation of any order of protection under sections 455.010 to 455.085 may be filed before any available circuit or associate circuit court judge in the city or county having jurisdiction to hear the petition pursuant to the guidelines developed pursuant to subsection 4 of this section. All papers in connection with the filing of a petition or the granting of an ex parte order of protection or a motion for a hearing on a violation of an order of protection under this section shall be certified by such judge or the clerk within the next regular business day to the circuit court having jurisdiction to hear the petition.

3. A petitioner seeking a protection order shall not be required to reveal any current address or place of residence except to the judge in camera for the purpose of determining jurisdiction and venue. 4. The supreme court shall develop guidelines which ensure that a verified petition may be filed on holidays, evenings and weekends.

455.040. 1. Not later than fifteen days after the filing of a petition under sections 455.010 to 455.085 a hearing shall be held unless the court deems, for good cause shown, that a continuance should be granted. At the hearing, if the petitioner has proved the allegation of abuse or stalking by a preponderance of the evidence, the court shall issue a full order of protection for a [definite] period of time [, not to exceed one hundred eighty days] the court deems appropriate, except that the protective order shall be valid for at least one hundred eighty days and not more than one year. If for good cause a hearing cannot be held on the motion to renew the full order of protection prior to the expiration date of the originally issued full order of protection, an ex parte order of protection may be issued until a hearing is held on the motion. Upon motion by the petitioner, and after a hearing by the court, the second full order of protection may be renewed for an additional period [not to exceed] of time the court deems appropriate, except that the protective order shall be valid for at least one hundred eighty days and not more than one year. For purposes of this subsection, a finding by the court of a subsequent act of abuse is not required for a renewal order of protection.

2. The court shall cause a copy of the petition and notice of the date set for the hearing on such petition and any ex parte order of protection to be personally served upon the respondent by personal process server as provided by law or by any sheriff or police officer at least three days prior to such hearing. Such shall be served at the earliest time, and service of such shall take priority over service in other actions, except those of a similar emergency nature. The court shall cause a copy of any full order of protection to be served upon or mailed by certified mail to the respondent at his last known address. With Senate Amendment No. 1

AMEND Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1081, Page 10, Line 25, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

"208.169. 1. Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter, including but notin limited to sections 208.152, 208.153, 208.159 and 208.162:

(1) There shall be no revisions to a facility's reimbursement rate for providing nursing care services under this chapter upon a change in ownership, management control, operation, stock, leasehold interests by whatever form for any facility previously licensed or certified for participation in the medicaid program. Increased costs for the successor owner, management or leaseholder that result from such a change shall not be recognized for purposes of reimbursement;

(2) In the case of a newly built facility or part thereof which is less than two years of age and enters the Title XIX program under this chapter after July 1, 1983, a reimbursement rate shall be assigned based on the lesser of projected estimated operating costs or one hundred ten percent of the median rate for the facility's class to include urban and rural categories for each level of care including ICF only and SNF and SNF/ICF. The rates set under this provision shall be effective for a period of twelve months from the effective date of the provider agreement at which time the rate for the future year shall be set in accordance with reported costs of the facility recognized under the reimbursement plan and as provided in subdivisions (3) and (4) of this subsection. Rates set under this section may in no case exceed the maximum ceiling amounts in effect under the reimbursement regulation;

(3) Reimbursement for capital related expenses for newly built facilities entering the Title XIX program after March 18, 1983, shall be calculated as the building and building equipment rate, movable equipment rate, land rate, and working capital rate.

(a) The building and building equipment rate will be the lower of:

a. Actual acquisition costs, which is the original cost to construct or acquire the building, not to exceed the costs as determined in section 197.357, RSMo; or

b. Reasonable construction or acquisition cost computed by applying the regional Dodge Construction Index for 1981 with a trend factor, if necessary, or another current construction cost measure multiplied by one hundred eight percent as an allowance for fees authorized as architectural or legal not included in the Dodge Index Value, multiplied by the square footage of the facility not to exceed three hundred twenty-five square feet per bed, multiplied by the ratio of forty minus the actual years of the age of the facility divided by forty; and multiplied by a return rate of twelve percent; and divided by ninety-three percent of the facility's total available beds times three hundred sixty-five days.

(b) The maximum movable equipment rate will be fifty-three cents per bed day.

(c) The maximum allowable land area is defined as five acres for a facility with one hundred or less beds and one additional acre for each additional one hundred beds or fraction thereof for a facility with one hundred one or more beds.

(d) The land rate will be calculated as:

a. For facilities with land areas at or below the maximum allowable land area, multiply the acquisition cost of the land by the return rate of twelve percent, divide by ninety-three percent of the facility's total available beds times three hundred sixty-five days.

b. For facilities with land areas greater than the maximum allowable land area, divide the acquisition cost of the land by the total acres, multiply by the maximum allowable land area, multiply by the return rate of twelve percent, divide by ninety-three percent of the facility's total available beds times three hundred sixty-five days.

(e) The maximum working capital rate will be twenty cents per day;

(4) If a provider does not provide the actual acquisition cost to determine a reimbursement rate under subparagraph a. of paragraph (a) of subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of this section, the sum of the building and building equipment rate, movable equipment rate, land rate, and working capital rate shall be set at a reimbursement rate of six dollars;

(5) For each state fiscal year a negotiated trend factor shall be applied to each facility's Title XIX per diem reimbursement rate. The trend factor shall be determined through negotiations between the department and the affected providers and is intended to hold the providers harmless against increases in cost. In no circumstances shall the negotiated trend factor to be applied to state funds exceed the health care finance administration market basket price index for that year. The provisions of this subdivision shall apply to fiscal year 1996 and thereafter.

2. The provisions of subdivisions (1), (2), (3), and (4) of subsection 1 of this section shall remain in effect until July 1, 1989, unless otherwise provided by law.

[3. The provisions of this section shall not apply in any respect for any reason to any intermediate care facility exclusively for the mentally retarded/developmentally disabled which entered the Title XIX program after July 1, 1983.]"; and Further amend said bill, in the title and enacting clause accordingly.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

The President Pro Tem has appointed the following Conference Committee to act with a like Committee from the House: Senators Caskey, Moseley, Maxwell, Graves and Westfall.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SS SCS HB 1113, entitled:

An act to repeal section 173.239, RSMo Supp. 1995, relating to certain scholarship programs, and to enact in lieu thereof six new sections relating to the same subject.

With Senate Amendment No. 1

Senate Amendment No. 1

Amend Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1113, Page 2, Section 173.239, Line 27 of said page by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"173.250. 1. There is hereby established a "Higher Education Academic Scholarship Program" and any moneys appropriated by the general assembly for this program shall be used to provide scholarships for Missouri citizens to attend a Missouri college or university of their choice pursuant to the provisions of this section.

2. The definitions of terms set forth in section 173.205 shall be applicable to such terms as used in this section. The term "academic scholarship" means an amount of money paid by the state of Missouri to a qualified college or university student who has demonstrated superior academic achievement pursuant to the provisions of this section.

3. The coordinating board for higher education shall be the administrative agency for the implementation of the program established by this section, and shall:

(1) Promulgate reasonable rules and regulations for the exercise of its functions and the effectuation of the purposes of this section, including regulations for granting scholarship deferments;

(2) Prescribe the form and the time and method of awarding academic scholarships, and shall supervise the processing thereof; and

(3) Select qualified recipients to receive academic scholarships, make such awards of academic scholarships to qualified recipients and determine the manner and method of payment to the recipient.

4. A student shall be eligible for initial or renewed academic scholarship if he or she is in compliance with the eligibility requirements set forth in section 173.215 excluding the requirement of financial need and undergraduate status and excluding the provisions of subdivision (6) of subsection 1 of section 173.215, and in addition meets the following requirements:

(1) Initial academic scholarships shall be offered in the academic year immediately following graduation from high school to Missouri high school seniors whose composite scores on the American College Testing Program (ACT) or the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) of the College Board are in the top three percent of all Missouri students taking those tests during the school year in which the scholarship recipients graduate from high school. In the freshman year of college, scholarship recipients are required to maintain status as a full-time student;

(2) Academic scholarships are renewable if the recipient remains in compliance with the applicable provisions of section 173.215 and the recipient makes satisfactory academic degree progress as a full-time student.

5. A student who is enrolled or has been accepted for enrollment as a postsecondary student at an approved private or public institution beginning with the fall, 1987, term and who meets the other eligibility requirements for an academic scholarship shall, within the limits of the funds appropriated and made available, be offered an academic scholarship in the amount of two thousand dollars for the first academic year of study, which scholarship shall be renewable in the amount of two thousand dollars annually for the second, third and fourth academic years or as long as the recipient is in compliance with the applicable eligibility requirements set forth in section 173.215 except as provided in this section, provided those years of study are continuous and the student continues to meet eligibility requirements for the scholarship; provided, however, if a recipient ceases all attendance at an approved public or private institution for the purpose of providing service to a nonprofit organization, a state or federal government agency or any branch of the armed forces of the United States, the recipient shall be eligible for a renewal scholarship upon return to any approved public or private institution, provided the recipient:

(1) Returns to full-time status within twenty-seven months;

(2) Provides verification in compliance with coordinating board for higher education rules that the service to the nonprofit organization was satisfactorily completed and was not compensated other than for expenses or that the service to the state or federal governmental agency or branch of the armed forces of the United States was satisfactorily completed; and

(3) Meets all other requirements established for eligibility to receive a renewal scholarship.

6. A recipient of academic scholarship awarded under this section may transfer from one approved Missouri public or private institution to another without losing eligibility for the scholarship. If a recipient of the scholarship at any time withdraws from an approved private or public institution so that under the rules and regulations of that institution he or she is entitled to a refund of any tuition, fees or other charges, the institution shall pay the portion of the refund attributable to the scholarship for that term to the coordinating board for higher education.

7. Other provisions of this section to the contrary notwithstanding, if a recipient has been awarded an initial academic scholarship pursuant to the provisions of this section but is unable to use the scholarship during the first academic year because of illness, disability, pregnancy or other medical need or if a recipient ceases all attendance at an approved public or private institution because of illness, disability, pregnancy or other medical need, the recipient shall be eligible for an initial or renewal scholarship upon enrollment in or return to any approved public or private institution, provided the recipient:

(1) Enrolls in or returns to full-time status within twenty-seven months;

(2) Provides verification in compliance with coordinating board for higher education rules of sufficient medical evidence documenting an illness, disability, pregnancy or other medical need of such person to require that that person will not be able to use the initial or renewal scholarship during the time period for which it was originally offered; and

(3) Meets all other requirements established for eligibility to receive an initial or a renewal scholarship."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

If the division makes the determination that a person's life or safety may be in danger, the identifying information shall not be released. However, the investigation reports will not be released to any alleged perpetrator with pending criminal charges arising out of the facts and circumstances named in the investigation records until an indictment is returned or an information filed;

(6) A grand jury, juvenile officer, prosecuting attorney, law enforcement officer involved in the investigation of child abuse or neglect, juvenile court or other court conducting abuse or neglect or child protective proceedings, and other federal, state and local government entities, or any agent of such entity, with a need for such information in order to carry out its responsibilities under the law to protect children from abuse or neglect;

(7) Any person engaged in a bona fide research purpose, with the permission of the director; provided, however, that no information identifying the child named in the report as a victim or the reporters shall be made available to the researcher, unless the identifying information is essential to the research or evaluation and the child named in the report as a victim or, if the child is less than eighteen years of age, through the child's parent, or guardian provides written permission;

(8) Any child care facility; child placing agency; residential care facility, including group homes; juvenile courts; public or private elementary schools; public or private secondary schools; or any other public or private agency exercising temporary supervision over a child or providing or having care or custody of a child who may request an examination of the central registry from the division for all employees and volunteers or prospective employees and volunteers, who do or will provide services or care to children. Any agency or business recognized by the division of family services or business which provides training and places or recommends people for employment or for volunteers in positions where they will provide services or care to children may request the division to provide an examination of the central registry. Such agency or business shall provide verification of its status as a recognized agency. Requests for examinations shall be made to the division director or the director's designee in writing by the chief administrative officer of the above homes, centers, public and private elementary schools, public and private secondary schools, agencies, or courts. The division shall respond in writing to that officer. The response shall include information pertaining to the nature and disposition of any report or reports of abuse or neglect revealed by the examination of the central registry. This response shall not include any identifying information regarding any person other than the alleged perpetrator of the abuse or neglect;

(9) Any person who inquires about a child abuse or neglect report involving a specific child care facility, child placing agency, residential care facility, public and private elementary schools, public and private secondary schools, juvenile court or other state agency. The information available to these persons is limited to the nature and disposition of any report contained in the central registry and shall not include any identifying information pertaining to any person mentioned in the report;

(10) Any state agency acting pursuant to statutes regarding a license of any person, institution, or agency which provides care for or services to children;

(11) Any child fatality review panel established pursuant to section 210.192 or any state child fatality review panel established pursuant to section 210.195.

3. Only the following persons shall have access to records maintained by the division pursuant to section 210.152 for which the division has received a report of child abuse and neglect and which the division has determined that there is insufficient evidence or in which the division proceeded with the family assessment and services approach:

(1) Appropriate staff of the division;

(2) Any child named in the report as a victim, or a legal representative, or the parent or guardian of such person when such person is a minor, or is mentally ill or otherwise incompetent. The names or other identifying information of reporters shall not be furnished to persons in this category. Prior to the release of any identifying information, the division of family services shall determine if the release of such identifying information may place a person's life or safety in danger. If the division makes the determination that a person's life or safety may be in danger, the identifying information shall not be released. The division shall provide for a method for confirming or certifying that a designee is acting on behalf of a subject;

(3) Any alleged perpetrator named in the report, but the names of reporters shall not be furnished to persons in this category. Prior to the release of any identifying information, the division of family services shall determine if the release of such identifying information may place a person's life or safety in danger. If the division makes the determination that a person's life or safety may be in danger, the identifying information shall not be released. However, the investigation reports will not be released to any alleged perpetrator with pending criminal charges arising out of the facts and circumstances named in the investigation records until an indictment is returned or an information filed;

(4) Any child fatality review panel established pursuant to section 210.192 or any state child fatality review panel established pursuant to section 210.195;

(5) Appropriate criminal justice agency personnel or juvenile officer;

(6) Multidisciplinary agency or individual including a physician or physician's designee who is providing services to the child or family, with the consent of the parent or guardian of the child or legal representative of the child;

(7) Any person engaged in bona fide research purpose, with the permission of the director; provided, however, that no information identifying the subjects of the reports or the reporters shall be made available to the researcher, unless the identifying information is essential to the research or evaluation and the subject, or if a child, through the child's parent or guardian, provides written permission.

4. After a period of not less than [one year] sixty days following the notification of a finding by the division, any person who is the subject of a report where there is insufficient evidence of abuse or neglect may file a written appeal with the director of the division of family services to order the records removed from the division and destroyed. If the person who is a subject of a report where there is insufficient evidence of abuse or neglect, is aggrieved by the decision of the director of the division of family services not to remove and destroy the records, such person may petition the circuit court to order the records removed from the division and destroyed. The division shall be named as respondent. Venue shall be in the county where the person resides, or in circuits with split venue in the venue in which the alleged perpetrator resides. If the alleged perpetrator is not a resident of the state, proper venue shall be in Cole County, naming the division of family services as respondent.

5. No person with access to records maintained pursuant to subsection 3 of this section shall use such records in any child custody or visitation proceeding.

6. Except as provided in subdivision (8) of subsection 2 of this section, no employer shall have access to or use any employee's records, contained in the central registry or maintained by the division pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, for the purpose of hiring, promoting, firing, reassigning, demoting or making any other personnel decisions regarding such employee.

7. Any person who knowingly violates the provisions of this section, or who permits or encourages the unauthorized dissemination of information contained in the information system or the central registry and in reports and records made pursuant to sections 210.109 to 210.183, shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

210.152. 1. All identifying information, including telephone reports reported pursuant to section 210.145, relating to reports of abuse or neglect received by the division shall be retained by the division and removed from the records of the division as follows:

(1) For investigation reports contained in the central registry, identifying information shall be retained by the division;

(2) For investigation reports where insufficient evidence of abuse or neglect is found by the division, identifying information shall be retained for [five] three years from the date of the report or from the date of the closing of a case opened by the division in response to the report or from the date of the last report if there were subsequent reports, whichever is later. Such report shall include any exculpatory evidence known by the division, including exculpatory evidence obtained after the closing of the case. At the end of such [five-year] three-year period, the identifying information shall be removed from the records of the division and destroyed;

(3) Any person, official or institution intentionally filing a false report shall be subject to the penalty provisions as provided by section 210.165. In addition, in the case of court adjudication as provided by section 210.165, any person or official employed by the division intentionally filing a false report of child abuse or neglect shall be subject to the following:

(a) Suspension of employment not to exceed three months for a first offense;

(b) Termination of employment for a second offense.

(4) For reports where the division uses the family assessment and services approach, identifying information shall be retained by the division;

[(4)] (5) For reports in which the division is unable to locate the child alleged to have been abused or neglected, identifying information shall be retained for ten years from the date of the report and then shall be removed from the records of the division.

2. Within ninety days after receipt of a report of abuse or neglect that is investigated, the alleged perpetrator named in the report and the parents of the child named in the report, if the alleged perpetrator is not a parent, shall be notified in writing of any determination made by the division based on the investigation. The notice shall advise either:

(1) That the division has determined that there is probable cause to suspect abuse or neglect exists and that the division shall retain all identifying information regarding the abuse or neglect; that such information shall remain confidential and will not be released except to law enforcement agencies, prosecuting or circuit attorneys, or as provided in section 210.150; that the alleged perpetrator has sixty days from the date of receipt of the notice to seek reversal of the division's determination through a review by the child abuse and neglect review board as provided in subsection 3 of this section;

(2) There is insufficient probable cause of abuse or neglect. The notice will also inform the person who is the subject of a report where there is insufficient evidence of abuse or neglect, of the right to file a written appeal with the director of the division of family services to order the records be removed from the division and destroyed. The notification must continue and state that if the person who is the subject of a report where there is insufficient evidence of abuse or neglect, is aggrieved by the decision of the director of the division of family services not to remove and destroy the records, such person may petition the circuit court to order the records removed from the division and destroyed.

3. Any person named in an investigation as a perpetrator who is aggrieved by a determination of abuse or neglect by the division as provided in this section may seek an administrative review by the child abuse and neglect review board pursuant to the provisions of section 210.153. Such request for review shall be made within sixty days of notification of the division's decision under this section. In those cases where criminal charges arising out of facts of the investigation are pending, the request review shall be made within sixty days from the court's final disposition or dismissal of the charges.

4. In any such action for administrative review, the child abuse and neglect review board shall sustain the division's determination if such determination is supported by evidence of probable cause and is not against the weight of such evidence. The child abuse and neglect review board hearing shall be closed to all persons except the parties, their attorneys and those persons providing testimony on behalf of the parties.

5. If the alleged perpetrator is aggrieved by the decision of the child abuse and neglect review board, the alleged perpetrator may seek de novo judicial review in the circuit court in the county in which the alleged perpetrator resides and in circuits with split venue, in the venue in which the alleged perpetrator resides, or in Cole County. If the alleged perpetrator is not a resident of the state, proper venue shall be in Cole County. The case may be assigned to the family court division where such a division has been established. The request for a judicial review shall be made within sixty days of the notification of the decision of the child abuse and neglect review board decision. In reviewing such decisions, the circuit court shall provide the alleged perpetrator the opportunity to appear and present testimony. The alleged perpetrator may subpoena any witnesses except the alleged victim or the reporter. However, the circuit court shall have the discretion to allow the parties to submit the case upon a stipulated record.

6. In any such action for administrative review the child abuse and neglect review board shall notify the child or the parent, guardian or legal representative of the child that a review has been requested.

210.183. 1. At the time of the initial investigation of a report of child abuse or neglect, the division employee conducting the investigation shall provide the alleged perpetrator with a written description of the investigation process. Such written notice shall be given substantially in the following form:

"The investigation is being undertaken by the Division of Family Services pursuant to the requirements of chapter 210 of the Revised Missouri Statutes in response to a report of child abuse or neglect.

"The identity of the person who reported the incident of abuse or neglect is confidential and may not even be known to the Division since the report could have been made anonymously.

"This investigation is required by law to be conducted in order to enable the Division of Family Services to identify incidents of abuse or neglect in order to provide protective or preventive social services to families who are in need of such services.

"The division shall make every reasonable attempt to complete the investigation within thirty days. Within ninety days you will receive a letter from the Division which will inform you of one of the following:

"(1) That the Division has found insufficient evidence of abuse or neglect; that the subject of a report where there is insufficient evidence of abuse or neglect has the right to file a written appeal with the director of the division of family services to order the records be removed from the division and destroyed. The notification must continue and state that if the person who is the subject of a report where there is insufficient evidence of abuse or neglect, is aggrieved by the decision of the director of the division of family services not to remove and destroy the records, such person may petition the circuit court to order the records removed from the division and destroyed; or

"(2) That there appears to be probable cause to suspect the existence of child abuse or neglect in the judgment of the Division and that the Division will contact the family to offer social services.

"If the Division finds there is probable cause to believe child abuse or neglect has occurred or the case is substantiated by court adjudication, a record of the report and information gathered during the investigation will remain on file with the Division.

"If you disagree with the determination of the Division and feel that there is insufficient probable cause to believe abuse or neglect has occurred, you have a right to request an administrative review at which time you may hire an attorney to represent you. If you request an administrative review on the issue, you will be notified of the date and time of your administrative review hearing by the child abuse and neglect review board. If the division's decision is reversed by the child abuse and neglect review board, the Division records concerning the report and investigation will be updated to reflect such finding. If the child abuse and neglect review board upholds the division's decision, an appeal may be filed in circuit court within sixty days of the child abuse and neglect review board's decision."

2. If the division uses the family assessment approach, the division shall at the time of the initial contact provide the parent of the child with the following information:

(1) The purpose of the contact with the family;

(2) The name of the person responding and his office telephone number;

(3) The assessment process to be followed during the division's intervention with the family including the possible services available and expectations of the family."

LETTER OF OBJECTION

CONSTITUTIONAL OBJECTION

IN THE SECOND REGULAR SESSION OF THE EIGHTY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

OBJECTION

Comes now, Representative Don Lograsso, duly elected member of the Missouri House of Representatives from the fifty-fourth district, to present the following objection pursuant to Article III, section 30, of the Missouri Constitution, to Senate Bill No. 676. This bill should not be signed and this objection shall be so noted in the Journal and if the signed shall be annexed to the bill for the governor's consideration.

I believe this legislation is constitutionally infirm for the following reasons:

1. Senate Bill No. 676 allows municipal health facilities organized pursuant to chapter 96, county health facilities organized pursuant to chapter 205, and hospital districts organized pursuant to chapter 206 to operate health care facilities outside their respective territorial districts.

2. In each type of facility the taxes which support the facilities are levied within the territorial districts based on the assessed valuation of property within the territorial districts.

3. Such taxation scheme allows one group of taxpayers (those outside the territory) to benefit at the expense of another group of similarly-situated taxpayers (those inside the territory).

4. Senate Bill 676 is unconstitutional in that is a violation of the equal protection provision of Article I, section 2 of the Missouri Constitution and of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

5. Conference Committee Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill 676 mandates that "the governing body of the city shall approve the hospital's plan for such purchase, operation or lease prior to implementation of the plan."

6. Such mandate violates section 96.150, RSMo (1994) which requires voter approval for the establishment of separate medical facilities and additional levies, and also violates section 22, Article X of the Missouri Constitution.

7. In addition, I object to Senate Bill 676 on statutory grounds because it is statutorily inconsistent with section 205.270, RSMo (1994) in that section 205.270, RSMo (1994) specifically states that the hospitals established pursuant to the sections "shall be for the benefit of the inhabitants of such county and of any person falling sick or being injured or maimed within its limits."

8. Accordingly, I conclude that Senate Bill 676 is unconstitutional for the above-stated reasons and should not be signed.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Don Lograsso

SIGNING OF SENATE BILL

All other business of the House was suspended while SB 676 was read at length and was signed by the Speaker to the end that the same may become law.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 895 and House Bill No. 986 entitled:

An act to repeal section 302.272, RSMo 1994, section 302.272 as truly agreed to and finally passed by the second regular session of the eighty-eighth general assembly in senate bill no. 522, and section 302.272 as truly agreed to and finally passed by the second regular session of the eighty-eighth general assembly in house bill no. 1441, relating to school bus operator permits, and to enact in lieu thereof three new sections relating to the same subject, with an emergency clause.

The primary purpose of this bill is to remove the maximum age restriction that prohibits persons seventy years old and over from obtaining a permit to operate a school bus. The bill also contains an appropriate restriction for the protection of public safety that requires persons seventy years old and over to renew their permits annually.

However, the bill also increases the fee for a new or renewed permit to operate a school bus from $3.00 to $11.00 unless the applicant is 70 years old or over, in which case the fee increased to $3.75. I object to the significant increase in the fee.

For the above and foregoing reasons, House Bill No. 895 and House Bill No. 986 is returned and not approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Mel Carnahan

Herewith I return to you Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1099 entitled:

An act to repeal sections 266.152, 266.160, 266.165, 266.170, 266.175, 266.180, 266.185, 266.190, 266.200, 266.205, 266.210, 266.220, 276.401, 276.411, 276.421, 276.423, 276.426, 276.436, 276.441, 276.456, 276.461, 276.471, 276.486, 276.491, 276.501, 276.506, 276.511, 276.516, 411.115, 411.131, 411.180, 411.260, 411.261, 411.271, 411.278, 411.280, 411.283, 411.287, 411.321, 411.323, 411.325, 411.391, 411.405, 411.471, 411.517, 411.518 and 411.519, RSMo 1994, and section 266.195, 411.026 and 411.070, RSMo Supp. 1995, relating to agricultural products, and to enact in lieu thereof forty-nine new sections relating to the same subject, with penalty provisions, an emergency clause and an effective date for certain sections.

The above entitled bill contains several laudable provisions which would streamline the licensing process for grain dealers and certain entities involved in commercial feed production and distribution. However, the bill mandates numerous fee increases that are excessive and not necessary.

For the above and foregoing objections, Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1099 is returned and not approved.

Respectfully submitted,

VETO SESSION

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

FIRST DAY, Wednesday, September 11, 1996

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Carol Koenig, West Park United Methodist Church, Moberly, Mo.

Let us still our hearts - close our minds to all but this moment.

Creator and Giver of life, we bow in silence before you today, with gratitude and humility.

You have bestowed upon us material abundance. You have bestowed upon us authority. You have given us power over the lives of people. We are grateful for our lives and for the trust placed in us.

We are humbled by the magnitude of our mission. Teach us to be deliberate as we work, that we may check in ourselves all selfishness, all ungenerous judgment.

No matter our affiliation, give us the power of insight and discernment. Where we are filled with pride, subdue us; where we are in error, correct us. Open our minds that we might understand your world and its people. Grant us knowledge, wisdom and insight that what we do here may truly lead to better lives for the people of this State.

Let our gratitude strengthen us. Let our humility govern us. Let our belief in things larger than ourselves guide us.

May we hear our prayer and may we feel your power blessing us as we work together to create a better world. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Page of the Day, to serve without compensation: Lukas Noeth.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

July 3, 1996

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you House Bill No. 819 entitled:

"AN ACT"

Relating to Southern Regional Emergency Management Compact.

The primary purpose of this bill is to allow Missouri to participate in a mutual aid compact, which will result in the sharing of resources among states during times of emergency. The body of the bill is identical to SB 740 which I signed into law July 2, 1996.

However, this bill names the mutual aid compact the "Southern Regional Emergency Management Compact:, and SB 740 names the mutual aid compact the "Emergency Mutual Aid Compact." As a result of this inadvertent conflict, interpretation of these provisions in statute would result in confusion.

For the above foregoing reasons, House Bill No. 819 is returned and not approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Mel Carnahan

May 20, 1996

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 895 and House Bill No. 986 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To repeal section 302.272, RSMo 1994, section 302.272 as truly agreed to and finally passed by the second regular session of the eighty-eighth general assembly in senate bill no. 522, and section 302.272 as truly agreed to and finally passed by the second regular session of the eighty-eighth general assembly in house bill no. 1441, relating to school bus operator permits, and to enact in lieu thereof three new sections relating to the same subject, with an emergency clause.

The primary purpose of this bill is to remove the maximum age restriction that prohibits persons seventy years old and over from obtaining a permit to operate a school bus. The bill also contains an appropriate restriction for the protection of public safety that requires persons seventy years old and over to renew their permits annually.

However, the bill also increases the fee for a new or renewed permit to operate a school bus from $3.00 to $11.00 unless the applicant is 70 years old or over, in which case the fee increased to $3.75. I object to the significant increase in the fee.

For the above and foregoing reasons, House Bill No. 895 and House Bill No. 986 is returned and not approved.

Respectfully submitted,

June 11, 1996

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1007 entitled:

"AN ACT'

To appropriate money for the expenses, grants, refunds, and distributions of the Department of Economic Development, Department of Insurance, and the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, and the several divisions and programs thereof to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri, and to transfer money among certain funds, for the period beginning July 1, 1996 and ending June 30, 1997.

Section 7.137

I hereby veto $100,000 for the Missouri Humanities Council because of a technical error in appropriations passed by the General Assembly. The appropriations provide for spending from the Missouri Arts Council Trust Fund rather that the Missouri Humanities Council Trust Fund. This error can be corrected in the supplemental appropriations. No negative impact will occur due to this delay of program funding for the Missouri Humanities Council.

Said section is vetoed by $100,000 to $0 in total from Missouri Arts Council Trust Fund.

On June 11, 1996, I approved said Conference Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1007, except for those items specifically vetoed and not approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Mel Carnahan

June 11, 1996

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1011 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To appropriate money for the expenses, grants, and distributions of the Department of Social Services and the several divisions and programs thereof to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri, for the period

Section 11.051

I hereby veto $27,500 general revenue in the Division of General Services' budget for a feasibility study of a building in Cape Girardeau. The Office of Administration, Division of Design and Construction, has already determined that the building would require a total renovation, including the removal of lead and asbestos and the replacement of all major mechanical and electrical systems. The building would require very extensive work, at a considerable expense, before it would benefit Missouri's citizens as a support center.

Said section is vetoed in its entirety. Expense and Equipment by $27,500 from $27,500 to $0.

From $27,500 to $0 in total from General Revenue Fund.

Section 11.125

I hereby veto $251,379, including $125,690 general revenue, for two income maintenance supervisors and five clerk typists for the Division of Family Services (DFS). The purpose of expanding the DFS staff is to attempt to reduce food stamp and welfare error rates in St. Louis. The Fiscal Year 1996 and Fiscal Year 1997 budgets each have $2.5 million for DFS to pay overtime for caseworkers and support staff to reduce error rates. Existing, experienced caseworkers are being used in this statewide effort. The impact of this approach has not been fully evaluated and should be considered before state bureaucracy is expanded. The state has also invested in computer systems to increase the efficiency and accuracy of state employees. Adding staff at this point would be contrary to the more business-like direction in which the state has been moving to increase the effectiveness and efficiency of current staff.

Personal Service by $62,208 from $9,172,041 to $9,109,833.

From $10,098,043 to $9,972,353 in total from General Revenue Fund.

Personal Service by $62,208 from $24,489,300 to $24,427,092.

Expense and Equipment by $63,481 from $1,734, 237 to $1,670,756.

From $26,270,171 to $26,144,482 in total from Federal Funds.

From $36,610,166 to $36,358,787 in total for the section.

Section 11.126

I hereby veto $387,564, including $193,782 general revenue, for 17 caseworkers and 2 case analysts for the Division of Family Services (DFS). The purpose of expanding the DFS staff is to attempt to reduce food stamp and welfare error rates in St. Louis. The Fiscal Year 1996 and Fiscal Year 1997 budgets each have $2.5 million for DFS to pay overtime for caseworkers and support staff to reduce error rates. Existing, experienced caseworkers are being used in this statewide effort. The impact of this approach has not been fully evaluated and should be considered before state bureaucracy is expanded. The state has also invested in computer systems to increase the efficiency and accuracy of state employees. Adding staff at this point would be contrary to the more business-like direction in which the state has been moving to increase the effectiveness and efficiency of current staff.

Personal Service by $191,682 from $21,989,815 to $21,798,133.

Expense and Equipment by $2,100 from $997,607 to $995,507.

From $23,042,726 to $22,848,944 in total from General Revenue Fund.

Personal Service by $191,682 from $56,194,600 to $56,002,918.

Expense and Equipment by $2,100 from $1,643,485 to $1,641,385.

From $57,928,317 to $57,734,535 in total from Federal Funds.

From $81,376,624 to $80,989,060 in total for the section.

On June 11, 1996, I approved said Conference Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1011, except for those items specifically vetoed and not approved.

Respectfully submitted,

TO THE CHIEF CLERK OF THE

88TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

"AN ACT"

To repeal sections 266.152, 266.160, 266.165, 266.170, 266.175,

266.180, 266.185, 266.190, 266.200, 266.205, 266.210, 266.220,

276.401, 276.411, 276.421, 276.423, 276.426, 276.436, 276.441,

276.456, 276.461, 276.471, 276.486, 276.491, 276.501, 276.506,

276.511,276.516, 411.115, 411.131, 411.180, 411.260, 411.261,

411.271, 411.278, 411,280, 411.283, 411.287, 411.321, 411.323,

411.325, 411.391, 411.405, 411.471, 411.517, 411.518 and 411.519,

RSMo 1994, and section 266.195, 411.026 and 411.070, RSMo Supp.

1995, relating to agriculture products, and to enact in lieu thereof forty-nine new sections relating to the same subject, with penalty provisions, an emergency clause and an effective date for certain sections.

The above entitled bill contains several laudable provisions which would streamline the licensing process for grain dealers and certain entities involved in commercial feed production and distribution. However, the bill mandates numerous fee increases that are excessive and not necessary.

For the above and foregoing objections, Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1099 is returned and not approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Mel Carnahan

July 12, 1996

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1113 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To repeal section 173.250, RSMo 1994, and section 173.239, RSMo Supp. 1995, relating to certain scholarship programs, and to enact in lieu thereof seven new sections

Although creating scholarships and grants for the youth of our state in order to increase the access to the educational opportunities offered by our schools, colleges and universities is a high priority of my administration, I must return this bill unsigned because certain provisions could result in state funds being provided to students pursuing a degree in theology or divinity. Article IX, Section 8, of the Missouri Constitution prohibits public aid for religious purposes. While I certainly respect an individual's right to freely exercise the religion of their choice, I am advised that approval of this bill would result in almost certain litigation as to whether or not state funds expended for a student pursuing a divinity or theology degree violates the above referenced section of our Constitution, as well as the United States Constitution. Because I prefer the state education funds to be spent on education and not litigation, I object to this bill in order to avoid the almost certain litigation which would follow.

For the above reasons, I must return House Bill No. 1113 unsigned.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Mel Carnahan

July 3, 1996

TO SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you Senate Substitute #4 for Senate Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bills Nos. 1320, 981, 1042, 1109, and 1250 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To repeal sections 188.025 and 188.080, RSMo 1994, relating to abortions, and to enact in lieu thereof seven new sections relating to the same subject, with penalty provisions and an effective date.

I cannot approve HB 1320 and must return it unsigned because it places further restrictions on a women's right to choose, puts women who must undergo emergency abortions at risk, contains record- keeping provisions which violate current confidentiality protections for women and physicians, and contains provisions which raise serious constitutional questions.

House Bill 1320 places new barriers between women and their right to choose a safe and legal abortion by placing multiple new requirements on physicians who perform the procedure. Because the bill limits application of these new requirements only to physicians who perform abortions, and does not apply the new requirements to other legal medical and surgical procedures, it is clear that the bill was not written solely to protect the health and safety of women as some proponents have argued. Instead, I believe this bill is primarily intended to further hinder a woman's right to choose.

A woman' s access to safe and legal abortions is further jeopardized by House Bill 1320 because it changes current law about what is required when a woman has an abortion because of an emergency. Currently, there are certain requirements to be met when an abortion is to be performed, including that the procedure must be performed by a physician. These requirements are found in chapter 188, RSMo. Section 188.077 of House Bill 1320 will allow anyone who decides that a "medical emergency has so complicated the pregnancy as to require an emergency abortion" to ignore the requirements of chapter 188. This section of HB 1320 would endanger women's health by allowing untrained or unqualified people to perform abortions. This clearly puts women in danger and could return us to the days of the past when women died from unsafe back alley abortions performed by unlicensed and incompetent individuals.

Another troubling provision is contained in section 192.038 which requires the Department of Health to make sure that certain abortion facilities comply with the record-keeping provisions of chapter 188. However, the confidentiality protections of chapter 188 are not recodified in chapter 192. This effectively removes the confidentiality protections in chapter 188 in order to identify and make public the names of physicians who perform abortions. Such disclosures would put physicians, their families and patients at risk of harassment, intimidation, or injury as we have unfortunately seen in other states.

House Bill 1320 also contains a provision which may violate existing court orders against the State of Missouri. In the Ashcroft decision in 1983, the United States Supreme Court found that a Missouri statute which required that an abortion be performed in a specific facility was unconstitutional. HB 1320 attempts to do the same thing in section 188.025 by limiting the places where abortions can be performed. I believe the Court has already ruled on this type of provision and that this section of the bill would likely be found to be unconstitutional and a violation of an existing court order.

For the above foregoing reasons, the bill is returned and not approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Mel Carnahan

July 12, 1996

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1379 entitled:

"An Act"

Relating to certain operations of government.

The purpose of this bill is to protect individual privacy by limiting the disclosure of social security numbers. While I am supportive of that goal, the over-broad language of the bill could result in excessive delays in the delivery of government services without providing the intended protections.

I am instructing all of the directors of the executive departments to re-examine their department's policies and procedures regarding the disclosure of social security numbers and work with my office to develop a policy to address this issue. This policy would be implemented through either an executive order or future legislation.

For the above and foregoing reasons, Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1379 is returned and not approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Mel Carnahan

July 12, 1996

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1523 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To amend chapter 610, RSMo, relating to governmental records by adding thereto one new section, relating to certain public school records.

One purpose of this bill is to limit access to personally identifiable school records by any person who is not employed by a school district. As the bill is drafted, school districts will only be able to transfer a student's records to another school district with the consent of a parent or guardian. This language is in conflict with the Safe Schools Act which allows a student's record to follow the student to every school district he or she attends.

For the above and foregoing reasons, Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1523 is returned and not approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Mel Carnahan

VETO SESSION

Second Regular Session, 88th General Assembly

SECOND DAY, Thursday, September 12, 1996

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Mary Groves Bland.

Precious Lord, God Almighty,

Take our hand and lead us as we struggle on the path of righteousness.

Lord we stand humbly before you this morning bowing our head in humility, lifting our hearts and spirits in praise. We ask Father, that we are always mindful of your goodness in our lives; but Father let us also be mindful of the many in this State, Nation, World, who are experiencing difficulties in their life at this time. Our communities are plagued with violence, poverty, crime, health concerns, hunger and homelessness.

The Bible tells us that we are our "Brothers' keeper and that the poor will be with us always."

We have been blessed with the opportunity to serve the people, the healthy, the sick, the working, the poor, the prosperous, the homeless and sometimes Father, it seems as if we have a mountain of impossibilities before us. Give us the courage and strength to just hue out stones of hope, jobs, health, shelter for the homeless and food for the hungry.

As your Servant, teach us obedience unto you, respect unto each other, and always to be responsible and responsive to the people that send us here.

Father, as our colleagues leave us to venture into new horizons, let our prayers be with them and their families.

To God be the Glory for the opportunity to serve in the House and the Great State.

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.
